June 1931

Alumni News

Chicago-Kent Law Review

Follow this and additional works at: https://scholarship.kentlaw.iit.edu/cklawreview

Part of the Law Commons

Recommended Citation

Available at: https://scholarship.kentlaw.iit.edu/cklawreview/vol9/iss3/8

This Notes is brought to you for free and open access by Scholarly Commons @ IIT Chicago-Kent College of Law. It has been accepted for inclusion in Chicago-Kent Law Review by an authorized editor of Scholarly Commons @ IIT Chicago-Kent College of Law. For more information, please contact dginsberg@kentlaw.iit.edu.
ALUMNI NEWS

MORTON L. ROBERTS, '90, for forty years a member of the Illinois Bar, died on December 6, 1930.

The College regrets to announce the death of TIMOTHY F. MULLEN, '91, a member of the Ways and Means Committee of the Chicago-Kent Union. Mr. Mullen passed away on January 22, 1931. He had formerly served as assistant to the Attorney General of Illinois in charge of the litigation of the Public Utilities Commission and his practice in later years was largely concerned with public utility cases before the Interstate Commerce Commission and the Illinois Public Utilities Commission.

JAMES I. ENNIS, '93, whose death on July 1, 1930, was reported in the November issue of the Review, had been in the active practice of law since 1908. Before that he had been employed for twenty-five years with the Merchants Loan and Trust Co., where he had developed exceptional ability in the study of handwriting. His ability became widely known and he was engaged as an expert in a number of cases throughout the country. Mr. Ennis was also known as a Master in Chancery of the Superior Court for many years.

JUDGE ISAAC R. HITT, '94, since his appointment in 1925 by President Coolidge, Judge of the Police Court for the District of Columbia, was appointed for another term of six years by President Hoover last February. The court is the only Federal Police Court in the United States. In certain criminal cases it has concurrent jurisdiction with the Supreme Court of the District. Judge Hitt has served as attorney in the law division of the Internal Revenue Bureau and as United States Commissioner for the District of Columbia. In 1900 he compiled the Internal Revenue Laws for the Government.

ABRAHAM ROBERT MARRIOTT, '97, since November, 1929, president of the Chicago Title and Trust Co., died on May 20. Mr. Marriott had been a vice-president since the formation of that company in 1901, and prior to that he had been associated with its predecessors with whom he had started as an office boy. Recognized as an authority on real estate titles, he held, in addition to that with the Chicago Title and Trust Co., the position of president of the Du Page Title Company of Wheaton and of the Allman-Gary Title Co. of Gary, Indiana. He had for twenty-five years been a member of the executive committee of the Illinois Abstractors’ Association, and was on the Chicago and Cook County Real Estate Boards.
ALUMNI NEWS

JOHN J. POULTON, '01, died on July 27, 1930. He had been a member of the State Legislature and an assistant Attorney General in charge of inheritance tax cases. He was associated with the law firm of Smietanka, Poulton and Bryant at the time of his death.

In the passing away of WOODRUFF J. PARKER, '05, on March 23, 1930, according to The Chicago Bar Association Record, "the bar lost one of the best minds that have come to its ranks in this locality in many a year." One of Mr. Parker's first positions was with the Chicago Title and Trust Co., where he became a proficient examiner of titles and an authority on long term leases. He was a member of the law firm of Chapman, Cutler and Parker and later of the firm of Schuyler, Weinfeld and Parker.

PERCY W. SULLIVAN, '05, passed away June 17, 1930. For a number of years after his admission to the Bar he was associated with the firm of Loesch, Scofield and Loesch, but he later practiced by himself, specializing in special assessment law.

EARL R. REYNOLDS, '07, who is now associated with the Penn Mutual Life Insurance Company of Philadelphia, visited the College on April 7.

CHARLES J. JACKSON, '09, is an architect and supervising engineer for a Research Laboratory building for Spang, Chalfant Company, Inc. of Pittsburgh.

JOSEPH F. SARLEY, '13, died on September 25, 1930. Mr. Sarley will be remembered as an instructor at the College between the years 1920 and 1924, when he taught the subjects of "income tax law," "corporations," and "constitutional law." He had been employed in the United States Revenue Department and later became a counsellor in matters of income tax, in which subject he specialized until the time of his death.

HARRY I. TIFFANY, '16, is now a Vice-President of The Stock Yards National Bank, Chicago.

ALLAN T. GILBERT, JR., '18, associated with Watkins, Ten Hoor and Gilbert, was elected president of the Hamilton Club on May 18.
CARL F. LUND, '18, died on October 1, 1930. Mr. Lund had practiced law in North and South Dakota, and later at Socorro, territory of New Mexico, before he came to Illinois. After three years' study at this College, he was admitted to practice at the Illinois Bar. For six years he served on the staff of the Corporation Counsel.

DONALD H. SWEET, '21, associated with Freeman and Albrecht, notified the office of the College that his firm has opened a new office in the Mariner Tower in Milwaukee. His practice is in matters of patents, trade-marks, unfair competition and copyrights.

ALBERT FRITZSHAL, '26, is now in the general practice of law for himself at 32 W. Randolph Street.

EVAR T O. OSTBERG, '26, and his associates, have formed a partnership for the general practice of law under the firm name of Brenner, McBride and Ostberg, with offices at 77 W. Washington Street, Chicago.

SAMUEL E. KART, '27, who is now in the general practice of law for himself at 134 N. La Salle Street, called at the College on February 25.

MEYER BALIN, '29, who is now practicing law for himself, with offices at 111 W. Washington Street, visited the College on March 9.

ELDON M. MARTIN, '29, was appointed Assistant General Attorney for the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company, to give special attention to commerce matters.

The City Club Bulletin announces the appointment of SOLOMON JESMER, (Feb.) '31, to a committee to study the mortgage and foreclosure laws in Illinois.