The Forty-Fourth Anniversary Luncheon and Homecoming was held on June 8 at the Morrison Hotel. This was the fourth annual homecoming luncheon to be held under the auspices of the Chicago-Kent Union, and approximately six hundred alumni of the College were present.

After luncheon, Guy Guernsey, Secretary of the Faculty, presided over the meeting of the Union. Dean Webster H. Burke told the alumni of the progress and activities of the College during the year. Following Dean Burke, representatives of several of the classes were called upon by Chairman Guernsey. Among those who spoke were: Myron W. Whittemore, representing the class of 1891, Bert E. Pinkerton, representing the class of 1901, Michael F. Ryan of the class of 1911, Russell C. Smith of the class of 1921, and Edward G. Brady and J. Rex Allen of the February and June classes of 1931.

The Chicago-Kent Union was organized in 1927 to foster a closer relationship between the College and its alumni and students, and to provide opportunity for reunion to graduate classes. The activities of the Union are carried on under the direction of the Trustees through class representatives on the Ways and Means Committee.
