The College acknowledges four gifts of books for the library. Mr. William F. Conlon, trustee of the College, on March 11, 1932, presented a number of early New York reports in the original editions, and also some New York session laws. Through the generosity of Professor Charles C. Pickett the library has acquired a number of valuable textbooks. Harvey H. Talcott, '32, and Grove G. Talcott, '32, have presented a number of books to the library, including some very early Illinois Session Laws. Mr. Edward M. Johnson recently presented a set of Cranch's Reports in the original edition and also two rare treatises on real property. These gifts are valuable additions to the library and are gratefully received.
