Alumni News

Chicago-Kent Law Review

Follow this and additional works at: https://scholarship.kentlaw.iit.edu/cklawreview

Part of the Law Commons

Recommended Citation
Available at: https://scholarship.kentlaw.iit.edu/cklawreview/vol11/iss1/8

This Notes is brought to you for free and open access by Scholarly Commons @ IIT Chicago-Kent College of Law. It has been accepted for inclusion in Chicago-Kent Law Review by an authorized editor of Scholarly Commons @ IIT Chicago-Kent College of Law. For more information, please contact dginsberg@kentlaw.iit.edu.
ALUMNI NEWS

CHARLES N. PRAY, '91, is one of three judges of a statutory United States Court at Tacoma, Washington. An interesting case before this court recently, involved a dispute between the cities of Portland and Seattle.

MYRON W. WHITTEMORE, '91, was the honored guest at a reunion held in June 1932 at the Bean District School near Hampshire in Keene County, Illinois, where he was the schoolmaster forty-five years ago. At the reunion Mr. and Mrs. Whittemore met eighteen former pupils of the Bean school who were in Mr. Whittemore's classes. His brother CHARLES B. WHITTEMORE, was graduated from this college with the class of 1900.

The Chicago Daily News of August 9, 1932 contained an account of a harvest party held at the Barrington, Illinois farm of EMIL C. WETTEN, '93.

WALTER C. HUGHES, '95, has moved his offices from 111 W. Washington Street to suite 1625, 38 S. Dearborn Street, Chicago.

EDWIN J. MILLER, '95, is engaged in the practice of law at 222 Grosse Building, Los Angeles, California.

HENRY J. SAMEIT, '95, is secretary and treasurer of the National Association of Farm Equipment Manufacturers. His office is in room 2128, 608 S. Dearborn Street, Chicago.

WILLIAM O. CARR, '96, is associated with the legal department of the Chicago Title and Trust Company, 69 W. Washington Street, Chicago.

MICHAEL E. CASSIDY, '99, has been appointed receiver for the Arizona Edison Company at Phoenix, Arizona.

HON. HENRY HORNER, '99, Judge of the Probate Court of Cook County, was elected Governor of the State of Illinois on November 8 last.

HARRY G. KEATS, '99, died September 27, 1932 at his home at 5555 Sheridan Road, Chicago. Mr. Keats was seventy years old at the time of his death. He had been an associate judge of the Probate Court and in recent years had been connected with the Union Bank of Chicago and the Chicago Bank of Commerce in the capacity of Trust Officer.
HARRY H. HARVEY, '00, is engaged in the practice of law at 7421 Washington Street, Kansas City, Missouri.

HON. GEORGE E. Q. JOHNSON, '00, United States District Attorney, has been appointed United States District Judge by President Hoover. The class of 1900 has thus far produced five judges: GEORGE E. Q. JOHNSON, United States District Judge; JOHN M. O'CONNOR, Presiding Judge of the Appellate Court for the First District; JOHN R. CAVERLY, Judge of the Circuit Court of Cook County, ALFRED O. ERICKSON and JOHN F. HAAS, Judges of the Municipal Court of Chicago.

HON. JOHN M. O'CONNOR, '00, and ERWIN W. ROEMER, '12, were members of the committee of the Illinois Bar Association which drafted the proposed civil practice act, which is designed to simplify civil procedure in this state.

BERT E. PINKERTON, '01, is attorney for the United States Bureau of Industrial Alcohol, with offices at 608 S. Dearborn Street, Chicago.

CHARLES A. THEIS, '01, is engaged in the practice of law with offices in suite 310, Elkhart Hotel, Elkhart, Indiana.

GEORGE L. REKER, '02, Master in Chancery of the Superior Court died recently at his home in Chicago. Mr. Reker was an Assistant Corporation Counsel from 1908 to 1915. He was a member of the Chicago Bar Association, the Iroquois Club and the Board of Managers of the Law Institute.

ARTHUR L. SPRINKLE, '02, 1647 First National Bank Building, Chicago, has just returned from a two months' trip to France, Belgium, and the British Isles.

FRANZ W. CASTLE, '03, HARGRAVE A. LONG, '17, EMMET J. MCCARTHY, '17, HOWARD R. BINTLINGER, '23 and NEIL WILLIAMS, ex '28, are associated with the firm of Castle, Williams, Lon and McCarthy, suite 1537 Conway Building, Chicago.

HON. OTTO KERNER, '05, Associate Judge of the Appellate Court for the First District, was elected Attorney General of Illinois at the November elections.

HON. JAMES F. FARDY, '07, Judge of the Municipal Court of Chicago and a member of the faculty of Chicago-Kent College of Law, has been elected to the office of Judge of the Superior Court of Cook County.
Harry L. Brin, ’10, is Commander of Englewood Post No. 61, American Legion. He was a delegate to the National Convention of the American Legion at Portland, Oregon, in September, 1932.

Edward D. Jones, ’12, is engaged in the practice of law at 192 N. Clark Street, Chicago. Mr. Jones is specializing in the law of trademarks, copyrights, and unfair competition.

Ralph W. Lamperts, ’13, is associated with the Continental Casualty Company, Chicago, as auditor.

Otto B. Steiskal, ’14, is an Assistant State’s Attorney of Cook County. His office is located at 10 S. LaSalle Street, Chicago.

Charles L. Barrett, ’16, has located his offices in suite 1552, 10 S. LaSalle Street, Chicago.

James F. Lyons, ’16, is engaged in the practice of law at 155 N. Clark Street, Chicago. Mr. Lyons was an Assistant State’s Attorney from 1917 to 1920.

F. E. Moran, ’17, is the president of F. E. Moran, Inc., heating contractors, with offices at 6850 Grand Avenue, Chicago.

Wenley Hildebrand, ’18, is engaged in the general practice of law at 2403 S. Ridgeway Avenue, Chicago. He is counsel for the Lawndale Taxpayers Association.

Joseph F. Novatny, ’18, is president of the American Legion ’33 Corporation of Chicago, the purpose of which organization is to bring the national convention of the American Legion to Chicago in 1933. Mr. Novatny is past Cook County Commander and State Judge Advocate of the American Legion.

George W. Cottrell, ’19, is the Town Clerk of Norwood Park, Illinois.

Thomas P. Riordan, ’19, was recently elected secretary of Montgomery Ward and Company.

Anton B. Ziegweid, ’19, is practicing law at 23 S. Washington Street, Hinsdale, Illinois.

R. E. Dallin, ’20, died in Chicago in June, 1931.

Samuel D. Friedman, ’22, died July 20, 1932. Mr. Friedman was a member of the Chicago, Illinois State, and American Bar Associations.
PHILIP R. MONSON, '22, is practicing law in Fergus Falls, Minnesota. He is the City Attorney, and a member of the water and light commission.

NORMAN L. OLSON, '22, is a member of the firm of Ashcraft and Ashcraft, 134 S. LaSalle Street, Chicago.

ANDREW F. WINTERCORN, '23, is associated with the firm of Wilson and McCanna in their Rockford, Illinois, office at 303 N. Main Street. Mr. Wintercorn was formerly located in Dayton, Ohio, where he was patent attorney for the United States Air Service.

ROBERT LYONS CROSS, '24, is a candidate for admission to the Bar in Ohio. He is now located in Otsego, Ohio.

ARYLN RAYMOND KUCKOK, '24, is conducting the Merchants and Manufacturers Collection Association with offices in the Tower Building. Mr. Kuckok also manages a ranch in Colorado where he spends four or five months each year.

MINNA MOSCHEROSCH SCHMIDT, '24, is a lecturer at the University of Chicago and is Director of the Costume Workshop at that institution. A group of four hundred figurines of the best known women of the world, designed and costumed by her, will be an interesting exhibit at the Century of Progress in Chicago next year. Mrs. Schmidt now has a book in preparation on the four hundred greatest women of the world.

ELMER M. WALSH, '24, has been appointed Special Assistant State's Attorney to collect delinquent personal property taxes. Mr. Walsh was a candidate for judge of the Municipal Court of Chicago in the Republican primaries and finished thirteenth out of fifty-seven candidates.

EDWIN A. HOFELD, '25, is associated with the firm of A. S. and E. W. Froehlich in the general practice of law at 77 W. Washington Street, Chicago.

JEROME W. JUREWICZ, '25, Assistant Attorney General, was recently honored by the Polish Government with the decoration of the Order of Polonia Restituta. The decoration was conferred on him by Dr. Titus Zbyszewski, Consul General of Poland. Mr. Jurewicz sailed for Europe on August 27, to stimulate interest in the plans for the Century of Progress.

LEO RICE, '25, is engaged in the general practice of law at suite 924, 201 N. Wells Street, Chicago.
MARSHALL ROBERT WENDT, '25, is an attorney in the law department of the Pullman Company.

RAYMOND G. ZACK, '25, is the City Attorney of North Chicago, Illinois, with offices at 1700 Sheridan Road, North Chicago.

THOMAS J. COURTNEY, '26, former State Senator, has been elected State’s Attorney of Cook County.

R. A. BIEDERMANN, '27, formerly with the Union Bank of Chicago, is now practicing law at 111 W. Washington Street, Chicago, with the firm of Kamfner and Halligan.

PHILIP A. POPULORUM, '27, is associated with Clarence W. Diner in the practice of law at 4 S. Genesee Street, Waukegan, Illinois. Mr. Populorum has just returned from a trip to Europe where he studied court systems on the continent.

KENNETH H. ABBs, '28, died in May of 1932.

ROBERT EMMET BURKE, '28, is engaged in the general practice of law at 111 W. Washington Street, Chicago.

RUSSELL D. PATTERSON, '28, is engaged in the practice of law at 19 S. LaSalle Street, Chicago.

VINCENT C. BALDWIN, '29, is engaged in the practice of law at 111 W. Washington Street, Chicago. Mr. Baldwin has been admitted to practice before the Interstate Commerce Commission in Washington, D. C.

HARRY H. HITZEMAN, '29, is associated with A. Miller Belfield in the practice of patent law and its related branches at 53 W. Jackson Boulevard, Chicago.

ALEXANDER O. RAMLOSE, '29, and GEORGE A. EDWARDS, '29, are engaged in the general practice of law, under the firm name of Ramlose and Edwards, at 77 W. Washington Street and 2010 Milwaukee Avenue, Chicago.

BERNARD A. SCHROEDER, '29, is now associated with the firm of Dyrenforth, Lee, Chritton, and Wiles, suite 2800, Board of Trade Building, Chicago.

JULIUS E. SOLOMON, '29, is practicing law in suite 1614, 134 N. LaSalle Street, Chicago.

JOSEPH A. ZAMBRENO, '29, has opened his office for the general practice of law at 160 N. LaSalle Street, Chicago.
ERIC COLLINS, '30, and Mrs. Collins have announced the birth of a daughter, Barbara Ann, on March 5, 1932.

H. WILLIAMS HANMER, '30, is practicing law in suite 1635, 11 S. LaSalle Street, Chicago.

DAVID KRUEGER, '30, has located his law office at 3517 W. 63rd Street, Chicago.

EDWIN G. GEMRICH, '31, won the democratic nomination for the office of Prosecuting Attorney in Kalamazoo County, Michigan. Mr. Gemrich was defeated at the November elections by a comparatively small number of votes, running third on the Democratic ticket in that county and more than two thousand votes ahead of the president-elect.

J. A. C. KELLY, '31, was admitted to the Bar at the October term of the Supreme Court.

FRED W. NETTO, '31, is engaged in the practice of law at 3734 W. 26th Street, Chicago.

JOHN C. TRUSSELL, '31, is now associated with the firm of Burry, Johnstone, Peters and Dixon at 105 S. LaSalle Street, Chicago.

GEORGE F. WALSTED, '31, has opened his office for the general practice of law at 33 N. LaSalle Street, Chicago.

E. M. DAVIS, '32, is practicing law in Streator, Illinois, and is a candidate for the office of City Attorney.

LAYMAN L. HAY, '32, is engaged in the general practice of law and has opened his office in suite 1923, 111 W. Monroe Street, Chicago.

JOHN T. HOULIHAN, '32, is engaged in the practice of law in suite 1321, 30 N. LaSalle Street, Chicago.

ALFRED KAMIN, '32, is now a junior member of the firm of Wright and Kamin, 160 N. LaSalle Street, Chicago.

GEORGE E. LEVINGS, '32, and Mrs. Levings announce the birth of a daughter, Eugenia Huntley, July 1, 1932.