THE KENNETH M. PIPER LECTURESHIP SERIES

This volume marks the beginning of a new publication by the Chicago-Kent Law Review under the auspices of the Kenneth M. Piper Lectureship Series. Through the generosity of Mrs. Kenneth M. Piper, the Review will publish an annual volume containing lectures or panel discussions to be held annually at Chicago-Kent College of Law concerning issues important to the legal community. The annual series is held in memory of the late Mr. Kenneth M. Piper, a distinguished senior executive with Motorola, Inc. and Bausch & Lomb, Inc., who made important contributions to the fields of personnel management and labor relations during his more than two decades of service with those companies.

The inaugural issue under the Kenneth M. Piper Lectureship Series contains a speech given at the law school by the Honorable John H. Fanning, Chairman of the National Labor Relations Board, and a panel discussion with several distinguished labor attorneys. The issue also includes articles discussing other issues of interest in the field of labor relations.

The editors and staff of Chicago-Kent Law Review wish to express our appreciation to Mrs. Kenneth M. Piper and look forward to our annual publication of the Kenneth M. Piper Lectureship volume.
