LAWRENCE F. DOPPELT

In Memoriam

1935-1979

Lawrence Doppelt was born and raised in Chicago, Illinois. He attended the Chicago public schools, receiving his bachelors degree from Northwestern University in 1956 and his law degree from Yale University in 1959. He was admitted to the Illinois Bar in 1959 and served as an attorney with the National Labor Relations Board from 1959 to 1962. He then joined the firm of Dorfman, Cohen, Laner & Muchin, eventually becoming a partner in this prominent labor law firm. Professor Doppelt became an instructor at Chicago-Kent College of Law in 1970. He joined the faculty as an associate professor in 1971 and was appointed professor in 1974. Professor Doppelt specialized in labor law and published a number of significant articles in this field. He helped establish the law school's LL.M. Program in Labor Law and the Kenneth M. Piper Lectureship Series. In addition to his law school activities, Professor Doppelt was a member of the Panel of Arbitrators of the American Arbitration Association, the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service, and was a charter member of the Society of Professionals in Dispute Resolutions. He also served as a hearing examiner for the State of Illinois Fair Employment Practices Commission and as a public member of the Committee on Developing Labor Law under the National Labor Relations Act.

Professor Larry Doppelt was a beloved member of the faculty of Chicago-Kent College of Law. This inaugural issue of the Kenneth M. Piper Lectureship Series is dedicated to his memory.
