LEADING ARTICLES

DEAN'S RESEARCH CLASS TO COLLABORATE IN EDITING CHICAGO-KENT REVIEW

A comprehensive index of the leading articles and case discussions in the CHICAGO-KENT REVIEW has been prepared under the direction of the Society of Kent Honor Men and is shortly to be published by the Society. The index begins with Volume V and includes Volume XIII, completed with the September, 1935 issue.

TITLE INDEX OF LEADING ARTICLES

The index is composed of three parts. The first part is a title index of the leading articles which have been added to the REVIEW index with Volume V, published in the college year 1926-27. In preparing this title index, each leading article has been listed alphabetically by title under appropriate headings designating the field of law to which it relates. With this is added a second part, which is the name of the author and date of publication. The volume and page numbers in the REVIEW have been indicated by Roman and Arabic numerals, respectively.

SUBJECT INDEX OF CASE DISCUSSIONS

A subject index of case discussions forms the second part of the index. The discussion of current decisions, which have proved of great assistance to the readers of the REVIEW in keeping abreast of the law, are made accessible and free of permanent instead of merely transitory value. The discussions have been grouped in an alphabetical subject arrangement under the headings used for the title index of leading articles. Wherever there is a case discussion dealing with a subject as a leading article, an appropriate reference has been made in the title index of leading articles. In this way many leading articles are rendered more valuable by constant references indicating changes and trends in the law.

TABLE OF CASES

The index is completed by an alphabetical table of cases discussed. In listing these cases, the citations and dates of the decisions have been included. Through the use of this table, the reader may find quickly any discussion contained in the REVIEW, of a particular case he may have in mind.

HEADINGS FOLLOW CURRICULAR SUBJECTS

The headings used in the index have been chosen to coincide as closely as possible with the courses in the College curriculum. This was done, of course, to make the index of greatest assistance to students. However, many additional headings have been used to indicate the content of the articles. Cross indexing has been carried out wherever necessary.

MATERIAL OF PERMANENT VALUE ACCESSIBLE

The inclusion of leading articles in the REVIEW began to be a usual feature with the publication of Volume V. Several important legal discussions appeared in that volume, which was completed in 1927. The REVIEW began to devote some space to discussions of current decisions in 1928 and 1929 with the publication of Volume VII. All of this material, much of which is of permanent value, is useless unless readily accessible to readers of the REVIEW.

REVIEW EDITORIAL BOARD MEETS
WEEKLY TO DISCUSS NEW CASES

During the past school year and summer, Dean Burke, with the assistance of Professors Hemingway and Spielman, developed a new method for insuring thorough treatment of interesting current decisions in the CHICAGO-KENT REVIEW. The plan consists in the selection of a board of editors, composed of senior and graduate students, who meet once a week at the College, as a research class, and discuss significant cases from the most recent advance sheets. Certain of these cases are assigned to individual members of the group for investigation and for written comment.

This editorial board has been developed by Dean Burke from his research group, the formation of which was announced in the last issue of the CHICAGO-KENT NEWS.

ILLINOIS LAW EMPHASIZED

Emphasis is placed upon Illinois law, and the cases selected for comment from other jurisdictions are those which are believed to be of potential significance in this state.

EACH COMMENT CONSIDERED BY ENTIRE BOARD
A comment ordinarily involves a brief statement of the facts of the case, a discussion of the authorities and other cases in point, and an opinion as to the soundness of the decision and its probable effect. These comments are read before the entire group for criticism and revision.

HAS RECEIVED FAVORABLE COMMENT
The new plan has functioned well and the articles published have produced favorable discussion and comment among both students and lawyers.
THE LAWYER IN PUBLIC LIFE

The second of a series of articles to be contributed by prominent alumni. Governor Horner is an alumnus of the Class of '98, and a former professor of law at CHICAGO-KENT.

LAWSYER OWES A CIVIC DUTY TO THE PUBLIC TRAINED MINDS NEEDED IN PUBLIC AFFAIRS THE PROFESSION ITSELF — A PUBLIC TRUST

By Honorable Henry Horner, Governor of Illinois

The success of our democratic form of government depends to a great extent upon the lawyers in public life and the lawyers who interest themselves in public questions. All lawyers should charge themselves with a duty to the public and become in the life of the State and Nation something more than one who stands at the bar of justice and pleads the causes of individuals. A complete lawyer must be continuously student and educator, and throughout his life carry on that which the law schools began for him.

LAWSYERS ALWAYS REGARDED AS LEADERS

Lawyers always have been regarded as leaders by the people generally, and will continue to be so regarded as long as they embrace the opportunity their profession offers. Lawyers are trained in the science of government and it naturally, therefore, becomes their province to guide the public. Admission to the Bar is a privilege. The practice of law is a high public trust and the State and Nation have a right to expect from lawyers particularly an active interest in public affairs.

LAWSYERS GUIDED FRAMING OF CONSTITUTION

Early in the life of the American government practically every lawyer interested himself in the affairs of the nation and the best legal minds were at the source of government and guided our destinies, resulting in the greatest basic law ever written—the Constitution of the United States.

BAR HAS CONTRIBUTED EMINENT LEADERS

In the early days the Bar contributed such men as Webster, Calhoun, Clay and Douglas to the United States Senate. Lincoln, the President, was a better leader in the crisis through which he served because he had been "Lincoln, the lawyer."

LAWYER'S DUTY TO HELP INFORM PUBLIC

Many of our fellow citizens do not comprehend legal phraseology, nor do they understand the provisions of our State and National Constitutions; nor, for that matter, do very many citizens understand either the provisions or the effect of our laws. Lawyers know the answer to these and practically all public questions. It is their duty to help inform the public. They can bring much enlightenment to their fellowmen even after making allowance for the possible bias in public statements of some political lawyers who may stress certain features of certain legislation because of partisan politics.

CANNOT ESCAPE RESPONSIBILITY OF SERVICE

Although a lawyer may have no desire to serve the public in an official capacity, there can be no excuse whatever for the failure of any lawyer to interest himself in public affairs. Ours is a government of law under the Constitution, and he who is trained to understand the law and the science and machinery of government cannot escape the responsibility of service to his fellowmen. His obligation is the greater in times like these when laymen are taking more of an interest than ever in public questions and need the help and guidance of trained minds.

TWO ESSENTIALS ABSOLUTE

To those who are now students with high hopes for the future, let me say that the fame of the lawyer has not been easily acquired. No profession demands more understanding devotion of its members than do those of the lawyer. The essentials are absolute—integrity and the will to do. Give those qualities and the vision of our country's needs to the law student of today and his leadership in the future is assured, because there never was a time in the history of our country when lawyers had a better opportunity for service to their fellowmen.

Fourteen Thousand Volumes

12 Hr. Daily Service

CHICAGO-KENT is justly proud of its library of about fourteen thousand volumes covering practically the entire field of legal literature. New volumes are constantly being added.

LATEST ADVANCE SHEETS

The latest advance sheets covering the decisions of all United States jurisdictions, are available as soon as they are issued. For the March and April issues, United States Supreme, Illinois Supreme, and Illinois Appellate court advance sheets of these specific courts are received. For other jurisdictions in the United States the latest decisions are always available, as the College subscribes to the complete services of the National Reporter System.

Cyclopedia, Texts, Periodicals

In addition to the reported decisions, English and American court reports, the library contains the standard encyclopedias, such as "Corpus Juris" and "Failing Case Law," the standard collections of works by the best writers, standard collections of cases, such as "A.L.R." and "L.R.A.," the Year Books and other publications of the Selden Society, and Digests, Revised Statutes, casebooks, and many other volumes too numerous to mention. The list includes a vocational and professional selection of current periodical legal literature.

STUDENTS AND ALUMNI INVITED

It is the constant effort of the College to make the library and adjoining study room of the utmost service to students and alumni and to encourage them to use it for study and research.

12-HOUR DAILY SERVICE

In order to afford the maximum opportunity for study and research, the College now gives a 12-hour library service every school day, from 9 a.m. until 9 p.m.

ADDITIONAL STUDY ROOMS

For the further convenience of those who prefer to study at the College, where the library is always available to "clear up" a difficult point, additional study rooms have been provided.

OBITUARY

CLARENCE JOSEPH SINDELAR, '36, died at the hospital in Berwyn, Illinois, July 24, 1935, after a short illness. He was 36 years of age.

Mr. Sindelar was born in Chicago, August 20, 1911. He graduated from Morton High School in 1929 following which he was a student of engineering at Morton Junior College and Armour Institute of Technology for two and one-half years.

In preparation for the study of law, he then entered the College of Liberal Arts at Northwestern University, where he studied for one and one-half years. He entered CHICAGO-KENT in September, 1932.

JANUARY MEETING

The January meeting of Round Table was held in the Electric Club on the 50th floor of the Oppenheimer Building. The speaker was Mr. Irvin Rooks, counsel for the Illinois Commerce Commission. Mr. Rooks explained some of the legal face that body in its dealings with the various public utilities of the state, and the fight of the Commission to protect the interests of the consumer with regard to rates and the benefit of the general public.

FEBRUARY MEETING

The February meeting was addressed by Mr. Luther W. Walter, of the Interstate Commerce Commission. Mr. Walter discussed the law and functions of that body and explained its relationship. He stated the problem of railway rate making was most carefully outlined and the two controversies, "Long Haul More Than Equal Than Carload," were presented, with explanations for the decisions.

JUDGE PICKETT IN HOSPITAL

On February 24, Mr. Pickett was operated upon for a small growth in the tonsil region which arose in attempting to survive the "prohibition era."

APRIL MEETING

The April meeting was addressed by Mr. George Q. Johnson, whose law year was presented by the members of the college for over an hour as he told of some amusing tales during his days as a member of the United States District Attorneys' office in the Chicago office. The meeting was well attended. The speaker was Mr. Irvin Rooks.

MAY MEETING

The May meeting which finished the complete calendar for Round Table, was of a less serious nature. Judge Pickett returned and presided, thus making the luncheon speaker for the day Mr. Frank Smith, of the Attorney General's office. The members were present, and the speakers were with a pen and pencil set, with admonitions as to its use "at exam time." When the Director spoke, he named the members who were to graduate, and the new officers, and invited all those going on to the bar to attend as many future meetings as possible. After the speaking was concluded, Mr. Frank Smith entered into his special tricks drawn from a seemingly inexhaustible repertoire. His companion, Miss Alice Blue, enlivened the proceedings with a number of songs.

Mr. Sindelar was employed by Almar Co. & Company, 106 North Western avenue. His home was at 2109 South Gundersen avenue, Berwyn, Ill., where he lived with his mother, Mrs. Mary Sindelar, who survives. He was a student at the College, and his friends and classmates of CHICAGO-KENT extend deepest sympathy.

OFFICERS FOR 1935-36

The officers for the college year 1935-36 are Prof. C. G. Pick-ett, Director; Prof. R. L. Severs, Associate Director; Alfred J. Sor- seh, Secretary and Treasurer. The executive committee is composed of Clarence E. Fox, John R. Had- son, J. Frank Smith, President, and Edward J. Friedrich, Chairman.

The speaker was Anthony Czar- necki, political editor of the Chicago Daily News. He told of his experiences as Collector of Customs and of the many interesting cases which he handled while serving in this capacity.

NOVEMBER MEETING

In November, the Round Table was particularly honored by having as the speaker Hon. Francis S. Wilson, Justice of the Illinois Supreme Court. Justice Wilson's talk was interesting, entertaining and instructive. He discussed the present method of selecting judges, the need of a method which will provide for permanent tenure in judicial office, and the need of Court of Appeals, which arise in attempting to work out a method such as the one now in operation. He stressed, in particular, the difficulties of the judiciary "appointing power" where it will be free from political influence. In answer to a question, Judge Wilson told of the "points and authorities," supported by citations, as far as possible, from the jurisprudence in which the court is sitting. In his opinion, more important than the argument, although the argument is read by the court whenever the facts, points and authorities "raise close questions."

DECEMBER MEETING

The speaker at the December meeting will be Prof. Otis A. Glenn, former United States Senator from Illinois, who was a student in Professor Pickett's first law class at the University of Illinois. Professor Pickett will preside at this meeting.

MEMBERSHIP CERTIFICATES

Membership certificates have been sent to the members of the society who have applied for them. The cost is $1.50.

PHI DELTA PHI

The meetings held by Fuller Inn throughout the year were usually attended by a respectable number, and pointed the way toward one of the finest years the Inn has had. Following the meeting in which the brothers heard a most instructive talk on the interpretation and application of the Illinois Civil Practice Act by Judge William E. Roddey in the Fall, the Inn met in a former house sought under the Illinois Workmen's Compensation act.

The Annual Spring Picnic was held late in June. It was highly successful, attracting the alumni in great numbers, and brought out the active members to a man. Graduates will be glad to know that Judge Pickett has returned, and he will be ably assisted in the work of the Inn by brothers Heningway and Zacharias.

ALPHA SIGMA IOTA

The installation of officers of Alpha chapter of the Alpha Sigma Iota Fraternity, who were elected for the fall term, was held last June. Dave Berger was installed as chapter sor; Arthur Gozberg, vice-chancellor; Milton Shaffner, master of finance; Samuel H. Mages, master of rolls; and David P. Kramer, sergeant at arms. The new administration presented a very successful term. On the 13th of June, the Grand Council of the Alpha Sigma Iota, representing four chapters, held its semi-annual smoker at the Sherman hotel, October 11, 1935. The speaker of the evening was Judge Schiller of the Municipal Court. The affair was very successful, as there was an attendance of over two hundred. Milton Golatzer, of the "Cleveland Indians," was also present. The climax of the evening was the exciting entertainment offered by attorney Eugene Bernstein, who demonstrated his superb skill as a magician and hypnotist.

Alpha held its fall smoker at the Bismarck hotel, October 28, 1935. The speaker of the evening was Charles Kirchbaum, an alumnus, who is a prominent attorney at law. He told of his experiences as an attorney just beginning the practice of law.

The fall initiation of the pledges took place at the Allerton hotel, October 20, 1935. The after-dinner speaker was Samuel Malkus, a famous Alpha man, now practicing law. Chancellor Berger delivered a short address, and outlined their programs as fraters. The new members include Gerald Sax, Carl Sussman, Sam Weinfeld and Harold Jaffe, all of whom are of high scholastic standing.

Alpha is proud to announce the acceptance by Judge Pickett of Edward Newlander and Milton Shaffner into membership in the Round Table.

The Alpha men who have successfully conformed to the requirements laid down by the Supreme Court of the State of Illinois and the Illinois State Board of Law Examiners last July, are Nat Austin, Charles Sohy and Herbert Sears. Congratulations are extended to Ed Newlander, who proudly boasts that he is the father of a baby girl.

DELTA OMICRON DELTA

Delta Omicron Delta held its first meeting for the school year 1935-36 on September 22. A rush tea was held October 20, 1935 in the Red Room of the Knickerbocker hotel. Misses Mae Jacobs, Sime Ziblat and Eunice Sophen represent CHICAGO-KENT College of Law in the sorority membership.

On November 3, 1935 a Round Table discussion is being held at the Knickerbocker hotel with Miss Hannah Brandt, lawyer at the bar, as guest speaker. The Pledge Luncheon is being held November 10, 1935, also at the Knickerbocker hotel.

The sorority's activities for the coming year include several socials and dance, the dates of which will be announced later.

The officers for the current year are Miss Delia Shayski, president; Miss Ethel Scheller, vice-president; Miss Myra Printiner, secretary; and Miss Estelle Graud, treasurer.

DELTA THETA PHI

Webster Senate takes great pleasure in welcoming to the Senate Jim Madden, Bill Welvel, Wayne Campbell, Bill Gilley, Louis Hawlin, Bert Morrisette, George Dilley, Bob Bjork and Bill Gunner.

On July 25, members of Webster Senate took to sea on the good ship "Washington," the four hour ride being enjoyed by all except James "quick-trigger." Hackett also spent most of the evening running to the rail.

At the October meeting, Webster Senate was especially privileged to have as the speaker Hon. Charles S. Deneen, former United States Senator, from Illinois; twice Governor of the State of Illinois; and former State's Attorney of Cook county. The Senator gave the members some very instructive advice as to how to present a criminal case.

The first party of the season was held Friday evening, October 22, at the College Inn of the Hotel Sherman. Excellent food was provided by George Olson and his orchestra, the ice carnival and the clever Ethel Shutta. A surprise was enjoyed during the amateur hour, recently inaugurated by the College Inn, with Miss George Wilcox, assisted by Ethel Shutta, as master of ceremonies.

It is not often that a judge is obliged to deliver a speech at two o'clock in the morning, but such was the case with Judge O'Connell of the Municipal Court of Chicago, guest of honor for the evening. In his brief talk, Judge O'Connell stressed the necessity for loyalty between the Bench and Bar and between members of the Bar. At the end of his talk, Judge O'Connell presented the Delta Theta Phi scholarship certificates to Raymond Rempert and Wilbert Helmer, of the class of 1936, Roland Huff, who has also earned a certificate, was unable to attend the party.

Following these last ceremonies, the meeting was adjourned. Everyone agreed that it was a great success.

Alfred J. Berah is president of Webster Senate and James F. Hackett is tribune.

KAPPA BETA PI

Agnes Clohesey, a founder and first president of the Elementary Teachers' Union of Chicago, was awarded the O'Connell award on June 23, 1935, and Mrs. Mangan will make their home in Denver.

Alpha's roll of brides will shortly include the name of Ciela Guthrie, '35, whose engagement to Raymond R. Stearns, also a lawyer, has been announced.

Alfred and Sarah Liebenson are the proud parents of a baby girl, Carole.

Sarah Sandor, Veronica Schmitz, Grace Haiger, and Ciela Guthrie were admitted to membership at the joint initiation of Chicago chapters at the Chicago Athletic association on May 26.

Ciela Guthrie and Bernice Bauersfield received their Bachelor of Laws degree on June 17, at which time the dean of Alpha, Agnes M. Kasper, and the associate dean, Anne G. Carter, received their Masters' degrees. Alpha entertained for the graduates in Mandalay's South Ivory room on Saturday, June 22. The chapter honor key for 1934 was awarded to Anne G. Carter.

NUPPA EPSILON

With the opening of the 1935-36 school year, Benjamin chapter has again commenced activities. Friday, October 18, marked the running of a successful smoker and party which was staged jointly by the Nuppa and the Theta Epsilon. A good attendance resulted and a good time was had by all.

Dan Cupid has been taking liberties with the "Nu Baits" and so we must report the marriage of Sid Zollens and Joe Rothchild, alumnii, and Reuben Kolkey. (Turn to Page 8.)

Congratulations to fraternity Harold Pink, who is now a member of the Illinois State bar.

PHI ALPHA DELTA

The officers of Blackstone chapter for the college year 1935-36 are: Charles G. Nichols, justice; F. J. Schacht, vice-justice; Richard E. Stout, clerk; Walter C. Kreider, treasurer; E. Bartlett Fisher, marshal.

Blackstone chapter and Webster (Loyola) chapter held a joint smoker at the Auditorium hotel on September 20. Sixty members, pledges, and guests from the two chapters attended. The meeting proved so successful and offered such obvious advantages that the joint smoker idea was repeated on October 11, at the LaSalle hotel. Many alumni were present from both chapters. A joint dance was planned and held October 19, at the Auditorium hotel. It was proclaimed a real success.

On October 4, the officers of the four active chapters and the alumni chapter met at dinner at the Hamilton club in honor of supreme secretary Frank Ludwig, enroute home to California after attending, with supreme vice justice Dwight Green, the annual meeting of supreme officers at the home of supreme trustee Eli Cumbersen at Charmon, Pennsylvania. Mr. Ludwig gave a splendid narrative address in which his keynote was the opportunities for organization and joint action among members of Phi Alpha Delta in the interest of elevating the standards maintained by members of the bar in their various communities and in wielding an influence for good in local politics.

MAJOR HARRY N. OSGOOD, '35, spent the summer in active military duty, participating in the Command Post exercise of the 64th Cavalry Division at Fort Knox, Kentucky. This exercise was a demonstration of "strictly modern" warfare, as the "horse troops" of the Division were supplemented by the First Cavalry of the regular army, a mechanized regiment. Equipment used in the exercise included tanks, armored combat and reconnaissance cars, tractors, trucks and airplanes. The advantages of these "modern improvements" in the science and art of warfare were very thoroughly demonstrated - and their limitations and deficiencies asserted.

A. W. THYFAULKE, '35, is now engaged in the general practice of law at 77 West Washington st., Chicago.
