History

The Chicago-Kent alumni newsletter was first published as Chicago-Kent Citations in 1980. In 1989, the title was changed to Citations, and the 2000 issue was the final issue in the series. In 2002, a new alumni newsletter was published in magazine format, the Chicago-Kent Magazine.

Issues created between 1980 and 2000 included news of the school, alumni news, dean appointments, and other items of interest to Chicago-Kent alumni. Of specific interest are details on the fundraising campaign and groundbreaking of the new building at 565 W. Adams Street in downtown Chicago, as well as notable alumni news over time.

Scope and Contents

The Citations collection consists of alumni association newsletters produced between the years 1980-2000 in a single series. The alumni magazine was published biannually, though it is suspected that missing issues (Fall 1984, Fall 1986, Fall 1987) were not published.
