Edited by Pauline White

FROM DEAN COLLENS

I am pleased to announce that the following 1983 Chicago-Kent graduates have accepted judicial clerkships. Susan Satter is law clerk to Judge Warren Ferguson of the U.S. Court of Appeals, 9th Circuit in California. Amy Dixon and Marcia Wolf are clerks with Justice Thomas J. Moran of the Illinois Supreme Court in Waukegan. Valeree Marek is with Judge Harold Allen Baker of the U.S. District Court, Central District of Illinois in Danville. Laura O'Connell is with Judge John A. Nordberg of the U.S. District Court, Northern District of Illinois. Geri Yonover is with Judge Hubert L. Will, also of the U.S. District Court, Northern District of Illinois in Chicago. Three graduates have clerkships in the Illinois Appellate Court, First District in Chicago. They are: Zoran Dragutinovich with Judge Allen Hartman, Cynde Hirschtick with Judge Robert Buckley, and Ralph Schumann with Judge Mayer Goldberg. Barbara Rominski is clerk with Judge Glenn K. Seidenfeld of the Illinois Appellate Court, Second District in Waukegan.

FACULTY NEWS

DEAN LEWIS COLLENS has been named program chairman for the Section on Legal Education for the 1984 ABA annual meeting to be held in Chicago.

PROFESSOR STUART DEUTSCH completed work during the summer on three articles: "An analysis of Resource Conservation and Recovery Act Regulations" (with Tarlock and Robbins), to appear in 21 Journal of Urban and Contemporary Law ___ 1983; "Open Adoption: Allowing Adopted Children to 'Stay in Touch' with Blood Relatives" (with C. Amadio), to appear in 22 Journal of Family Law ___ 1983; and "Antitrust Challenges to Local Land Use Controls," to appear in 59 Chicago-Kent Law Review ___ 1983. He also completed volume 14 of the Land Use and Environment Law Review, of which he is editor. The volume was published in August 1983. Professor Deutsch is continuing work, both on his book about fair housing law, and on an article about fair housing litigation.

During the summer, Professor Deutsch worked with Mayor Washington's Housing Task Force as a member of the Housing Enforcement/Tenant's Rights Committee. He also became chairperson of a Landlord/Tenant Subcommittee of the Housing Committee of the Metropolitan Housing and Planning Council, and worked to analyze and rewrite landlord/tenant legislation presently before the Chicago City Council.

On July 19, Professor Deutsch was a guest on "Inside Business," a public affairs program of WBEZ Radio, talking about landlord/tenant problems in the Chicago Metropolitan area.

On September 22, Professor Deutsch will speak to a law school forum about recent nuclear power decisions of the United States Supreme Court, especially Pacific Gas and Electric Co. v. State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission, decided April 20, 1983. Attorney General Neil Hartigan will be the featured speaker. Professor Deutsch will also speak on October 21, about Generator Liability under Superfund for a Chicago-Kent Technology, Energy and Environment CLE program (with Professor Tarlock).

Professor Deutsch has been recently appointed to the planning committee for the proposed AALS Conference on Teaching Local Government Law.

FACULTY NEWS Cont'd

PROFESSOR MARTY MALIN's article "University Faculty Members' Right to Dissent: Toward a Unified Theory of Contractual and Constitutional Protection" was published in 16 Cal. Davis L. Rev. 933 (1983). His article "Protecting the Whistle Blower from Retaliatory Discharge" was published in 16 U. Mich. J. Law Reform 227 (1983).

Professor Malin also worked on the book Individual Rights Within the Union which he is writing for BNA, and on the revisions of his book Legal Environment of Business: Public Law & Regulation, published by Richard D. Irwin, Inc.

PROFESSOR SHELDON NAHMOD was the keynote speaker at a joint program sponsored by the committee on Individual Rights and Responsibilities and on State and Local Government at the American Bar Association's annual meeting held in Atlanta, Georgia on July 31, 1983. His topic was: "A Section 1983 Update and the Potential for Legislative Change."

In June, 1983, Professor Nahmod spoke at a luncheon meeting of the Chicago Bar Association's committee on Representation of Government Agencies. From June 20 - 24, he attended a Constitutional Law Teachers' Conference sponsored by the Association of American Law Schools held in Los Angeles. Also in June, Professor Nahmod spoke at a luncheon meeting of the Chicago Bar Association's Committee on representation of Government Agencies. In March, he argued Chardon v. Fumero Soto, a federal class action/civil rights case in the United States Supreme Court. On June 20, 1983 a favorable decision was handed down.

Professor Nahmod wrote an article for the Chicago-Kent Law Review entitled "Section 1983 Damage Actions" and an article for the Urban Lawyer tentatively entitled "Damages and Injunctive Relief in Section 1983 Cases." He is currently working on an article dealing with the immunities of government officials. He finished his annual Supplement to Civil Rights and Civil Liberties Litigation.

PROFESSOR SHELVIN SINGER contributed a chapter (co-authored with Elizabeth Murphy) to the recently published, Defense Counsel, Sage Publications. The chapter is entitled "Judging Defense Systems, Characteristics and Costs." The book Defense Counsel, is the latest volume in the Sage Publication Criminal Justice System.

PROFESSOR DAN TARLOCK's article, "Supreme Court Upholds California Nuclear Power Moratorium" was published in the July 1983 issue of the Environmental Law Reporter - News & Analysis.

RONALD FILLER, a member of the part-time faculty and director of Chicago-Kent's annual Commodities Institute, was the subject of an article in the September issue of Futures magazine. In the article, Filler discussed both the Commodities Institute and the course he teaches in commodities regulation at the law school.

JAMES J. MOYLAN, a member of the part-time faculty of Chicago-Kent, co-authored an article with Donna C. Leeker, a 1982 graduate of Chicago Kent, entitled Private Rights of Action Under the Commodity Exchange Act - The Supreme Court Decides. The article was published in Volume 16 of the John Marshall Law Review.

PROFESSOR PHILIP HABLUTZEL presented a paper on "Current Trade Secret Law in Illinois" to the Corporations Committee of the Chicago Bar Association on June 1st.

PAUL SHELDON NAMED EDITOR OF THE CHICAGO-KENT CITATIONS

Paul Sheldon will serve as the 1983-84 editor of the Citations, Chicago-Kent's alumni newsletter. News items which might be included in this publication should be submitted to him in room 219. Items for the winter edition need to be given to Paul by October 15, 1983.

PLACEMENT NEWS

Fall Interview Program

The deadline for submitting resumes for On-and-Off Campus interviewers whose names appear on the handout, is 6 p.m., September 6. Any additions to the lists of recruiters for the fall interview season will appear on the bulletin board outside the Career Planning and Placement Office and on the second floor bulletin board. In some cases there are new deadlines for submitting resumes to the added recruiters. Resumes may be submitted to these newly listed recruiters in addition to the original maximum number stated on the handout. The On-Campus addition is Thompson & Mitchell; the two Off-Campus additions are the Federal Communications Commission and a Phoenix law firm, Mariscal, Weeks, McIntyre & Friedlander.

Federal Government Opportunities

Many federal government agencies are now accepting applications for summer intern as well as attorney positions to begin in the summer of 1984. Among these are the U.S. Department of Justice, the IRS and the U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission. All have honor graduate programs with very early application deadlines. Basic information on the federal government opportunities appears on the list of "Recruiters to be Contacted Directly" available in the Career Planning and Placement Office. The office has application forms and detailed information from these departments.

Workshop on Fall Interview Program and Interviewing Techniques

The Career Planning and Placement Office is sponsoring a program on the Fall Recruiting Season to answer questions on procedures, and MOST IMPORTANTLY, TO DISCUSS INTERVIEWING TECHNIQUES. Those participating in the Fall Interview Program are strongly urged to attend. The workshop will take place on September 6 at 12 noon in room 203 and be repeated for evening students at 5 p.m. in room 224.

Interview Technique Training

Students interested in refining their interviewing skills will have a special opportunity this semester. Several faculty members and alumni have volunteered to participate in one-to-one mock interview situations with students. This is a chance to practice in a private setting with nothing at stake. Sign up now in the Career Planning and Placement Office for a practice interview. We plan to schedule mock interviews from September 12 through at least mid October.

Interview Technique Tapes

Two tapes on interviewing techniques will be shown on a continuous basis from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m. in room 303 on September 15. One tape shows three actual interviews done by the same recruiter with three separate students. The other includes excerpts of interviews and student responses to various questions.

Internal Revenue Service

Denis Conlon, IRS District Counsel in Chicago, will speak to all interested second and third year students about legal opportunities with the IRS on September 13 at 12 noon in room 325. Attorneys with the IRS practice in a variety of legal areas besides tax. This is your chance to ask questions. All are welcome.

National Association of Broadcasters Fellowship 1984-85

The National Association of Broadcasters is currently seeking applications for its legal Fellowship Program. The program is open to all graduating or recently graduated minority law students who have a demonstrated interest in communications law. Applications must be submitted by November 15. See Item #4.
