PERSONALS

Alice Craig Edgerton recently paid a round of visits to former Kent classmates.

Miss Flagg of the Freshman class has sat in a new Ford.

We have been following with keen interest the accomplishments of our sex as outlined in the Voice of the People of W. G. N. Not having husbands, we cannot compete with our energetic sisters in cementing the basement floor prior to awakening "lord" husband and placing before him a breakfast only fit for one bearing his title. Our own contribution in the contest is Miss Grape, who teaches school five days a week, attends Chicago-Kent classes five nights a week, and in addition thereto is taking post-graduate work in history at Chicago U.

Miss Bertha Carlson is not expressing regret at losing the Senior Class election to her "fairer" running mate, Harry Carlson, as she has since learned that women are eligible to the post of ambassador in the United States diplomatic service.

Miss Hermine B. Deiches, '24, is now Mrs. Paul J. Delacour. The wedding took place at the home of the bride in Dallas, Texas, on October 26th, and was followed by a two weeks' honeymoon tour of the southern states.

Mrs. Delacour, during her time at Chicago-Kent, served as Associate Editor of The Review and also as Registrar of Kappa Beta Pi, legal sorority. We all wish her continued success and happiness.

KAPPA BETA PI INSTALLS

On the night of the first snowstorm of the season, November 17, Alpha chapter of Kappa Beta Pi Legal Sorority held its twentieth installation of officers, elected at the October meeting.

Our own Alice Craig Edgerton made the trip from her home in Mukwonago, Wisconsin to preside as installing officer. The following took the customary oath of office for the ensuing year: Frieda Weinman, Dean; Mrs. Isabelle Adden, Vice Dean; Bertha C. Carlson, Registrar; Nancy Ffleuger, Chancellor; Esther Johnson, Marshal; Board of Directors, Kate C. Zoot and Emma F. Foley, with Mrs. Sue Brown Hassell, Chairman.
