EDITORIALS

HELP! HELP! The Review is the
THE STAFF monthly publication of the student body of the Chicago-Kent College of Law.
Its purpose is to act as a medium of news and for the exchange of ideas among the alumni and students of the College. Ordinarily it makes its appearance the first week in each month.
Sometimes it has been considerable of a task for the publishers and those responsible for it to have it distributed on time.

In order to avoid a recurrence of the unnecessary strain put upon the publishers and the staff to get the Review ready each month it has been decided that the 25th day of every month will be an absolute deadline for material appearing in the issue for the following month. With this date publicly announced there can be no complaint about the failure of material to appear in the columns of the Review. The departmental editors are urged to bear this date in mind and those who look to others for news and personals could help a great deal if they would suggest to them an earlier submission of their material. Several of the members of the staff have been very dependable and prompt with their material. It would work no hardship upon the others if they would advance the date for material they are to receive from other sources because they would still have the same space of time in which to prepare it, review it and turn it in for publication. The hearty and earnest co-operation of all of the student body would be greatly appreciated and will materially lighten the burden on the members of the staff and the editor.

ANOTHER NAME FOR THE HONOR ROLL

It is a pleasure to announce the addition of another name to the honor roll which comprises the names of those who have contributed $100 or more to the Endowment Fund of the Chicago-Kent College of Law. The most recent donor to this fund is John J. Phillips of the Special Military Class of October, 1919.

CLASS OF 1918 CONTRIBUTES SET OF STATE REPORTS TO LIBRARY

The Class of 1918 actuated by a desire to secure a permanent memorial at the college and at the same time to provide something which would be of real and lasting service to the college and its students decided to donate a set of State Reports to the college library. The committee in charge of securing the subscriptions reports that the requisite amount has been subscribed and that a set of the State Reports of Arkansas is now on the library shelves and available for use of the students and alumni of the college.

The Arkansas Reports were selected because they were among the few State Reports with which the library was not as yet supplied. Other classes are also at work on plans which when consummated will equip the library with the reports of every state in the United States.
The members of the Class of 1918 are justly proud of their gift each volume of which bears the following inscription:

This volume is presented to the Library of Chicago-Kent College of Law by the following members of the Class of 1918.

Art Editor—Holt.
Senior Editor—Webber.

Your earnest co-operation is solicited in the compilation of the Transcript so that the publication may truly reflect the varied and outstanding ability possessed by the class of 1928. This year book is not the work of the editors but of the class, and to the degree that the class co-operates, the book will be a success.

You are asked at this time to particularly co-operate with Webber. As Senior Editor, it is his task to compile the epigrams which accompany the pictures of each member. The limitations of night school attendance are such that there is no opportunity to become intimate with every student. So no one man, be he ever so able, could select the most appropriate epigram for each individual. However, there is no student so isolated that some one does not know of an apt epigram for him. The polls are now open. Vote early and often. Write the student's name and epigram on a sheet of paper and leave it at the office for Webber. You need not sign your own name unless you wish.

The calibre of the Transcript staff needs no comment, but "Russ" Patterson has undertaken a big job. It is arduous enough at best, but your assistance will materially lighten it. This is our last year together. Before we go our several ways on the path to fame, let us demonstrate that the "Class of 1928" is something more than a name. Let us show the world that our three years' struggle for a legal education has made us a living, breathing entity imbued with the conviction that the law is the noblest of the professions, that Kent is the best of all law schools, and that '28 is the best class Kent ever had. And if we translate these ideals into action then '28 WILL be the best class that Kent ever had!

As the Transcript is our first and final public offering, let us make it worthy of 1928!

THE PRESIDENT'S COLUMN

This column is not patterned after anybody's linotype that has been battered from pillar to post and has hit or missed everything in its path. It "raison d'être" is to furnish a medium for the dissemination of information to the senior class and to enlist the co-operation of the members thereof in the furtherance of senior class activities.

The President takes great pleasure in announcing the personnel of the Transcript staff:

Editor—Patterson.
Associate Editors: Edwards, Traksl.
Business Manager—White.
Faculty Editor—Miss Carlson.
Pictures Editor—Case.
Activities Editor—Burke.
Organizations Editor—Courshon.
