FRESHMAN CLASS MEETING

We are well into the second semester of the 1927-28 class year and to date there has been no attempt to organize the Freshman class. Prompted by a now or never feeling in the matter, the Editor of the Review has arranged with the authorities of the College to hold a Freshman class meeting at 6:00 o'clock on Friday evening, April 6. The meeting will be called to order in a class room on the fourth floor—the Freshman's heaven—and an effort will be made to have an upper classman tell the Freshman something about the traditions concerning Kent.

Permission has been received from Professor James to use fifteen minutes of the time allotted to his class in Forensics, which with the fifteen minute interval before the first evening class will give the Freshman one-half hour in which to get acquainted and to organize if they have any ideas regarding the same at all. Also, a meeting at that time will be the best time to have a majority of the afternoon and evening students attend. It is sincerely hoped that the afternoon students will remain till the end of the meeting and that the evening students will make it a point to come early on April 6, so as to be present when the meeting is called together at 6:00 p. m.

PLANS BEING MADE FOR ANNUAL HOMECOMING

Because the Homecoming was such a great success the alumni are planning a similar affair for this year. A ways and means committee has been appointed of which Alderman Guy Guernsey is chairman. This committee is working with Professor E. E. Tupes who is alumni secretary to make this year's affair even a greater success than was last year's. The date set for the Homecoming is Thursday, June 7, and will be a peppy noonday luncheon, the place to be announced later.

THE PRESIDENT'S COLUMN

The Transcript is now under way and the staff are holding regular meetings. Although everything is moving along satisfactorily, you are urged to give your suggestions to Patterson promptly so that the collective effort of the class may be used to best advantage.

You are particularly urged to have your picture taken at once. The composite picture of the class cannot be made until ALL individuals have been taken, and you owe it to your fellow students to be in the picture which each will keep as a remembrance of the days at Kent. From a purely selfish standpoint it is to your advantage to have your sitting before the rush starts so that you may be certain of getting a good picture. The Transcript must go to the printer on time. The class picture must go in it. So unless you wish to be a senior "in name only," hustle over to Mabel Sykes and try out her "shatter-proof" plates.

JUDGE PICKETT RECOVERS FROM INFLUENZA

Judge Pickett broke a record of fourteen years' standing, when on Tuesday, March 13th, he was forced, due to a cold getting the better of him, to stay away from Classes until the following Monday.

The Judge has taught in Kent for a good many years and since 1914 has not missed a class until this illness forced him to bed.

We are sincerely sorry that the Judge had to break this record of long standing—but we wish to extend our most hearty congratulations on his speedy recovery and we are most grateful that he is back to teach us.
