ROUND TABLE

The faculty members elected to Round Table at the January meeting are: Hon. John F. Haas and Professor William M. James.

The following members of the Junior Class were elected to membership on the basis of scholarship standing, at the February meeting: Frederick Dicus, Robert English, Julius Trefz, Jack Green, Sarah Liebenson, Courtland Munroe, Maurice S. Slate, Roy Worth, and William Zacharias.

Speakers at the January and February meetings were, Hon. John F. Haas, Judge of the Municipal Court of Chicago and Professor of Law at the College, and Miss Mary Bailey, Assistant United States District Attorney.

It is planned to have Hon. Fred E. Wham, Judge of the United States District Court, and Col. H. A. Sprague, as speakers for the March and April meetings.

PHI DELTA PHI

The new officers of Fuller Inn of Phi Delta Phi, elected at a recent meeting, are: Robert H. Barnes, Hewitt Carpenter, Robert Staufer, Fred Turner, John Feirich and George Stevens.

Attendance at the Annual Christmas Dinner Dance, held on December 19, was very good. A great many alumni and guests, as well as many of the active members were present.

The annual Winter Initiation was held February 27, 1932, at 4:30 P. M., which was followed by the usual banquet. The following became members: August Babize, Fred Dicus, George Duggan, Sheldon Fitts, John Gorby, Earle Harrison, John McCurry, Winslow Thomson.

DELTA CHI

The following Brothers were chosen to administer the affairs of Chicago-Kent Chapter for the current semester at the election in December: Herbert Hawkins, "A"; Carl Just, "B"; Norman Leiber, "C"; John Babb, "D"; John Balluff, "E"; and Frank Guinn, "F".

The semi-annual initiation was held at the Hotel Metropole, February 20, when the following pledges were inducted into the fraternity: Walter Leahy, Harold McNally, and Stephen Ciros. E. J. Balluff was graduated with the February class of 1932.

The annual Spring Dance will take place at the Medinah Country Club in April.

KAPPA BETA PI

We are proud to announce that Alpha Chapter has another member on the roll of Round Table. As a result of the last examinations Sarah Liebenson has joined Sylvia Zelden among the honored of Round Table.

Isabel Weldon entertained the chapter and guests at a Valentine Day bridge at her home in Wilmette. We all enjoyed the walks through the woods and the suburban atmosphere.

Freda Weiman Schmulser, with her husband and two small sons, have left Cleveland and are now living in Dixon, Illinois.

Ella Zoetzler Sullivan is recovering from a serious operation.

We hear Bertha Carlson is now attorney for a well known medical society.

NU BETA EPSILON

At a meeting held February 12, 1932, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: M. Kaplan, Chancellor; S. Waller, Vice-Chancellor; J. Green, Scribe; S. Lazarus, Corresponding Scribe; D. Trager, Master of Exchequer; M. Slate, Librarian; and B. Samuel, Sergeant-at-Arms.

The following eight pledges have been accepted this semester: A. Fishkin, E. Blumenthal, S. K. Charness, P. H. LaBow, M. Gittlestein, N. Popilsky, B. Silberman and N. K. Footlik. The initiation and a banquet in their honor will take place March 6, 1932.

We wish L. Hollander and M. Bernstein the best of luck at the March Bar Examination.

To Fraters D. Trager and S. Harris, who have been ill, we extend sincerest sympathy and hope for a speedy recovery.

Fraters M. Slate and J. Green have been accepted as members of the Round Table.

Smokers and social functions are being actively planned for the current semester.

SIGMA DELTA KAPPA

No News.

ALPHA SIGMA IOTA

The chapter still maintains its record of never having a member fail to pass a bar examination. Morton Hochberg and Raymond Faiwell, who took the last examination are now practicing law. Recent graduates were, Theodore Lentin, Irving Hildebrand, and Carl Devoe.

Three pledges are to be initiated in the near future: Joseph B. Dennenberg, Irving Weintraub, and David Zimring.

At the last election the following officers were chosen: Sidney Stavins, Chancellor; Harry Reiter, Vice-Chancellor; Joseph Mendelsohn, Master of Rolls; Kalmon Schein, Master of Finance; and Gilbert Gordon, Sergeant-at-Arms. Maxwell Singer and Barney Cooper were chosen as representative delegates.

DELTA THETA PHI

The following pledges were initiated February 27, 1932: John Naghten, Reginald Schleck, Collis Davis, Martin Nelson, Paul Nelson, Lawrence Berleman, and Russell Higgins.

Brother John S. Macaulay has been recently appointed a member of the faculty. Brother Macaulay gave an interesting talk at our last smoker, February 19.

We extend a hearty welcome to Brother Peter Fitzpatrick who has returned to Chicago-Kent this semester after an absence of a year.

PHI ALPHA DELTA

Several successful smokers have been held during the year. On November 13 Professor Charles C. Pickett gave us a very interesting talk at a smoker in the Chapter Room.
