The following changes have been made to the Fall, 1994 schedule in addition to the ones announced in last week’s Record:

Professional Responsibility will probably not be offered in the evening in the Spring, 1995 semester. If you are planning to graduate in June, 1995 and still need Professional Responsibility, make sure to take it in the 1994 summer session or in the fall.

I sent Evening Division students who may be interested in taking Federal Courts next semester an email survey last week; please respond by tomorrow, Tuesday, April 12. If you are an Evening Division student who is interested in taking Federal Courts and didn’t get an email, please email me and I’ll send it to you.

Who Should Take "Employee Benefits Law"?

Labor relations lawyers, tax lawyers, and estate planners all need to know something about ERISA: The Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974.

Virtually every business in the country offers employees at least some form of retirement benefits. Indeed, retirement benefits are a mandatory subject of collective bargaining. Many questions arise in a labor lawyer’s practice to which ERISA provides answers: May an employer discharge an employee on the eve of retirement to prevent the employee from obtaining a benefit under the employer’s pension plan? May an employer terminate a pension plan and recapture all the money it had previously set aside for paying employees’ pensions? May an employer institute a fringe benefit program that provides benefits only to a select group of highly-compensated employees and not to the rank-and-file?

A tax practitioner must likewise be familiar with ERISA, since the taxability of pension payments and the deductibility of pension expenses depend on compliance with rules that ERISA added to the Internal Revenue Code. And estate planners need to be familiar with ERISA, since the largest asset in many estates is the client’s accumulated pension, and ERISA imposes a number of restrictions on the timing of pension payments and the designation of a beneficiary to receive payments after the client dies.

In addition, employee benefits law has become a relatively new specialty unto itself. Many attorneys practice exclusively in the ERISA area, and there is considerable demand for employee benefits specialists.

The course in Personal Income Tax is a prerequisite. Employee Benefits Law may be taken on a PASS/FAIL basis.
Fall 1994 Clinical Course Announcement

Interviewing and Counseling Teaches Real-World Law Skills

"Students who have taken part in the Advice Desk clinic at the Daley Civic Center say it helped them polish their interviewing skills and learn to quickly evaluate a case under the pressure of a line of waiting clients.

"The experience of drafting motions helps students find out how the court system really works outside of the classroom, said Brian Kalata, who has formed his own general practice since graduating from Chicago-Kent. Kalata, who said the first few weeks were scary, now says the clinic was one of the best things he did during law school.

"All law students should experience the Advice Desk because it gives you more hands-on experience," said Kent graduate Audrey Wade, who added that the practice will serve her well for her plans to become a litigator. "It's a bridge from academia to the real world."

"The clinic, an outgrowth of a Chicago Bar Association volunteer program, handles mostly contract and forcible entry and detainer cases. Working at the clinic, an elective course, is coupled with an interviewing and counseling class."

-- Excerpted from February 12, 1993
CHICAGO DAILY LAW BULLETIN article

Enrollment is limited to students who by Fall 1994 will have received credit for at least three-fifths of the total hourly credits required for graduation and who are in good academic standing. Two pass-fail credit hours. Law 404 Interviewing and Counseling.

SPECIAL NOTICES

Special Law School Symposium on Judge Learned Hand and Judging

April 21 at 2:00 p.m., Auditorium

The most distinctive feature of the common law is the role that individual judges play in law making. Every law student is familiar with the great judges who have shaped American law—Cardozo, Holmes, Frankfurter, and Hand. Judge Learned Hand sat on the Second Circuit for over 50 years and is widely considered the judges' judge. Professor Gerald Gunther, of Stanford University, has recently published a biography of Hand, LEARNED HAND: THE MAN AND THE JUDGE. On Thursday, April 21, at 2:00 p.m., in the Auditorium, Professor Gunther will take part in a symposium on the legacy of Judge Hand: Why Judge Learned Hand was a Great Judge and What Lessons His Career Holds for the Changing Roles of the Judge in the Development of Legal Doctrine.

Professor Gunther is one of the most widely respected constitutional lawyers and scholars in America. He was Judge Hand's law clerk, and in 1991 was named by a NATIONAL LAW JOURNAL poll as the lawyer most qualified to be nominated to the Supreme Court. President Clinton nominated Professor Gunther's former student and long-time protegee, Ruth Bader Ginsburg, to the Court last year.

In his discussion of the legacy of Judge Hand for the future of a rapidly changing judiciary and legal profession, Professor Gunther will be joined by Professors David Gerber and Dan Tarlock of the Chicago-Kent faculty and Professor Douglas Baird of the University of Chicago Law School. This is a unique opportunity for students to learn about one of the giants of our profession. The symposium is open to all students and faculty. A reception will follow.

Legal Writing Teaching Assistants for 1994-95

Applications are now being accepted for Legal Writing Teaching Assistants for the year 1994-95. Only students who will be graduating in June, 1995 may apply. Teaching Assistants work closely with the Legal Writing Professors in teaching legal research, preparing and grading assignments, and with students in drafting and revising their work. Applicants should have received superior grades in their Legal Writing courses and have a strong interest in helping other students to master the skills of legal research and writing. Membership on Law Review or Moot Court is desirable, but is not a requirement of the job. Teaching Assistants receive two hours of credit each semester and salary equal to the tuition for two credit hours each semester.

You must be available to begin work during Orientation Week (August 17 - 19), in order to attend an intensive training session to prepare you to teach legal research.

Interested students should submit a current resume to Professor Ehrenberg in Room 753 as soon as possible. Please include the name of your first-year legal writing professor and the grades you received in the course. There is a sign-up sheet for interviews on Professor Ehrenberg's door. The interview will last 20 minutes and then applicants will be asked to complete a short quiz on grammar, punctuation and citation form.

If you have any questions please contact Professor Ehrenberg.

Law Offices -- Registration for In-House Programs

Other new students who have submitted their applications by the due date will be selected in the Law Offices lottery.

New Security Services at the Downtown Campus

The administration is pleased to announce that a new safety and security program has been implemented at the Downtown Campus. Levy Security Consultants Limited, a nationally recognized public safety and security services firm, has been contracted to provide security at the Downtown Campus. The new program includes additional security protection, Sunday through Friday evenings, in which two security officers will be stationed in the building. Escort service will be provided within a two block radius of the building, upon request, Sunday through Friday from 5:00 p.m. to closing. Also, the Campus bus service route has been extended and the bus will now take riders to Northwestern or Union stations during its regular pass of these facilities. You are encouraged to use the Campus bus when you need to go to the train station.

In addition, Levy will host in-house safety and security seminars each semester which will be open to all members of the Downtown Campus community. The first safety and security seminar will take place in Room C50 on the following dates and times:

- Friday, April 15, 1:00 p.m.
- Monday, April 18, 3:00 p.m. and 5:30 p.m.
- Wednesday, April 20, 3:00 p.m.
- Tuesday, April 26, Noon and 5:30 p.m.

If you are unable to attend the seminar on any of these dates, you may check out a videotape of the presentation from the library beginning Monday, April 25.

Always remember, knowing how to protect yourself, and taking action, can reduce the opportunity for crime. The following lists some crime prevention tips you should observe when you are in the building:

- Lock your door every time you leave your office.
- Protect your valuables; do not leave your purse, wallet or other valuables at a desk, table or study carrel when you leave the area, even if it's only for a few moments. It only takes a few seconds for someone to steal your valuables.
- When using the elevators, especially in the evening, be sure to always look in the elevator before getting in to be sure no one is hiding. You should also stand near the control panel. Get off of the elevator if someone suspicious enters. If you feel threatened or are attacked, push the alarm button as soon as possible.
- Call the Levy Security Officer immediately to report all suspicious characters and/or incidents at ext 6-5030. There is a house telephone on every floor, on the east side of the building, across from the drinking fountain.

Due to Concern About Unauthorized Users of Career Services Office, ID’s Are Now Required Upon Entering the Office

The Career Services Office staff and a number of Chicago-Kent students are concerned about the number of unauthorized students and alumnae/i from other law schools using the Career Services Office.

Our goal is to provide you, our students, with every advantage. Our resources and job listings are here for you! We need your help to assure that these services are provided only to you and not students from other Chicago schools or law schools outside of Chicago.

Locating Information about Law Firms/attorneys

There are a number of ways to locate information, both biographical and empirical about a particular attorney or law firm. A good starting point is the Martindale-Hubbell Directory for both firm information and biographies of member attorneys. This directory is searchable online in the LEXIS MARHUB files.

Westlaw contains two databases that might help with your search. West's Legal Directory is database WLD and the National Association for Law Placement, Directory of Legal Employers is database NALP-DIR. NALP-DIR is especially useful in locating firm information.

Stop by the Reference Desk if you have any questions - we'll be happy to help you in using these sources and to locate a few others.

Need a 1993 Tax Form?

No need to run over to the Federal Building - 1993 U.S. Tax Forms are available on LOIS for printing at the Document Center. Use the "STUDENT" user ID and password and select "TAXFORMS" from the application list. Any Questions? Stop by the reference desk and ask a reference librarian how to access and print.

There will be one session from 12:00 noon to 1:00 p.m. and another from 5:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m., both in Room 760. USENET is a place where thousands of discussion groups on almost any topic imaginable reside. For more information see the information under CLASS in the student organization section. Email Kay Gemrich (CGEMRICH) for more information.

Next week CLASS will be holding a session on World Wide Web, Gopher, FTP (File Transfer Protocol), and Telneting. Watch this space and CLASS' space for more information or, again, email Kay Gemrich (CGEMRICH) for more information.

Dial-in Software Update

Are you having problems getting/staying connected to the dial-in service?

As stated in last week's Record, new modem definitions are available. The notice is now available in 700 as a Helpdoc. Check it out if you haven't yet and are still experiencing difficulties with Dial-In.

Network Access Through Xircoms

The Center for Law and Computers has made available Network Connection Packets that allow you to bring your own laptop into the building and connect it to Kentnet. The procedure for check-out is simple.

You MUST come to a quick training class before you will be allowed to check-out the packets from the Library Services Desk in the Library. These classes will familiarize you with the equipment and procedure necessary to connect your laptop to Kentnet. Any questions you have about the procedure will be answered. You must bring your laptop with you to the session.

After you complete the class you will be able to check-out the packets. The packets have everything needed - adapter, power supply, disk, and cable - to connect to Kentnet. Email Dominick Grillo (DGRILLO) to set up a time for a class.

Tell Us What’s Right or Wrong with the Labs

In each lab you will now find comment/problem report sheets. Each sheet has a diagram of the lab on one side and a form on the other. If you notice a problem with a machine in the labs please fill out the form and place it in the box provided. If you have a general comment or suggestion instead, you can also use these forms. In fact, we ENCOURAGE you to do so. Let us know what you appreciate about the computers at Chicago-Kent; things that work well. Conversely, if you have complaints or suggestions for improvements use these sheets to tell us about your ideas.

Email Information

Please do not use Email to send mass-mailings. It puts a drain on system resources, especially disk space. As a reminder, the Kentnet Classifieds and USENET are available for postings of a general school-wide nature. Even if you have nothing to post, browse through the information there. You might find a good deal on used equipment, or tickets for sale, of people who share similar interests. Explore.

STUDENT BAR ASSOCIATION

Election

Voting will be Tuesday, April 12, and Wednesday, April 13, in the cafeteria.

Law Week

Here is a schedule of this week's events:

- Monday: Free popcorn/ Int'l Food Festival
- Tuesday: Piper Lecture
- Wednesday: Blood Drive/Faculty Jeopardy
Thursday: Law Day speaker/reception
Friday: not scheduled yet
Saturday: Barristers’ Bash

Please note that in addition to all of this, there will be the following events also happening:
* a food and clothing drive taking place on the Concourse level all week long,
* SBA elections on Tuesday and Wednesday during the day and evening hours in the cafeteria
* Elections for teacher of the year and staff member of the year

Just a little information on our LAW DAY speaker himself. His name is Robert Meeropol. He is the son of Ethel and Julius Rosenberg who were falsely accused of selling atomic bomb secrets to the Soviets and who were executed. Mr. Meeropol spent a great deal of his life trying to clear his parents name.

Mr. Meeropol attended the Western New England School of Law, served on the Law Review and received his J.D. magna cum laude in 1985. He was admitted to the Massachusetts Bar in 1985 and practiced as an associate in the firm of Schatz, Schwartz and Fentin for several years. In addition, he clerked with John M. Greaney who is now an Associate Justice of the Massachusetts Supreme Court. He promises to be an exciting and interesting speaker. The event will take place at 4:30 p.m. on Thursday and a reception will follow.

Barristers Bash

Tickets for the Barristers’ Bash are on sale in the cafeteria at $25 per person or $50 per couple. The event is subsidized almost 50% by the SBA so $25 per ticket is very reasonable. The Bash will be from 8:00 p.m. until 1:00 a.m. and will include open premium bar all night as well as music and hors d’oeuvres.

Blood Drive

On April 13th, the SBA will be conducting a blood drive in conjunction with Life Source Blood Services as part of the Law Week festivities. The blood drive will be taking place from 9 a.m. until 4:30 p.m. in Room 570. This is an opportunity for all members of the Chicago-Kent community to make a difference in someone else’s life in a very concrete fashion. Each pint of blood donated can be broken down to its elemental components and used to save up to three people’s lives. Life Source needs approximately 600 pints of blood every day to meet the demand for the northeastern Illinois region.

The entire donation process is very safe, simple and fast and takes about 45 minutes. The total amount of time spent donating is about 8 to 10 minutes. The remainder is spent taking a mini-physical, consisting of blood pressure, temperature, pulse, and hemoglobin and eating snacks!! To make the donation process as easy as possible, you can reserve a time slot and be certain to fit in your donation at the time that is most convenient for you. Time slots are available at 20 minute intervals (9:00, 9:20, etc.). To reserve a time slot, you can email Evan McGinley (EMCGINLE) or look for the sign-up table in the Spak this week. If you do decide to email a reservation, please list a first and second preference for times.

If you have any questions or comments, please contact Evan McGinley by email.

Bar and Gavel Committee

The time has come to announce the nominees for the Spring/Summer 1994 Bar and Gavel Awards and they are:

Judy Amsel
Dave Blasi
Geoffrey Burg
Susana Darwin
Mary-Elizabeth Donnelly
My congratulations to all of those nominated. There are sixteen nominees, but the SBA Constitution only allows nine people to receive the award for the combined Spring and Summer graduating classes. To help the Bar and Gavel Committee make their recommendations I am asking all the students, faculty, and staff to email (TSTOVALL) with the name of the person they think best deserves the award. Only one nominee per email and only one email per person. I will keep a tally and provide the results to the committee at its April 14 meeting. This meeting will decide which nominees will be recommended for the award, a vote on who will receive the award will be taken later this month by the whole SBA minus those members who have been nominated.

Waiting to hear from you!

Tom Stovall (TSTOVALL), Bar and Gavel Chairman

I would again like to thank all those who made this year’s Work-A-Day project the great success that it was. She is now serving as staff attorney for the Chicago Committee for Civil Rights Under the Law on a Skadden Arps fellowship, and will address the same issues as Mr. Morsch, from the student/recent graduate perspective.

This event should be interesting and informative, addressing issues relevant to anyone entering the legal profession, be it through large or small firm private practice or by way of the public sector. Watch for room assignment later.

Once again, the time of year has arrived for you to begin the process of applying for financial aid for next year. Please take note of the calendar of important dates below; I suggest that you save this memo for future reference. Your financial aid, whether a loan and/or a merit-and-need-based scholarship, depends on it.

We have prepared folders containing the applications, as well as information to assist you with the application process. Please be sure to read through the entire packet. There were many changes to the financial aid application process last year and there will be a few more for next year. The application packets can be obtained in the Office of Admissions and Financial Aid, Suite 230.

Please note that the April 1 deadline occurs during spring break (the dates for spring break are March 27 - April 3). If you plan to leave town, please be sure that you arrange to have your application materials in the Office of Admissions and Financial Aid by April 1.

To be eligible for all forms of financial aid you must meet the deadlines listed below.

Calendar of Important Dates:

By May 16

1. After you file the FAFSA, you will be sent the Student Aid Report (SAR). All pages of the SAR should be in the Office of Admissions and Financial Aid by May 16, even though it will say that you are not eligible for the Pell Grant (Pell Grants are for undergraduates only). Be sure to complete the Student’s Use Box on the back of page one.

   Corrections: If you need to make corrections to your SAR, be sure to send a copy of the SAR, with all of the corrections indicated, to the Office of Admissions and Financial Aid. Send the original to the address on the back of the SAR. A revised SAR will be mailed to you approximately two weeks after the corrections are received at the processor. Make sure that you sign the report where indicated or the revisions will not be made.

2. If you are selected for Verification, you will be asked to submit copies of your tax forms and a Verification Statement. These materials and your SAR must be returned before a financial aid award will be determined for you.

By June 1

You should sign and return your financial aid award letter to the Office of Admissions and Financial Aid by June 1, or within three weeks of the date printed on the award letter if you received it after June 1.
By July 1

You are expected to turn in student loan applications from the lender of your choice by July 1. Loan applications for Law Access, LAWLOANS, Chase Manhattan, and any Illinois bank are available in the Office of Admissions and Financial Aid, Suite 230. However, the office has a limited supply of applications so it is best to contact your lender directly to obtain the necessary application.

We are ready to help if you need assistance--just call the Office of Admissions and Financial Aid at (312) 906-5180.

Thank you for your cooperation.
Productivity of the American workforce has increased dramatically over the past three decades.

Conventional wisdom has always argued that the companion of increased work productivity is increased leisure time.

Dr. Juliet B. Schor’s research reveals that Americans have, in fact, lost, rather than gained, needed leisure.

In this year’s Piper Lecture, Dr. Schor looks at why the American worker is losing leisure time, and what the law and employers can do to address this concern.

Dr. Juliet B. Schor is the author of the best-selling book, THE OVERWORKED AMERICAN: THE UNEXPECTED DECLINE OF LEISURE. Recognized as one of the notable books of the year by BUSINESS WEEK, THE NEW YORK TIMES, BOSTON GLOBE, and PUBLISHER’S WEEKLY, THE OVERWORKED AMERICAN has received high acclaim nationally. Dr. Schor’s research in this area has spawned hundreds of articles and columns in national publications, cited by major news sources. Dr. Schor’s presentation will be followed by commentary from:

Alice Audie-Figueroa, Ph.D., Assistant Director of the Research Department of the United Auto Workers International Union;

Brian Langille, Professor of Law University of Toronto and co-author of LABOUR LAW (5th ed.), the leading labor law casebook utilized in Canadian law schools;

John A. Sheridan, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of John Sheridan Associates, Inc., which provides management consulting services in labor relations, employee involvement, wages and salaries, job evaluation and compensation and executive searches.

FACULTY CURRICULAR SUGGESTIONS

A survey was distributed to the full-time faculty asking the following two questions:

(1) In your opinion, which elective courses should every student take, regardless of his or her particular areas of interest.

(2) If a student is interested in specializing in a particular substantive area, which elective courses should the student take.

The responses are set forth below.

TENURE-TRACK PROFESSORS

Lori Andrews
Office: 743
Extension: 65359

"Of the listed courses, there are none that I feel all students absolutely must take. Students interested in specializing in health care law should take the Health Care Law class. The additional courses they take would depend a lot on what their future plans are. For those who want to work in hospitals, corporate law issues would be important. For those who want to be involved with pharmaceutical companies, patent law would be important. I think rather than trying to develop an all-purpose list for health law students, it will be important for me and other faculty members teaching in this field to make it clear that we are available to help students choose courses that fit their interests."
