FROM ASSISTANT DEAN OF STUDENTS JULIE FENTON

In our continuing effort to improve services for students, we have created the position of Student Development Counselor. Sherry Waldrep has accepted the position and will be available to work with you in a variety of areas. Sherry received her bachelor’s degree in Social Work and her master’s degree in Educational Psychology from the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee. She has provided both individual and group counseling sessions, and she is a National Certified Counselor. She comes to us from St. Mary’s College of Maryland where she spent four years counseling students. Sherry will provide student counseling on time management, stress management, and study skills, among other issues. In addition, she will be managing the Student Resource Library we are creating. The Student Resource Library (now in its infancy) will contain information about subjects ranging from study aids to chemical dependency counseling, from disability resources to sexual harassment. The Resource Library will also include directories of support groups and care providers in the Chicago metropolitan area.

Stop by and introduce yourself to Sherry. She is currently stationed outside Room 544, until an office space is assigned. In the interim, counseling appointments will be held in Room 530d. Sherry is available to meet with you from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Mondays through Wednesdays and Fridays and from 10 to 6 on Thursdays. By the way, I’m still available to meet with you, too. I’m here during usual business hours, and I have evening hours on Tuesdays and Wednesdays until 6:15 p.m.

FROM THE OFFICE OF ALUMNAE/I & STUDENT RELATIONS

Alumnae/i Roundtables

Beginning on Wednesday, October 12, the Office of Alumnae/i & Student Relations is sponsoring a series of Alumnae/i Roundtables that will run through early November. A number of high profile alumnae/i have been invited to the law school to have lunch or dinner with a small group of students. The goal of the Roundtables is for an alumna/us to share his or her background and professional experience and to give students insights into his or her career path. The participating alumnae/i come from a variety of backgrounds including environmental law, health care law, family law and entertainment law. If you are interested in attending an Alumnae/i Roundtable, please come to Suite 310 to sign up. You will find a listing of the dates and times for the Roundtables, as well as a brief biography of each alumna/us participating in the Roundtables. Each Roundtable is limited to the first 15 students to sign up.

The first Alumnae/i Roundtable, on Wednesday, October 12, at 5:30 p.m., features The Honorable Anne Burke, ’83. Judge Burke was recently chosen by Illinois Governor Jim Edgar to serve as a special counsel for child welfare. Her main duties are to overhaul the management structure of the Department of Children and Family Services and help create a new vision for the agency. Judge Burke most recently served as an appointed judge to the Illinois Court of Claims.

JUDICIAL EXTERNSHIPS: SPRING 1995 SEMESTER

Second and Third Year Students, Minimum 3.2 Grade Point Average

Informational Meeting. On Tuesday, October 4, 1994 at 12:00 noon in Room 170, there will be a meeting for all students who are interested in externing for a federal appellate, district, bankruptcy judge or magistrate for the Spring 1995 Semester. Professor Vivien Gross will describe the kinds of experiences a judicial extern will have in the course of a semester, as well as how to apply. If you are interested in a judicial externship, but are unable to attend the meeting, please see Professor Gross in Room 612.

A judicial externship enables the student to become involved in particular legal problems through research and writing, and to contribute in the resolution of those legal problems. Depending upon the judge, an extern may have the opportunity to observe the day-to-day routine of a judge and discuss with the judge and the judge’s law clerk those legal problems which attorneys face in their profession, and the specific problems which attorneys confront in their courtroom. Take advantage of this wonderful opportunity!

Application Process. The applications for the Spring Judicial Externships are available in Room 601, Law Offices. Completed applications should be submitted to Ms. Jan Lund, Room 610, Law Offices, Wednesday, October 12, 1994 by 5:00 p.m.

Fall On-Campus Recruiting Information:

Callbacks: Share Your Good News!

Please let us know when you are invited to a second interview with a firm. We keep careful records of callback interviews and offers so that we can measure the success of the fall program.
To let us know about your callbacks or offers, you can email us at LABRAMS, SCHU, or KIIDA or stop by the office to tell us the good news. Thank you for your help!

Thank You Notes

Many students have asked us whether they should write thank you notes after interviewing on-campus.
Employers assure us that they do not expect thank you notes after on-campus “screening” interviews and, in fact, find thank you notes at this preliminary stage to be simply one more piece of paper to handle in the recruiting process.

Anytime you visit an employers office, whether for a callback or a screening interview, you should write a thank you note. Often you will meet with several attorneys during a second interview. You do not need to write to each attorney individually; you may write to one attorney and ask him/her to convey your thanks to the others with whom you met.

The most important qualities of a thank you note are timeliness, brevity, and sincerity. More advice on thank you notes is available on the "Thank You Notes" handout in the Career Services Office.

There will be one librarian stationed in the classroom during scheduled hours, which are as follows:

NEWS FROM THE CENTER FOR LAW AND COMPUTERS

Remember To Backup Your Files!

First years - Your next paper is due within two weeks. Second and Third Years - You are still writing papers and sending out resumes and cover letters. Everyone else - This also concerns you.

Please, backup your files regularly. And make that backup on a separate disk. You might think saving your files every 10 minutes is over-kill, but it is not. For the time it takes to hit 2 or 3 keys you can save yourself possible hours of re-typing. There are few things worse than losing the last 4 hours of changes to your document. There is a HELPDOC located in Lab 700 with instructions on how to save your file to another disk. (Basically, just switch disks and save the file onto the second disk. Then replace the first disk.)

As always, label your disk and put your name on it. We can’t return the disk to you if we don’t know who’s disk it is.

THIS IS VERY IMPORTANT. WE CAN NOT ALWAYS GET BACK YOUR DATA. ALTHOUGH RELATIVELY RARE, DISKS MAY GO BAD. JUDGES AND PARTNERS RARELY LOOK KINDLY UPON THE EXCUSE, "MY DISK ATE THE BRIEF." LEARN GOOD HABITS NOW.

Email Announcement

We would like to repeat an item from our Guidelines on Lab usage.

   Email should not be used for mass mailings. If you have a message that you think is of general interest to the Chicago-Kent community there are other ways to distribute that information. (Some of them are The Record, broadcast messages, USENET discussion groups, and the Kentnet Classifieds.)

   Thank you for understanding.

Printing Announcement

Remember, there are dedicated printers in the Document Service Center to print your LEXIS and WestLaw downloads. Please do not use the dot matrix printers for these jobs.

Where To Go For Assistance

Your first stab at getting help for basic questions about WordPerfect, viruses, email, and similar questions should be the Helpdocs located in Lab 700. These give step by step instructions on how to do many of the basic tasks on Kentnet.

If you can’t find what you need in the Helpdocs, try the Helpdesk. This is a two-pronged service. First, there is a physical helpdesk located in the Lab 700 by the printers. The desk is staffed by members of CLASS, the Computer Law Association. The desk is manned for approximately 20 hours a week, both during the day and in some evenings. These same students also answer the email account HELPDESK. They log in to pick up these messages throughout the day, the evening and on weekends.

LEXIS and WESTLAW questions about printing, downloading documents, and creating searches can be answered by the LEXIS and WESTLAW representatives listed in The Record each week.

WESTLAW Student Representatives

The WESTLAW student representatives for this year are Tim Engling (TENGLING), Shalla Hyderi (SHYDERI), Brian Gill (BGILL), and Cynthia Tackett (CTACKETT).

Reading The Record on Kentnet is actually much easier than my original explanation. Just hit F2 when you viewing the main menu screen and then pick the date of The Record you want to read.
