FROM DEAN MATASAR

I’m sure that most of you are aware by now that Jon Simmons, a member of the class of 1994, was murdered last week in Los Angeles while vacationing with his brother. Jon was an important and well-liked member of the law school community, and I know that all of us who knew him are terribly shocked and saddened by this event. For those of you who didn’t know him, Jon had entered his first year of law school in 1991, after having a noteworthy career as Director for three years of the Commission on Human Relations Advisory Council on Gay and Lesbian Issues for the City of Chicago. He had been appointed to the Mayor’s Advisory Committee on Gay and Lesbian Issues by Mayor Harold Washington in 1985. From 1985 until 1988, Jon was Executive Director of the Joseph Holmes Dance Theatre, a multi-ethnic, not-for-profit dance company in Chicago. Jon also worked as a freelance writer and published a number of poems and articles, perhaps most noteworthy among them a series on the NAMES Project National AIDS memorial Quilt Tour in 1988.

In the personal statement that accompanied Jon’s law school application, he wrote, “I want to play a role in eliminating barriers that still exist for some and make opportunities accessible so that it can legitimately be said that any barriers remaining are those which are self-imposed and not the result of inequitable or inadequate policy.” Jon’s death is a great loss to the law school, the legal profession, and the community at-large.

Jon’s family has requested that all letters of condolence be sent to Jon’s attorney, Robert Dachis (Law Offices of Keefe & Dachis, 2933 N. Southport Avenue, Chicago, IL 60657), who will forward them to the family. There currently are no plans for a funeral or memorial service. It has been suggested that memorial contributions can be sent to the Joseph Holmes Dance Company (1935 South Halsted Street, Chicago, IL 60608), or to a charity of the donor’s choice.

FROM THE REGISTRAR

Change of Division

Students who want to change division for the Spring, 1994 semester must complete a Request to Change Divisions form in the Registrar’s office by Friday, October 14. If there is space available to accommodate every student, all will be permitted to switch; otherwise, a drawing will be held to select the students.
Students who change division will have the lowest registration priority within their starting date group for the Spring, 1995 registration.

First-year Students

We recently received copies of the brochure entitled Law Student Registration: A Guide for Law Students from the National Conference of Bar Examiners. The brochure is designed to inform law students about the bar admission process and about law student registration. It also directs students to proper sources should they have further questions about the registration process. We encourage you to stop by the Registrar’s office whenever you can to pickup a brochure.

Lockers

The following lockers were removed during the summer to construct the Bursar’s office: 488-508, 545-598, 623-649. As many of you already know, all items that were found in the lockers were removed and placed in storage. If one of those lockers was assigned to you and you have not claimed your belongings from storage, please do so by 2:30 p.m. October 14. You can report to the Registrar’s office during the following hours and someone from maintenance will take you to the storage area:

Monday through Friday, 10:00 a.m. - 10:30 a.m. and 2:00 p.m. - 2:30 p.m.

A few of the lockers were moved to the fifth floor. Locker numbers 565-573 and 623-649 are now located on the fifth floor near Room 590. If your locker is not among those relocated, you can stop by the Registrar’s office to obtain your new locker assignment. Our storage space is very limited; therefore, all items left in storage after October 14, will unfortunately be discarded.

February 1995 Florida Bar Examination

Fall On-Campus Recruiting Information:

Callbacks: Share Your Good News!

Please let us know when you are invited to a second interview with a firm. We keep careful records of callback interviews and offers so that we can measure the success of the fall program.
To let us know about your callbacks or offers, you can email us at LABRAMS, SCHU, or KIIDA or stop by the office to tell us the good news. Thank you for your help!

Thank You Notes

Many students have asked us whether they should write thank you notes after interviewing on-campus. Employers assure us that they do not expect thank you notes after on-campus "screening" interviews and, in fact, find thank you notes at this preliminary stage to be simply one more piece of paper to handle in the recruiting process.

Anytime you visit an employers office, whether for a callback or a screening interview, you should write a thank you note. Often you will meet with several attorneys during a second interview. You do not need to write to each attorney individually; you may write to one attorney and ask him/her to convey your thanks to the others with whom you met.

The most important qualities of a thank you note are timeliness, brevity, and sincerity. More advice on thank you notes is available on the "Thank You Notes" handout in the Career Services Office.

Commentator

If you haven’t grabbed the first issue of The Commentator, look on the Concourse, in the second-floor cafeteria, or the 5th-floor lounge. We are trying to settle on a press run that yields neither too few nor too many copies.
Because of some typographical difficulties last month, we omitted our letters-to-the-editor policy and the staff box. We encourage letters to the editor and guest columns. Both should be submitted as email attachments in Word Perfect 5.1. Please focus on issues, not personalities. Aim for 250 words in letters to the editor. Guest columns may be longer, but should not exceed the length of the item to which they respond.

Please let us know how we can better serve you. Our next deadline is Friday, Oct. 21. Our staff: Keith Picher, editor; Ramina Evazians, managing editor; Brian Porter, editor emeritus.

Dean's Advisory Council

CHICAGO-KENT "LRAP"
Loan Repayment Assistance Program

Are these questions important to you?

- How in the world am I going to pay back my astronomical loans after law school?
- What if I want to work for the government or other legal service providers? Aren’t these traditionally lower paying fields?
- Did I make the right choice to pursue a legal education when my goals are to serve the community and the under privileged?

STUDENTS UNITED FOR PUBLIC INTEREST ("SUPI")
HAS ANSWERS FOR YOU!!!!!!!

YES! You have made the right choice to be in law school.
YES! You can work in public interest law.
YES! SUPI can tell you how to get help in paying back your astronomical loans ((believe it or not)).

Chicago-Kent College of Law has established a Loan Repayment Assistance Program (a.k.a. "LRAP") which allows Kent graduates to pursue their career dreams in the public sector. Dean Matasar has made a staunch commitment to build the law school’s LRAP funds. Work with SUPI and learn more about the "up & coming" LRAP at Chicago-Kent.

YOU can get involved with SUPI and have the opportunity to work with the Chicago-Kent Alumnae/i LRAP committee and other public interest attorneys. Together we can build a strong and lasting LRAP endowment fund dedicated to Public Service Law. Now is the time to expand Chicago-Kent’s financial support for LRAP!!

The Student/Faculty Spaghetti Dinner is one way you can show your support for LRAP and also a great way to mingle with your professors in a casual atmosphere!
