FROM DEAN MATASAR

I have a short, but important request to make: Please be tolerant of each other. Ours is a community rich in diversity and bubbling with differences of opinion. Yet, last semester revealed a few of us to be less open-minded than is desirable. I was troubled to learn that material posted on a number of student organization bulletin boards had been defaced and removed by other members of our community. That is an unacceptable form of discourse. We must be willing to discuss things openly, not through intimidation. Similarly, every student group here is entitled to bring programs, even those that are controversial, to the law school for discussion without questions of motives. We are a school dedicated to open and frank discussion. Let’s live by that credo.

FROM DEAN HOWARD CHAPMAN

Certificate of the Dean of Law School

A Certificate of the Dean is included in the 1L Registration Application and in the bar exam application materials. Please discard your certificate. We automatically send a Certificate to the Board of Admissions for every student who graduates each semester (for the bar exam application) and for every student who enters each fall (for the registration application).

In last week’s Record I made a mistake regarding the Dean’s Certificate in the July, 1995 Illinois Bar Exam Filing Deadline section. The section should have read: The deadline to file your application to take the July, 1996 bar exam is February 1, 1996. The law school automatically sends a Certificate of the Dean to the Illinois Board of Admissions to the Bar for every student who graduates in June, so you can ignore the certificate that comes in the application package.

Grades, Class Ranks, and Dean’s List

Grades should appear on Kentnet within a day or two after they are submitted by the professor. All grades are due six weeks after the final exam, or February 6, 1996, if there was no final exam.

All students who earned at least a 3.25 average for the semester will be on the Dean’s Honor List and will receive a letter from the Dean later in the semester. Within two weeks after the last grades have been received and processed, class ranks will be distributed to all students except 1L’s, who will get their first ranking after the current semester.
For your information, following are various GPA cut-offs for last year’s classes as of the end of the Spring, 1995 semester. The 1L(E) averages are for first-year evening division students, who are ranked by themselves after the end of their first year. The 1L averages are for 1L day students and 2L evening students combined. The 2L averages are for 2L day students and 3L evening students. Students in the top 7% of the 1L(E) and 1L groups grade on to the law review. Students in the top 10% of the graduating class receive high honors and are usually elected to The Order of the Coif; students in the top 25% of the class graduate with honors. The top 50% averages are listed for your information.

FROM ASSISTANT DEAN OF STUDENTS JULIE FENTON

Thank you to all who helped make the Martin Luther King, Jr., Diversity Program possible. We’re grateful to everyone who took time out to participate in this important new event. Also, a special thank you to the students who put together the tribute to Dr. King: Hope Gary, Symeon Davis, Angela Hunt, Dana Kurtz, Rossana Fernandez, Alexander Tsesis, Kimberly Banks, Stacey Edwards, Helen Glover, Yvette Hairston, Jeni Henley, Dierdre White, and Elaine Sit. The tribute was wonderful, warm, and moving. These students put in long hours to put together a program from scratch and came up with a sophisticated blend of music, poetry, short speeches, biographical information, and historic film clips. Our sincere thanks to this talented and dedicated group of students.

Discussion Groups Forming Now

Interested in improving your law school performance and resurrecting your self-confidence? Consider participating in our group sessions this semester. If there is sufficient interest, Sherry Waldrep and I will facilitate ongoing structured discussion groups that will focus on “Expectations v. Performance.” The groups will be small, supportive, and confidential. All Chicago-Kent students are eligible to participate. Participants can discuss how to establish reasonable expectations and goals, as well as share ideas about how to optimize academic performance. To join a group, please e-mail SWaldrep as soon as possible.

CAREER SERVICES

Networking Opportunity Extraordinaire: February 3 at Chicago-Kent!

You've heard us talk over and over again about the importance of information gathering in identifying a career path and conducting a job search. We've recommended that you do some informational interviewing with practitioners to help you decide what you want to do and how best to market your skills. Now we've made this process even easier by bringing the practitioners to you!

On Saturday morning, February 3, J.D.s from 70 practice areas and alternative careers will be at Chicago-Kent for the express purpose of talking informally with students about careers in different areas. The practitioners will be positioned at tables around the concourse and second and third floor atriums so students can circulate to speak with as many or as few of the attorneys as they wish.

It's your chance to find out directly from practitioners how seekers are faring in a particular segment of the market, what it's like to practice in an area, which credentials are helpful in finding employment in the area, what skills you should stress in applying, and more!

Join us from 9:30 a.m. until 12:30 p.m. at the law school to take advantage of this easy way to gather useful information! Please sign up in the Career Services Office if you plan to attend. Flyers listing the areas of law being represented are available on the table outside Career Services.

Note: The participating attorneys have volunteered their time. Participation does not indicate that the represented organizations have job openings. This program is sponsored by the Chicago Area Law School Consortium.

Public Interest News

Kent Justice Foundation Summer 1996 Fellowships

KJF provides both full and partial grants to Chicago-Kent students who have secured summer volunteer positions at not-for-profit organizations providing legal services for underrepresented groups. Eligibility depends upon the number of hours volunteered per week and the duration of the volunteer position. For the past two years, recipients of full KJF fellowships have received between $1,800 and $2,500, dependent upon KJF fundraising efforts.

Application materials must be submitted to the KJF mailbox by Monday, April 15, 1996, 6:00 p.m. Please note that applicants must volunteer and participate in KJF fundraising. Pick up Handout #76 for additional information and application materials.

Are you considering a career in public interest law? Do you want to meet public interest employers? Make plans to attend the Ninth Annual Midwest Public Interest Law Career Conference at Northwestern Law School on Saturday, February 24, 1996. Legal employers from twenty-three organizations will be participating in the program: seventeen are scheduled to conduct interviews and six are scheduled to participate in informal "table talk" networking.

Informational packets containing the list of employers and their hiring criteria may be obtained by signing up in the Career Services Office immediately. Please read the packet carefully and return your registration form, preference sheet and the two resumes for each preferred employer to Barbara Clemmer in the Career Services Office no later than Friday, January 26 at 5:00 p.m. Interview schedules should be available in the Career Services Office the week of February 12.
Are You Leaving Chicago This Summer?

The National Association for Law Placement annually publishes a listing of summer sublets of law students' apartments in cities across the country. If you know you will be needing an apartment for the summer, or would like to sublet your own apartment, you can register to be included in the Exchange directory. This directory will be mailed to law schools nationwide in mid-March.

Registration forms must be received by the NALP office in D.C. no later than February 16, 1996. Late forms cannot be accepted. Pick up Handout #70 for additional information and registration materials.

Upcoming Career Services Programs:

The Balancing Act: Life and the Law Sponsored by the Women's Bar Association

On Tuesday, February 6, The Women's Bar Association is hosting a panel discussion and reception for Chicago-Kent students in the 10th Floor Event Room. Six women lawyers from different practice settings will discuss balancing law practice with life. Judge Anne Burke (Chicago-Kent '83) is scheduled to be a panelist.

All students are invited to attend the program from 3:00 p.m. until 5:00 p.m. The discussion will begin at approximately 3:15 p.m. Please sign up in the Career Services Office by Thursday, February 1 at 7:15 p.m. if you plan to attend!

How to Gain Legal Experience

Very few people enter law school with the ability to immediately add a substantial "legal experience" section to their resumes. As we've talked with 1Ls this fall and winter, we often are asked about ways to "grow" professional or college resumes into full-fledged legal resumes which will help students land part-time, summer or post-graduate jobs.

On Wednesday, January 24, 1996, Stephanie Rever Chu will present two programs for 1Ls on the variety of ways students can develop legal experience. The first program will be at 3:00 p.m. in room C25. The second program, at 5:00 p.m. in room 355, will address the special concerns of evening students. Sign up in the Career Services Office to attend these programs.

NEWS FROM THE OFFICE OF FINANCIAL AID

As you may have already noticed, the Chicago-Kent Financial Aid Office has and is making changes to improve the financial aid experience for students. One such change is the preliminary financial aid process for returning students for the 1996-97 academic year. A personalized financial aid package will be available for students to pick up in the Financial Aid Office from now until the end of the semester. Upon receipt of the Renewal FAFSA application, it should be completed and mailed to the Department of Education in order to receive your Student Aid Report (SAR); there is a 4-6 week turn-a-round time to receive your SAR. Don’t forget to include Chicago-Kent’s new Title IV Code in Section H of your Renewal application--E00773.

All other financial aid documents should be returned to the Financial Aid Office by April 1, 1996 for priority processing. Financial aid packages with Renewal FAFSAs may be picked up during regular business hours, Monday through Friday, 8:30 am to 5 pm, in Room 230. Please be certain to get your 1996-97 financial aid package as soon as possible.

We hope that this new initial financial aid process for returning students proves to be easier, more efficient, and better maintained by both the Financial Aid Office and the student.

AGENCY CONDUCTS VERY PUBLIC HEARING

On January 5, the Nuclear Regulatory Commission conducted a new kind of hearing to seek public input on new fire protection rules for nuclear power plants. The NRC linked its new World Wide Web site with the video-conferencing system of Kinko's copy shops in Washington, Atlanta, Philadelphia, and Chicago.
additional video-conference room at Livermore National Laboratory in California, commission officials gathered with a court reporter who produced a transcript of the proceedings which was put on the Web site with a two minute delay. Anyone on the Internet could monitor the hearing proceedings and send in comments. A conference facilitator at Livermore read the comments aloud to the video participants.

Normally, in an administrative rulemaking, public comments are submitted in writing and those submitting them cannot see the comments of others unless they inspect a file in person in Washington. Hearings must normally be attended in person in Washington or another major city. NRC is also using its Web page to solicit comments apart from the hearing process. TUTORIAL

Are you looking for a petition or complaint? Do you need a sample apartment lease or form of contract? Then you should come to this week’s tutorial on FORMBOOKS. Using Formbooks is a good beginning for drafting legal documents. The tutorial will introduce you to general formbooks as well as to special formbooks that focus on a particular jurisdiction or area of law.

The schedule for this week’s tutorials is posted on the 9th floor bulletin board. It is not mandatory that you sign up. Just stop by the Reference Desk at the scheduled times. Each session will last approximately 20 minutes.

LIBRARY RANGE LABELS

The Info Center has completed labeling the end of each bookstack in the library—and not in Library of Congress hieroglyphics, but in English! It should now be easier to locate the materials that you are looking for, especially in areas that have many titles.

NEWS FROM THE CLC (CENTER FOR LAW AND COMPUTERS)

Electronic Courseware Available

The Center has prepared electronic versions of casebooks, codes, and regulations for various courses offered this semester. These materials are in VIEWS format and require the VIEWS program to be used. VIEWS is available as part of the LEXIS/NEXIS Student Office, available in the Bookstore. The cost for the electronic course materials, which includes license fees and packaging, is listed in parenthesis and the packets can be picked up from Theda Mickey in Room 711.

The materials currently available are:

- Federal Rules of Civil Procedure ($5.00)
- Federal Rules of Evidence ($5.00)
- Evidence in the Nineties ($5.00; Publisher royalty agreements require students who want to use the electronic casebook to buy the printed casebook, too.)
- Prof. Spak’s Commercial Paper with related UCC ($5.00; Students are not required to purchase print casebooks with this material.)
- ABA Model Rules of Professional Conduct and U.S. Judges Guidelines ($5.00 for the two)
- The Copyright Act, Lanham Act, Berne Convention, and Patent Act ($5.00 for four)
Windows 95

Although industry reports indicate that Windows 95 runs many applications and programs that students commonly use, the law school is still experimenting with this new operating system. At the current time the law school network does not support Windows 95. That means if you have Windows 95 on your laptop computer, you cannot connect to the network when you are in the building. Please watch The Record for more information about Windows 95 and network connectivity in the coming weeks. If you would like to participate in the Center’s evaluation of the Windows 95 operating system, please contact Kristen McQuillin (KMCQUILL).

New Computer or Software?

If you received a new computer or software over winter break remember that your vendor can help you with configuring and setup. If you have questions or problems, manufactures’ software and technical support departments are a good source of assistance.

Email Cleanup

Students are not permitted to use Kentnet for file storage. Please download files to diskettes. All unauthorized files may be deleted without warning (as announced last semester). During the winter break all unauthorized files were removed from Kentnet accounts.

Profnet and Kentnet users are not permitted to store or run executable files on the network (other than those installed by the Center, of course!). If you have a request for an addition to the menus, please email Kristen McQuillin (KMCQUILL).

WordPerfect 6.1 for Windows

The latest version of WordPerfect for Windows (6.1) has been installed on Kentnet and the less robust WordPerfect 6.0a for Windows has been removed. Differences between the two versions are primarily cosmetic. Documentation will be available in the document racks in Lab 700, the Center suite on the 7th floor, and within the WordPerfect Help system. Take a look at the Upgrade Expert in WordPerfect itself for a quick overview.

FACULTY NEWS

Professor Richard Wright participated in the Section on Torts and Compensation Systems' discussion of "Corporate Torts: [Efficient] Deterrence and Corrective Justice Reconsidered" at the recent annual meeting of the Association of American Law Schools. Professor Wright's former students might be surprised to learn that he had nothing to do with the organization of the program; they will not be surprised to learn that he defended the corrective justice viewpoint. Professor Wright, who has been on the section's executive committee for a number of years, was elected chair-elect of the section for 1996. He thus will be chair of the section in 1997.
SPECIAL NOTICES

Criminal Trial Film Series

Join Professor McAdams in the auditorium on Wednesday of this week at 1:30 p.m. to watch REVERSAL OF FORTUNE, a movie portraying the defense Professor Alan Dershowitz and his Harvard law students provided Claus von Bulow on appeal from two attempted murder convictions. Jeremy Irons won the 1990 Academy Award for Best Actor for his role as von Bulow. (Wait for his line: “You have no idea.”). Even if you’ve seen this movie before, it is well worth viewing again, especially with your newly acquired perspective on the law. See you there!

Next week is THE ACCUSED, for which Jody Foster won the Academy Award for Best Actress in 1988. All films are free for Chicago-Kent students and faculty. All will be shown in the auditorium as follows:

LADR! - A Program for First Year Students

Only students who are currently first-year students may apply for admission into the Litigation and Alternative Dispute Resolution program.

Becoming a lawyer takes more than sitting through three years of law school lectures. It involves more than learning how to cross-examine hostile witnesses, write persuasive briefs, and talk to clients. Reading about subjects such as legal ethics or law practice management is not the same as learning about them from experience.

Chicago-Kent College of Law's program, Litigation and Alternative Dispute Resolution, offers a unique educational experience. Throughout the program you will learn legal doctrine, lawyering skills, and professional values, and work in Chicago-Kent's teaching law firm, supervised by clinical professors who are expert practitioners and mentors. You will learn the art of lawyering through two years of intensive skills and clinical training. Your experience will teach you how to become a competent, ethical, and socially responsible lawyer.

No more than 30 first-year students will be admitted to the program based upon academic potential, law school performance, and reasons for entering the program. Applications are due Friday, January 26, 1996 during the start of the spring 1996 semester. A faculty advisor will help the LADR students tailor their course selection to their particular career interests. Each program graduate will be awarded a Juris Doctor degree and a Program Certificate.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION
Contact Professor Laser, Room 631, or pick up a brochure in Room 600.

APPLICATIONS ARE DUE ON FRIDAY, JANUARY 26, 1996.

We will be holding a meeting this week on Wednesday, January 24 at 3:00 (room TBA) for a representative of each organization and anyone else interested. Please be there so you can pass along the details. Keep watching the Broadcast and the Bulletin Boards as the date draws near ... e-mail RISMAIL or SBENJAMI with questions. We will be discussing plans for speaker events, fundraising and social events. Everyone is welcome - regardless of whether you are Irish!

Environmental Law Society

WELCOME BACK! It's that time again, SUMMER JOB SEARCH ... check the ELS board in the concourse area for new postings about some great summer opportunities.

January 26 - 28 is the NAELS conference, this year in Florida. Look for future feedback from the four ELS members attending: Rick Saines, Josh Gubkin, Kendra Pohn and Kimiko Butcher.

There will be an upcoming general membership meeting. Watch for details.

Questions? Comments? E-mail RSAINES, YPOLYCAR, or KPOHN.

Federalist Society

Welcome back to school Federalists!

While we will be having a general meeting soon, in the meantime we thought we should update you on several opportunities for those interested in Federalism and individual liberties.

The Institute for Justice is a public interest law group that litigates in four areas: Economic Liberty, School Choice, Private Property Rights and the First Amendment. Aside from their interesting bimonthly newsletter, they are offering a seminar for law students from August 10 - 12, 1996. All program expenses are paid and there are a number of travel scholarships available. The Institute's Seminar includes public interest litigation tactics and techniques for arguing a case in the court of public opinion. There is a short application to be completed.

The Intercollegiate Studies Institute is an organization founded in 1953 to further the economic, political and spiritual values that sustain a free society. They publish The Intercollegiate Review and CAMPUS: America's Student Newspaper, which are available FREE to graduate students and FACULTY members. In addition, they fund several fellowships and a lecture program. We have several of their business reply cards available.

The Center for Individual Rights is civil-libertarian public interest group that focuses on freedom of speech and civil rights litigation. Michael Greve, the Executive Director of the CIR, spoke at Kent last year about the University of Texas School of Law and quota-based admissions policies. The CIR has a quarterly report and other publications available to those interested. Aside from their internet site, http://www.wdn.com/cir/index.html, you can contact the CIR through the mail at 1300 19th St., N.W., Suite 260, Washington, D.C. 20036.

Finally, and not to be confused with the Center for Individual Rights, is the Individual Rights Foundation, a similarly inclined civil rights and free speech public interest group. The IRF has a bi-monthly magazine available, but, they are also looking for affiliate attorneys to help with actual cases. If you are interested, please contact the IRF at 9911 West Pico Boulevard, Suite 1290, Los Angeles, CA 90035, or call 1-800-752-6562.

The officers of the Federalist Society can provide applications, pre-printed envelopes and business reply cards for these groups if you are interested. Contact CHAGE, SGAUTIER, KSCHERER, or JMRAZ. Additionally, we hope to include the information on our already crowded bulletin board on the concourse.

GayLaw

GayLaw wants to offer all members of the Chicago-Kent community an opportunity to subscribe to a confidential service. This is the second year that we have offered this service.

Basically, we scan, on a daily basis, many different Internet sites for interesting legal and cultural issues that impact the Lesbian, Gay, and Bisexual communities. We then forward interesting articles, notes, commentaries, cases, reviews, and other similar communications to the Chicago-Kent service subscribers.

The subscribers are part of a e-mail list that is kept confidential. We maintain this confidentiality by blind carbon-copying (BCC) each transmission.

A sampling of recent transmissions includes:

1) Comments on how a person can, or cannot, reconcile being a Gay Republican;

2) Book Reviews of new publications in the Kent Information Center including: Eric Heinze's Sexual Orientation: A Human Right.

To subscribe, please e-mail Lora Kirk (LKIRK) and ask to be added to the list. You can unsubscribe at any time by sending Lora an e-mail requesting such.
