FROM DEAN MATASAR

I'm delighted to report that the team of Ellina Khotimlyansky, Jill Webb, and Deborah Brown won the Midwest Regionals of the National Mock Trial Competition last weekend. The competition is co-sponsored by the ABA, the American College of Trial Lawyers, and the Texas Young Lawyers' Association. Our winning team will go on to the National competition in Texas on March 20.

The team of Todd Bresney, Stephanie Rosen, and Barney Balonick also did an outstanding job at the Regionals, placing in the semi-finalist ranking.

Congratulations to all the team members, and to coaches Judge David Erickson, Mike Rogers, Carl Volz, Liz Lineau, Rosanne McDonald, Danny Martin, and, of course, to Judge Warren Wolfson. Great job, and we'll be cheering you on in Texas!

Also, I am very pleased to report that Elaine Sit, a third year student, has been awarded the first prize in a student writing contest sponsored by the Asia Law Journal published at the University of California, Berkeley. Elaine's paper on the process of recovering property located in the People's Republic of China which was confiscated by the Communists after 1949 was originally submitted as a paper in Professor Tarlock's Law of China class. Elaine's paper will be published in the May, 1996, issue of the journal. Congratulations, also to Professor Bernstein for working with Elaine and other students to encourage them to submit articles for publication.

CAREER SERVICES

Office News:

Change in Saturday Hours

The Career Services Office is open two Saturdays each month during the semester. Beginning this month, the hours will change to 8:30 a.m. until noon. Walk-in counseling will be available on most Saturdays. This semester, the office will be open on the following Saturdays: February 10 and 24, March 9 and 23, April 13 and 20 and May 4 and 18.

Resume Critique Guidelines

If you are making an appointment to have your resume critiqued by a career strategist, please bring a copy of your law school resume. Take the time before your appointment to update your college resume or create a new resume which includes law school and recent job information. If you need guidance on starting a resume, see the handout on legal resumes in the Career Services Office.

More Office Tours!

If you missed the office tours last semester and you’d like a little help getting acquainted with the resources in our office, stop by and sign up for a tour. Tours will be held at noon on February 13, 15 and 20. Tours will be held at 5:15 p.m. on February 14 and 21.

2Ls: James Montgomery & Associates On-Campus Interviews

James Montgomery & Associates, a small firm specializing in municipal law and litigation, will be interviewing 2Ls for summer positions on March 5. Candidates must have a B average. Interested students must submit a resume to the Career Services Office by Tuesday, February 20 at 5:00 p.m. Additional information about the firm is available in the grey files.

Upcoming Career Services Programs:

Date Change: Careers in Copyright and Trademark Law

What do copyright and trademark lawyers do? What does it mean when you hear that intellectual property law is a "hot area"? What credentials do you need to practice in the areas? Where are the jobs?

Join us on Wednesday, February 28 at 5:00 p.m. to learn the answers to these questions and more. Professor Debra Quentel, former executive director of Lawyers for the Creative Arts, and Mary Francis, an attorney with Ladas & Parry, will be featured speakers.

The room number will be announced in next week’s Record. Sign up in the Career Services Office if you plan to attend!
Two Opportunities to Learn about Summer Study Abroad Programs

On Thursday, February 15 at 3:00 p.m., Professor Philip Jimenez from Santa Clara University will be in room 165 to discuss the school’s numerous study abroad programs for law students. Locations include Budapest, Geneva and Strasbourg, Hong Kong and Beijing, Oxford, Singapore, Bangkok, Kuala Lumpur, Ho Chi Minh City, and Tokyo. Sign up in the Career Services Office if you plan to attend!

On the following Tuesday, February 20, at noon the Career Services Office is hosting an informal information exchange between students who’ve studied abroad in the past and students who are interested in studying abroad this summer. The meeting will be held in room 580. Sign up in the Career Services Office to attend.

Any students who have studied abroad, would like to share their experiences and haven’t been contacted by Stephanie Rever Chu should email SCHU right away!

Judicial Externships

JUDICIAL EXTERNSHIPS: SUMMER AND FALL 1996 SEMESTERS FOR SECOND AND THIRD YEAR STUDENTS WITH A MINIMUM 3.2 GRADE POINT AVERAGE

Informational Meeting

On Tuesday, February 13, 1996 at 12:00 p.m. in Room 270, there will be a meeting for all students who are interested in externing for a federal appellate, district, bankruptcy judge or magistrate for the Summer or Fall 1996 Semesters. Professor Vivien Gross will describe the kinds of experiences a judicial extern will have in the course of a semester, as well as how to apply. If you are interested in a judicial externship, but are unable to attend the meeting, please see Professor Gross in Room 617.

A judicial externship enables the student to become involved in particular legal problems through research and writing, and to contribute in the resolution of those legal problems. Depending upon the judge, an extern may have the opportunity to observe the day-to-day routine of a judge and discuss with the judge and the judge’s law clerk those legal problems which attorneys face in their profession, and the specific problems which attorneys confront in their courtroom. Take advantage of this wonderful opportunity!

Application Process

The applications for the Summer and Fall Judicial Externships will be available in Room 601, Law Offices, as of Friday, February 16.

Completed applications for Summer Externships should be submitted to Ms. Carole Ross, Secretary to Professor Gross, Room 612 of Law Offices on Monday, March 4, 1996, at 5:00 p.m.

Completed applications for Fall Externships should be submitted to Ms. Carole Ross, Secretary to Professor Gross, Room 612 of Law Offices on Wednesday, March 13, 1996, at 5:00 p.m.

CHECK IT OUT . . . NEWS FROM THE INFORMATION CENTER

TUTORIAL

When entering the Information center, you can see a large-screen computer in the aisle with the atlases and Shepard’s Citators. This is the PRO-QUEST database, which abstracts and indexes articles in over 1000 management, marketing, and business journals. This includes over 350 international journals, thereby providing a good coverage of the global marketplace.

The Reference Staff of the Information Center will be demonstrating the PRO-QUEST database. Each tutorial will last about 20 minutes, or less. The schedule is posted on the 9th floor Bulletin Board, and you don’t have to sign up for the tutorials. Just show up at the Reference Desk at the scheduled times.

If you have any comments about the times or the topics for the tutorials, please let us know by contacting Lenore Glanz (e-mail: LGLANZ).
INFORMATION CENTER CELEBRATES BLACK HISTORY MONTH

The month of February brings the celebration of Black History Month. Two display cabinets on the 6th and 7th floor highlight some of the related materials available in the library, including items by and about Dr. Martin Luther King.

Check out this Internet site that provides information relating to Black History Month and other interesting issues:

NEWS FROM THE CLC (CENTER FOR LAW AND COMPUTERS)

Read The Record Online

Read this semester’s issues of The Record on computer! Log into Kentnet, look under NEWS | THE LAW SCHOOL RECORD. You can either see issues from this semester (under CURRENT SEMESTER ISSUES) or from previous semesters (under ARCHIVES). Electronic issues can also be read electronically while dialed into Kentnet from home. They are also available under NEWS | THE LAW SCHOOL RECORD menus.

The Center is also starting to place current semester issues of The Record on our World Wide Web site. Connect to our site using Netscape and select the Information about Chicago-Kent link at the top. On the next page, select the The Record link. Or, if you are coming from outside our site, the URL is: http://www.kentlaw.edu/chicagokent/record/index.html.

Check Your Printing Balance

The second semester has started, and so have new printer account balances. As with last semester, each student has an allowance of 400 free pages for the Spring, 1996 semester.

You can check your current printing balance at any time. Look under KENTNET NETWORK SERVICES | SPRING 1996 STUDENT PRINTER ACCOUNT BALANCES. If you have any unpaid balance from last semester (available under FALL 1995 STUDENT PRINTER ACCOUNT BALANCES) your printing privileges will be discontinued until the balance is paid to the Bursar.

Virus Alert - WinWord Concept (aka prank macro)

This virus affects MS Word files. If you have experienced the following symptoms:

1. Word will save files as templates instead of documents
2. When you open a document, you see a dialogue box with the number 1
3. New macros (9AAAZA0, AAZFS, and Payload) appear in your macro list please visit the Center for instructions on how to eradicate it.

This virus spreads through shared files. If you share files with other Word users, please be on the alert.
FROM PROFESSOR VIVIEN GROSS, FACULTY ADVISOR OF SERVING OUR SOCIETY (SOS), AND SOS STUDENT COUNSELORS, MS SHARON DOHERTY (3L) AND MR. STEVEN MCKENZIE (2L)

Please stop by and see us. We can counsel you generally about legal and non-legal interest opportunities, and specifically help you locate a volunteer experience in a public interest area. Here is a sample of one of our many new and interesting listings:

Cook Co. Public Guardian - Adult Division

If you have an interest in Disability or Elder Law, this division of the Public Guardian’s Office is in need of volunteers to assist in the guardianship of over 400 disabled or elderly adults. Volunteers will learn and participate in the guardianship process with an emphasis in intake, tax and title searches, as well as some petition writing.

OFFICE HOURS - Room 686

SOS Spring office hours are:

Monday 11:00 a.m. - 1:00 p.m.
3:00 p.m. - 5:00 p.m.
Tuesday 11:00 a.m. - 1:00 p.m.
4:00 p.m. - 6:00 p.m.

If you are unable to visit SOS during these times, please email either SDOHERTY or SMCKENZI to schedule an appointment.

FACULTY NEWS

Professor Rick Hasen and Professor Richard McAdams participated in a symposium on "Law, Economics and Norms" held February 9 - 10 at the University of Pennsylvania Law School. Professor Hasen presented a paper entitled "Voting Without Law?" Professor McAdams presented a paper entitled "Blackmail and Group Norms."

Professor Richard Wright remains actively involved in the American Law Institute’s ongoing staged revision of the restatement of the Law of Torts. As a member of the ALI and its Members’ Consultative Group for the first project, on Products Liability, he has successfully advocated several changes in the blackletter and comments of the draft Restatement Third of Torts on Products Liability. He is an Adviser to the Reporters for the second project, The Restatement Third of Torts on Apportionment. Last week, he was asked to provide comments and suggestions on a prospectus for a third project, on Basic Principles (the topics that are at the core of the first-year Torts course).
EXAM REVIEWS

Professor Sherman

Students who wish to review their performance on last December’s final examinations in Employee Benefits Law or Gift and Estate Tax should promptly consult the sign-up sheet on Professor Sherman’s office door (room 741).

Professor Richardson

Professor Richardson will hold an exam review session for her Torts class on Wednesday, February 14 from 3:00 - 4:00 p.m. in room 210. You must attend the review session before scheduling an individual review session to discuss your examination.

Professor Richard Wright

Professor Wright will have an exam review session for his day and evening Torts classes from the Fall 1995 semester on Monday evening, February 19, in room C40 beginning at 7:35 p.m. Check your e-mail for any possible amendment. Any one who wants to go over his or her exam individually MUST attend this exam review session.

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

Professor Sanford Greenberg is seeking applicants for a research assistant. The position would begin as soon as possible and continue until at least March, with the likelihood of continued employment through next summer. Preference will be given to students who have taken Administrative Law, but all qualified students will be considered. Interested students should contact Professor Greenberg by e-mail (SGREENBE), or in person, Room 817, ext. 65284.

Professor Joan Steinman is looking for a research assistant to work on matters related to appellate jurisdiction and other procedural questions that have been generated by an article she is writing. If you are interested, please let her know. You can leave a resume and description of your grades in her mailbox or with her (Room 835) or her secretary, Greg Kelson, (Room 823). The law school will pay at its customary rate.

Professor Gary Laser is looking for two research assistants to aid in research in the areas of civil procedure or clinical legal education to begin immediately. Work can be either for pay or independent research course credit. Interested students should contact Professor Laser in Room 631.

Professor Anita Bernstein would like to hire a research assistant who has taken Products Liability or worked in the area. There are two separate projects: (1) helping prepare a lecture to Torts professors on gender issues that arise in teaching products liability and (2) pulling together an electronic case supplement for her book, "A Products Liability Anthology." Both tasks require excellent research skills and the ability to move material from Westlaw or Lexis into readable WP files. Compensation is cash only, no credit option, with a cap on total hours. Because this work addresses specific short-term projects that you will see through to completion, it makes a pretty good resume item and gives you something to talk about at job interviews.
To apply, e-mail ABERNSTE or leave a note with a summary of your work experience in the box outside Room 765.

The Office of Admissions is looking for a student who is available to work 20-30 hours per week to assist with data entry. Working hours are Monday through Friday, 9:00 a.m. to 1:00/2:00 p.m., and the position pays $6.50 per hour. If you are hardworking, customer-service oriented, have excellent typing skills and would like to work in a friendly, high-energy office, please stop by the Office of Admissions, Suite 230 to pick up an application.

SCHOLARSHIPS AVAILABLE

Pro Bono Opportunity

Pro Bono Advocates is an organization dedicated to providing legal services to economically disadvantaged victims of domestic violence, through the efforts of staff and volunteer attorneys, assisted by law students and others. PBA/LAW also undertakes advocacy to improve and increase free legal services to battered women and the poor.

HERE'S WHERE YOU COME IN: PBA is looking for law students to participate in its work. You can conduct detailed interviews of prospective clients, help to determine their eligibility for a protective order under the pertinent statute, prepare the initial pleadings for an emergency order of protection, fill out other necessary judicial forms, and otherwise assist in helping these domestic violence victims get legal redress and move on with their lives. If you have a 7-11 license, you can represent clients in court, under the supervision of a licensed attorney. You also may be able to assist attorneys who are representing PBA clients in divorce proceedings. In short, you can help persons in need of help from the legal system while honing your own professional skills.

If you are interested in undertaking this pro bono activity, contact Prof. Joan Steinman (a member of the governing Board of PBA) (e-mail: jsteinma) and give her a copy of your resume. She will forward your resume to Swati Avasthi at PBA, who will arrange an interview with you. PBA will provide training. Thanks!

J.D. Certificate in Labor & Employment Law Available Fall, 1996!

Chicago-Kent, one of the nation’s leaders in Labor and Employment Law, announces a new certificate on labor and employment law. Through coursework and practical skills-training, this program prepares students for the dynamic area of concentration in labor relations law, equal employment opportunity, employment relationships and employee benefits.

This program is designed for students with a broad range of backgrounds. For more information, see the detailed program description at the back of the Record. All current first year students and second year evening students interested should contact Professor Malin (e-mail MMALIN).

THIS WEEK’S LEXIS QUICK TIP: LEXIS 4.0 ON CD-ROM! Last semester’s grades are beginning to filter in and with them come the fading of thoughts of a 4.0 semester. However, LEXIS is pleased to announce that this semester is going to be different. Indeed, this semester LEXIS is going to get everyone a 4.0! LEXIS-NEXIS is proud to announce the release of LEXIS Home Access Software version 4.0! This bold new version has many incredible features and an exciting new interface that we will be discussing in this section in the upcoming weeks. Until then, get your own 4.0. It’s quick; it’s easy; and best of all, it’s free! BUT WAIT! That’s not all! LEXIS is also pleased to announce the arrival of a very limited supply of the new version 4.0 software on CD-ROM! Stop by the Reference Desk on the 9th floor of the Information Center and ask for a copy of the New LEXIS Home Access Software Version 4.0 today! But hurry, supplies of the CD-ROM version are limited.

Good luck with your research! And check back with us next week for another LEXIS quick tip!

During lab hours, Westlaw Student Reps can be found in lab 700 or at the tables just outside of lab 700. Please feel free to e-mail us at Cbrown, Sedmonso, or WESTQ is you have any questions or would like to set up an appointment. Remember, 24 hours a day, 7 days a week you can reach a WESTLAW Reference Attorney at 1-800-WESTLAW.

Dow Jones News/Retrieval, a source of more than 1,800 news and information sources online has added over 600 additional sources to West’s computer-assisted legal research service. The new databases consists of selected business articles from 405 regional business journals and daily newspapers and contains full-text coverage of 212 magazines and newsletters including Consumer Reports, Time, Fortune, Forbes and Money.

CONREP - Contains the full text of Consumer Reports Magazine. Articles date back to January 1, 1991.
TIMEMAG - Contains the full text of Time magazine. Articles date back to January 3, 1983.
FORTUNE - Contains the full text of the magazine Fortune. Articles date back to January 5, 1987.
FORBES - Contains the full text of Forbes magazine. Articles date back to January 14, 1985.
MONEY - Contains the full text of Money magazine. Articles date back to January 1, 1987.

News of the Weird:

Has law school left you feeling weird? Would you like to read about people and events more weird than last semester’s exams? Using WESTLAW you can retrieve weekly News of the Weird columns. Access the Star Tribune (Minneapolis) Current database (STARTRIB-C) by typing: db startrib-c; then enter the following query: news + 3 weird.

Tip: If you’re looking for recent newspaper articles, you can save time by searching the current newspaper databases. Most DIALOG on Westlaw newspaper databases have a current version. These databases contain full-text articles from the prior 12 to 24 months. To access a current newspaper database, add -c to the newspaper identifier, e.g., latimes-c.

ORGANIZATIONS

Student Bar Association

The SBA voted on the Spring budget February 8. Each organization should have a copy of the budget in their mailbox on the second floor. If you do not have a mailbox (new groups) please contact JSPOONER for a copy of the budget.

CODE OF CONDUCT: A student committee is currently working on revising the language in section 2:2 in our Code of Conduct. The committee’s goal is to refine the current section (clarifying language, adding, or eliminating items). If you are interested in assisting with re-drafting this section of the Code please e-mail MLAPORTE. We need a final draft to submit to faculty by early March.

ALL ORGANIZATIONS need to be aware of the deadline for submitting reimbursement requests. The cut-off date for this semester will be in early May, so plan accordingly. Also, the sooner you turn things in, the faster they seem to get processed!

REMINDER: The group offices on the concourse are for organization OFFICERS only. These spaces are not to be used for organization meetings, personal business, etc. We all have to share space. Please be considerate of fellow groups and don’t monopolize office space. Any group having trouble finding a room to hold a meeting should e-mail AHOWLAND and check with Janet Keim.

FUTURE EVENTS: Watch for the Conviver Bash the week of March 11. This is after the 1L papers are due.

Law Week is coming in April. Watch the Record for details of all the activities. Faculty Jeopardy, a blood drive, a speaker event and the Barrister’s Bash are all part of law week. The Bash is scheduled for April 20th at the Museum of Science and Industry!

Animal Rights Law Society (ARLS)

The Animal Rights Law Society will be holding general membership meetings on Wednesday, February 21 at 12:00 in room 155 and February 22 at 5:00 in room C50. All members are encouraged to attend. In addition, we encourage any students interested in joining ARLS to attend one of the meetings as well.

Also, ARLS will be accepting applications for all available offices. If you are interested, please attend one of the meetings or e-mail RVANDERV, LWORTMAN, or CBURKE for more information.

Black Law Student Association (BLSA)

Straight from the Heart ... You can be a part of the BLSA Valentine’s Day Fundraiser! Please come to the Spakateria on Monday, February 12 through Wednesday, February 14, where BLSA will have a container filled with candy and for $1, you will have 2 chances to guess how many pieces of candy there are. The person who guesses correctly (or comes closest) will win $20 in addition to the candy! The winner will be notified on Thursday, February 15 by e-mail.

Attention 2Ls and 3Ls!! Get you Business Cards this week! BLSA will be taking orders for business cards on Monday, February 12 through Wednesday, February 14 in the third floor of the Spakateria. Order 500 raised print cards for $25 or 1000 for $30. The orders will take approximately 10 days.

Brehon Society of Irish-American Law Students

Thanks to everyone who attended Ald. Burke’s speaker event. It was a great success!

Our next speaker event will be on February 29 when Mr. Frank Sheridan, Consul General of Ireland will speak about the current situation in Northern Ireland.

We are making plans for St. Patrick’s Day! Anyone who is interested in helping out, or if you have any questions or comments, please e-mail Dan Kirk (DKIRK) or Eileen Gallagher (EGALLAGH).

Corporate Law Society

Do you wonder what really went on behind the scenes of IBM’s takeover of Lotus? What were the lawyers’ roles in this “not-so-friendly” takeover? Come find out as The Corporate Law Society Luncheon Series proudly presents Professor Paula Dalley on “Mergers and Acquisitions -- The Lawyer’s Role” on February 20 at 12:00 p.m. in room 270. Professor Dalley has extensive experience in this area and will discuss the relationships between investment bankers and lawyers and their respective roles in both hostile and friendly takeovers. Refreshments will be served.
Join us for happy hour on Friday, February 16 at 5 p.m. - 8 p.m. at the Webster Wine Bar located on Webster just west of Clybourn! It’s a great place that offers a nice, casual atmosphere, and an opportunity to try several different types of wine!!

Members, we need your help on our fundraising efforts! Please e-mail Sean Gandhi (SGANDI) or Tad Huntington (HHUNTING) if you are interested in helping out in any way.

If you have any questions or comments about the organization, please e-mail Marie Quinn (MQUINN), Linda Chen (LCHEN), or Tad Huntington (HHUNTING).

Environmental Law Society

GET PSYCHED!!! The Bike Raffle is coming....

* We have two up-coming speaker events, watch for details....

* Our bake sale is February 12 ... we need people to come by and sit at the table in the Spak, so please stop by and help us out.

* We would like to plan something special for Earth Day this year, so, if you have any ideas and/or want to help out, e-mail KPOHN or DWILLIAM.

* Information and applications for summer fellowships will be available soon. Contact RSAINES or YPOLYCAR for information.

* The National Association of Environmental Law Societies has their own website, check it out:

  http://ezinfo.ucf.indiana.edu/~els/home.html

Have a great week!

Questions? Comments? E-mail RSAINES, YPOLYCAR OR KPOHN.

Federalist Society

The Federalist Society has two speaking events coming up.

On February 29, from noon until approximately 2:00 p.m., Ron Rosenberger will be talking about his Supreme Court victory of last summer. He sued UVA because the University would not fund his particular religious publication, while they did choose to fund others.

On March 14, from 3:30 until 5:00 p.m., we will host a panel on Due Process litigation which will explore its function and its future. Those speaking will be two skilled civil rights attorneys and a member of the Manhattan Institute.

Watch this space for more details about these events. We will be serving refreshments for both.

GayLaw

These two articles are intellectually stimulating, yet frightening. If you want to be frightened by questionable legal issues on a daily basis, please join the "confidential" listgroup...

1) A Circuit Judge in Florida recently granted a father, who is a convicted murderer, custody of his daughter. The father, it turns out, murdered his first wife over a different child custody issue. Another interesting issue in this case is that the child's mother is a lesbian. The father filed the custody suit because the mother was trying to collect $1,400 of unpaid child support. The Pensacola Judge, however, used the mother's lesbianism as the deciding issue in his opinion. In essence, Judge Tarbuck is saying that having a homosexual relationship is a worse offense than killing a person.

2.) There are two amendments to the current National Defense Authorization Act. The amendments:
   a. deny armed forces personnel access to overseas military hospitals for abortions, even if the personnel paid for the procedure themselves; and
   b. force the Department of Defense to discharge HIV+ personnel, even though the military keeps people with every other chronic disease in non-combat jobs. Furthermore, insurance coverage would be canceled for this HIV+ group after a thirty (30) day transitional period back into civilian life.

Send an e-mail to Lora Kirk (LKIRK) and ask to be included in the listgroup.

Health Law Society

The Health Law Society is having a BAKE SALE on Wednesday, February 14 in the Spak from 9:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m. Stop by and try our delicious baked treats! HLS members donating baked items should contact Cathy (CTRAUGOT).

Also, thanks to all those who helped out and attended the Physician Assisted Suicide Symposium last week.

Hispanic Law Student Association (HLSA)

Please pay your dues if you are not a member yet.

Don't forget to check the bulletin board for all upcoming events.

International Law Moot Court Honor Society

The Jessup International Moot Court Court team invites you to our open practices this week. We will be practicing on Tuesday, February 13 from 4:00 - 6:00 p.m. and Thursday, February 15 from 8:00 a.m. to 10:00 a.m. in the Marovitz Courtroom. We leave for competition on the February 16. We invite anyone interested in moot court to come and watch. Additionally, we ask for your support by attending these practices since we will be arguing before audiences in the actual competition. We look forward to seeing you there.
International Law Society (ILS)

Spring Sweatshirt/T-shirt sales will continue through the week in the SPAK! We encourage all Kent Students to purchase these high quality, well-made sweatshirts and t-shirts and show off your Law School proudly!

Sweatshirts are $35.00 and T-shirts are only $15.00

New for Spring - we are offering the sweatshirts in an array of colors, so, if you really like the GRAY sweatshirt you already have, you can get another one in NAVY, HUNTER or BURGUNDY. Stop by and check out the selections!

Note to all members: We really need your help with the sweatshirt sales. Please help out by signing up (sheets will be posted outside C-76) or by contacting Jason Labella (JLABELLA).

 Reminder to all students who have not picked up their orders from last semester; please contact Christine Brown (CBROWN).

OTHER UPCOMING EVENTS:

Thursday, February 29, ILS and Brehon Society will co-sponsor a speaker event: Mr. Frank Sheridan, the counsel General of Ireland, will be speaking on the current peace negotiations between Ireland and Great Britain. Reception will follow immediately.

Career Day - March 15. This is ILS’s big annual event! Participants will have an excellent opportunity to meet people and firms specializing in the International Legal arena. More details later.

Look in next week’s Record for location and date of our next meeting.

Justinian Society

Don’t forget...THIS FRIDAY (February 16) at 6:00 p.m....

HAPPY HOUR with the John Marshall Justinians at Italian Village (on Monroe between Clark & Dearborn).

Feel free to bring your husband, wife, or significant other for a great time with fellow student-Justinians!! Please note that everyone must pay for his or her own drinks and food. Any questions, e-mail MGURGIOL.

Kent Association of Trial Lawyers of America (KATLA)

The following people will be competing in the ATLA Student Trial Advocate Competition in Detroit, Michigan on February 22 - 25:

Curtis Durik

Good luck to them!!

Watch for upcoming announcements about KATLA’s Criminal Law Speaker Event and a Medical Malpractice Speaker Event.

Labor and Employment Law Society

LELS will be holding its first meeting of the semester today, Monday, February 12 at 12:00 in Room C25. Darlene Vorachek, a plaintiff’s attorney with Abrahamson and Vorachek will be joining us. We will also be discussing upcoming events, elections, and the student-alumni reception. Please attend, and feel free to bring your lunch. Soft drinks and snacks will be provided.

National Lawyers Guild

The National Lawyers Guild, the civil rights group which advocates for the poor, underprivileged and minority groups, is offering various summer internships across the United States. Interns receive a $2000 stipend. THE DEADLINE TO APPLY IS FEBRUARY 15, 1996. (Handout #78)

"The Sidebar" is seeking submissions from the Chicago-Kent community for its March edition, which will focus on the working poor. Pieces concerning working conditions, legal obstacles for workers, discrimination, women’s employment issues and volunteer opportunities for legal professionals are sought. If you would like to contribute or if you have any suggestions, please e-mail "pgates." The deadline for submissions is February 25, 1996.

Today(2/7/1996 4:30p)
Chicago-Kent College of Law
Illinois Institute of Technology
Institute for Law & the Workplace

Introducing
Chicago-Kent's J.D. Certificate in Labor and Employment Law

Chicago-Kent College of Law is pleased to announce the establishment of a J.D. Certificate Program in Labor and Employment Law. Beginning in Fall 1996, students may elect to pursue a Certificate in Labor and Employment Law as part of their J.D. studies.

What is the Certificate Program in Labor and Employment Law?

The Certificate Program in Labor and Employment Law is a course of study designed for law students who wish to specialize in the law governing the workplace.

Through a logical, carefully paced sequence of coursework and practical skills-training, this program provides comprehensive, rigorous preparation for the field of labor and employment law, a dynamic area of concentration that includes labor unions, equal employment opportunity, employment relationships, and employee benefits.

Who is eligible for this program?

The program is open to any student who is enrolled at Chicago-Kent. Day students begin the program in their second year; evening students in their second or third year.

The program is designed for students with a broad range of backgrounds. Some will have actual work experience in labor and employment relations, while others simply have a keen interest in this challenging area of law.

What is required to earn the Certificate?

Day students should take the following courses in their second year. Evening students should take them in their second or third years:

- Labor Law (4 credits) which covers labor union/employer relationships

- Employment Relationship (3 credits) which covers individual employee/employer relationships

- Employment Discrimination (3 credits) which covers equal employment opportunity

- Advanced Research and Drafting in Labor Law (3 credits) takes the place of the standard required courses in Advanced Research and Legal Drafting.

Third year day and fourth year evening students fulfill a required clinical component, by taking one of the following courses:

- Employment Law Clinic, working in-house with Professor Gonzalez or Professor Norton

- Labor/Employment Law Externship, placement with a law firm, corporation, union, or government agency

- Employment Litigation, a classroom simulation course

Students are also required to take one elective. Current offerings from which to choose are Employee Benefits Law and Workers Compensation. Additional offerings are anticipated.

Students fulfill the Law School's seminar requirement by taking a specialized seminar. Current offerings are Public Sector Employment, Disability Law, and Collective Bargaining and Arbitration. Additional offerings are anticipated.

Who are the program faculty?

Martin Malin, professor of law and director of the Program in Labor and Employment Law, is a former national chair of the Association of American Law Schools Labor Law Section. An active labor mediator and arbitrator serving on numerous national panels, he has written extensively on all aspects of labor and employment law, including Individual Rights Within the Union, the leading treatise on the relationship between workers and their labor unions.

Howard Eglit, professor of law, has written extensively in the areas of law and aging, employment discrimination, and constitutional law, and is a former national chair of the Association of American Law Schools Section on Law and Aging. A respected arbitrator, he is the author of the three-volume treatise Age Discrimination.

Rafael Gely, assistant professor of law, holds a Ph.D. in labor and industrial relations as well as a law degree. He is the author of numerous published works in the areas of employment law, law and economics, and the interaction of law and social sciences.

Richard Gonzalez, clinical assistant professor of law, is an expert in employment discrimination and wrongful discharge. A former administrative law judge for the Illinois Human Rights Commission, he currently teaches courses in pre-trial litigation, negotiations, and alternative dispute resolution.

Terrance Norton, clinical associate professor of law, specializes in civil litigation, with an emphasis on employment discrimination and civil rights. A certified mediator, he teaches litigation and alternative dispute resolution.

Jeffrey Sherman, professor of law, is the author of Pension Planning and Deferred Compensation, the leading law school casebook on employee benefits law. He has published extensively in the areas of employee benefits, taxation, and wills.

Mary Rose Strubbe, visiting assistant professor of law, teaches legal writing and research. Before joining Chicago-Kent, she spent 11 years in private practice handling employment-related matters.

Why study Labor and Employment Law at Chicago-Kent?

Chicago-Kent is one of the nation's leaders in Labor and Employment Law. Driven by the strength and visibility of its labor and employment law faculty, Chicago-Kent has evolved into a resource center bringing together students, faculty, and the practicing professional community.

Chicago-Kent sponsors the annual, nationally-acclaimed Piper Lecture on labor and employment law and co-sponsors annual conferences on Federal Sector Labor Law and Labor Relations. The law school also co-sponsors the annual conference on Illinois Public Sector Labor Law as well as the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service's biannual conference for labor arbitrators.

Chicago-Kent's two recently published symposia -- "Labor Arbitration Thirty Years After the Steelworkers Trilogy" and "The Legal Future of Employee Representation" -- have been well received by the community, the latter republished as a hardbound book by Cornell University's ILR Press. Hundreds of labor and employment professionals also subscribe to Chicago-Kent's quarterly "Illinois Public Employee Relations Report."
