LAW OFFICES

SUMMER REGISTRATION FOR IN-HOUSE PROGRAMS

SUMMER 1996 APPLICATIONS ARE NOW AVAILABLE IN ROOM 600
DUE NO LATER THAN FRIDAY, MARCH 15

Students who would like to learn how to practice law while they are in law school should apply for the in-house clinical education program, LAW OFFICES. Applications are now available for the summer. The summer applications are due no later than March 15.

Students may apply for Law Offices after they have completed their first year of law school (current first years may apply for the summer 1996 semester). To be considered for a place, ALL students must complete and return a completed Law Offices application. Applications must be turned in to the Law Offices receptionist in Suite 600 by the March 15 deadline.

Students who have previously taken or who are now taking Law Offices (called Continuing Law Offices Students) and who submit their applications by the due date will be given preference in their same practice group if availability permits. New students who have submitted their applications by the due date will be selected in the Law Offices lottery. The total number of available places during the summer semester is dependent upon the number of supervising attorneys in each practice group. The number of available new places is dependent upon the number of continuing students and has not yet been determined.

The in-house program is comprised of two components. One is a three credit fieldwork class graded on a pass/fail basis in which students work in practice groups on client cases or similar projects assigned to them by a supervising attorney. The fieldwork component also includes practice group lectures, supervising attorney conferences, section meetings, and various client interview experiences. The other is a graded classroom component for one credit.

There will be five in-house practice groups from which to choose - employment discrimination/civil rights with some general practice, criminal defense, tax (prerequisites are Personal Income Tax and Tax Procedure), health law, and mediation & other ADR procedures. It is possible an immigration practice group may be available this summer.

For more information, you may talk to the clinical professors who supervise the various practice groups - Professors Gonzalez (Room 629) and Norton (Room 623) for employment discrimination/civil rights with some general practice; Professors Kadish (Room 613), Kling (Room 625), and Thomas (Room 609) for criminal defense; Professor Livingston (Room 688) for tax; Professor Kentra (Room 690) for mediation & other ADR procedures; and Professors Altman (Room 611), Toolan (Room 621) and Elster (Room 692) for health law. Students Interested in Civil Rights Litigation

The 13th Annual Conference on Section 1983 Civil Rights Litigation

On Thursday and Friday, March 14-15, 1996, the law school will host Professor Sheldon Nahmod's 13th Annual Section 1983 conference. The conference features nationally prominent law professors and practitioners who offer instruction on both the fundamentals and more advanced aspects of §1983 practice and, trial skills, and analyze the latest case decisions. If you can attend only one or a few segments, you should come at the beginning for Professor Nahmod's introduction to the prima facie case. This is a unique opportunity, especially for students who intend to be involved federal court litigation when they practice.

Law students (JD only) enrolled at Chicago-Kent are welcome to attend any or all of the program sessions free of charge (note: course materials are not included; however, copies of the materials will be available in the library at a later date). However, pre-registration is required! To register, please stop by the Office of Continuing Legal Education (Suite 530) to fill out a registration form. Students must register before or on Tuesday, March 12, 1996.
Criminal Trial Film Series and Trivia Contest!

Join Professors Pat Cotter and Richard McAdams for this week's movie, "Compulsion," depicting the infamous 1924 Chicago thrill-murder committed by the high-IQ pair, Leopold and Loeb. Orson Wells stars as Clarence Darrow, who earned his fame, in part, by his defense in the case. NOTE: Show time this week is Wednesday (NOT TUESDAY) at 4:00 p.m. in the auditorium.

Announcing the Criminal Trial Film Series TRIVIA CONTEST! The contest is open to Chicago-Kent students only. Here's the questions:

The voice of a man appearing in one of the film series' black-and-white movies is heard in an REM song. What is the name of the man, the movie and the song?

E-mail your answer to Professor McAdams. The first correct answer wins your choice of: a $25 gift certificate to a local movie theater chain OR a $25 contribution to the Chicago-Kent student organization you designate. (State your choice in your e-mail). The judge's determination of the winning answer is final. The winner will be announced at an appropriate movie.

Pro Bono Opportunity

Pro Bono Advocates is an organization dedicated to providing legal services to economically disadvantaged victims of domestic violence, through the efforts of staff and volunteer attorneys, assisted by law students and others. PBA/LAW also undertakes advocacy to improve and increase free legal services to battered women and the poor.

HERE'S WHERE YOU COME IN: PBA is looking for law students to participate in its work. You can conduct detailed interviews of prospective clients, help to determine their eligibility for a protective order under the pertinent statute, prepare the initial pleadings for an emergency order of protection, fill out other necessary judicial forms, and otherwise assist in helping these domestic violence victims get legal redress and move on with their lives. If you have a 7-11 license, you can represent clients in court, under the supervision of a licensed attorney. You also may be able to assist attorneys who are representing PBA clients in divorce proceedings. In short, you can help persons in need of help from the legal system while honing your own professional skills.

If you are interested in undertaking this pro bono activity, contact Prof. Joan Steinman (a member of the governing Board of PBA) (e-mail: jsteinma) and give her a copy of your resume. She will forward your resume to Swati Avasthi at PBA, who will arrange an interview with you. PBA will provide training. Thanks!
Political Campaign Material

IIT's obligation as a tax-exempt entity is to refrain from engaging in any partisan political campaign. This includes using university facilities, including bulletin boards and e-mail, to indicate support for one political candidate and/or party over another. In other words, campaign posters and material cannot be posted on any law school bulletin board.

THIS WEEK'S LEXIS QUICK TIP: When to use LEXIS FREESTYLE. Here are some of the situations in which you should consider using the FREESTYLE feature:

* You want to give the service some words and phrases in a plain-English-like manner without worrying about AND, OR, W/_, parentheses, and the like.

* You're dealing with a BROAD legal issue or concept, which can be expressed in many different ways (e.g., enforceability of non-competition agreements), rather than with a highly specific topic (e.g., proper names, or tightly defined phrases like "res ipsa loquitur").

* There is a large number of cases that will be somewhat relevant to your problem, and you'd like to see your documents in a MOST-RELEVANT-FIRST order, rather than in the usual highest-court-first order.
You sense that there are synonyms for some of the search terms that you're using, and you'd like an ON-LINE THESAURUS to help you identify additional words that you want to search on.

You'd like to see a PROFILE of each document, showing which of your search terms occurred in the document. (A key aspect of the FREESTYLE feature is that unless you specify otherwise, your search words are not "mandatory," i.e., a document could be selected even though one or more of your search words are not present in it).

Good luck with your research! And check back with us next week for another LEXIS quick tip!

Planning on studying overseas this summer? Dare you leave the US?

Those of you who are planning on travel out-of-country during your break, might find the following databases interesting. Check out the International Country Risk Guides. They are ICRG-EURO (for Europe); ICRG-SAFR (for Sub-Saharan Africa); ICRG-AM (for the Americas); ICRG-MENA (for the Middle East & North Africa) and ICRG-AP (for Asia & The Pacific). They provide valuable information about countries around the world including basic country information, risk ratings, information about politics and economics, etc.

If you go, what is your dollar worth there??

The database GED (Government Economic Data) supplies you with the foreign exchange rates for many countries around the world. Access GED and use the terms & connectors query: noon

ORGANIZATIONS

Student Bar Association (SBA)

Bar and Gavel Awards

Nominations for the Spring Bar and Gavel awards will be accepted beginning March 1. There is no form to fill out. The award is given to nine graduating seniors in the Spring semester. The society places emphasis on rewarding unrecognized service. Factors considered include:

To what extent is the student personally committed to the particular service? (community service, organization service, volunteer service, etc.)

Is the student receiving some other form of recognition for such service? (i.e. Law Review, Moot Court, Payment, etc.)

To what extent is this person motivated to such service beyond any obligation to perform the service?

What effect do these services have on the reputation of Chicago-Kent?

Nominations for this award should consist of a letter to the committee chairperson (Brian Rosenblatt) stating the reasons for the nomination, specifically referring to the candidate’s law school activities, outside legal activities and other services. Letters may be left in the SBA mailbox on the second floor. Nominations will be accepted from March 1 to March 22 ONLY!!

HelpDesk:

The SBA is currently circulating a petition to get a new computer for the help desk on the 7th floor. Please check the SBA bulletin board on the concourse or talk to one of the SBA officers. A sign up sheet and letter will be posted on the bulletin board.

Federalist Society

On February 29 at noon in room 170, Ron Rosenberger will be talking about his Supreme Court victory over the UVA. Decalogue and the Christian Law Students are co-sponsoring this event. Come and listen to what the Court said about the UVA picking and choosing which religious groups it will fund on their campus. Come and listen to what it is like to appear before the highest court in the land. Come and listen to conjecture about what this ruling of the summer of 1995 might mean to other civil rights issues. Refreshments will be served.

On March 14, from 3:30 until 5:00 p.m. in room 570, the Federalist Society and the National Lawyers’ Guild invite you to hear a discussion of Due Process litigation. What is procedural litigation and how does it affect social policy and criminal law in the United States? Speaking will be Michael Avery and David Rudovsky, two esteemed civil rights attorneys, along with Michael Horowitz, a fellow of the Hudson Institute and former counsel of the OMB. These speakers are of the highest caliber and we are lucky to have them. In fact, Misters Rudovsky and Avery will be speaking at Professor Nahmod’s annual Section 1983 Conference. That conference takes place on this date and the day after (13 and 14) and is open to students.

If that isn’t enough to entice you on a Thursday, we will be serving refreshments at this event also.

The Chicago Lawyers Chapter of the Federalist Society would like you to know that Dr. Walter Berns of the American Enterprise Institute will speak on Lincoln, America’s Greatest Poet: An Expression of America’s Founding Principles at the Chicago Athletic Association on February 28. No, Lincoln was not a member of the Chicago Athletic Association, that is where this luncheon event will be held. Contact CHAGE, SGAUTIER, KSCHERER, or JMRAZ if you are interested in attending.

GayLaw

By subscribing to GayLaw’s current awareness e-mail service, you get recent information on legal issues including:

1.) Constitutional Law: Add Montana to the list of states striking down laws that make private, consensual, homosexual sex among adults a crime. A District Judge ruled that these types of laws violate the State Constitution’s right to privacy.

2.) Family Law: New Mexico is the most recent state to defeat an anti-marriage amendment proposed by Conservatives. Because of the likelihood that Hawaii will soon pass legislation legalizing same-sex marriages, almost twenty (20) state legislatures are battling with proposed constitutional amendments specifically requiring opposite-sex marriages.
3.) Employment Law: The Bowers of Bowers v. Hardwick is stirring controversy again. For an interesting read on how sexual orientation could affect your employment as a lawyer, see Shahar v. Bowers, 70 F.3d 1218 (11th Cir. 1995).

Please e-mail Lora Kirk (LKIRK) to be included on the list that receives cutting edge legal information.

Stay tuned -- HLS has more events to come this semester! If you have any suggestions or comments, please contact Cathy (CTRAUGOT).
