FROM DEAN MATASAR AND SBA PRESIDENT AMANDA HOWLAND

During the past several weeks, we've received word that several members of the Class of '96 have decided to take advantage of our free market economy by selling Commencement tickets to classmates. While this practice isn't illegal, and may not even be immoral, at best, it's extremely tacky, and, at worst, it's distasteful. We'd like to be able to provide unlimited Commencement tickets to everyone, but, since space limitations prevent that, we designed a system a few years ago that provides that extra tickets get redistributed to students who need them. We believe that Commencement tickets should go to graduates on the basis of need, so that those with larger families have a better chance of being able to share the occasion with their loved ones. This is a good system; we encourage all of you to work within it, so that your classmates aren't forced to pay scalpers' prices for what otherwise should be a really happy occasion.

Now, on to more pleasant tidings...

We have more great Chicago-Kent appellate advocacy news, via Brian Ziff: The team of Karen Dixon, Bob Hall, and Steve Welhouse became the 1996 American Bar Association Midwest Regional Appellate Advocacy Champion two weekends ago! The top sixteen teams in the United States, including ours, will now advance to the ABA National Final Rounds, to be held in Boston on August 9-11. The Chicago-Kent team also was awarded for third best brief in the region. Kudos to Karen, Bob, Steve, Coach Brian, faculty advisor Katharine Baker, Professors Eglit, Stewart, and Krent, and alums Scott Howie '94, John Leovy '95, Tom Reed '94, and Jacob Rubenstein '94 - great job!

Congratulations also to the team of Alex Philipson, Marie Quinn, and Cynthia Sherman, who were the region's third seed after the first two rounds. Alex was named the Seventh Best Oralist, of a field of more than 80 competitors, and he earned a perfect score of 100 in one of his rounds. Marie earned the highest scores of any oralist in the round in which she argued. Congrats to the team, and to coach Rick Saines, faculty advisory Mary Rose Strubbe, and Professors Baker, Brill, Cotter, Dalley, Eglit, Greenberg, Krent, Nahmod, Quentel, and Steinman - go team!

FROM DEAN CHAPMAN

Summer Registration Information

Financial Aid

There is an error in the Summer Registration Bulletin regarding the number of hours you must take to receive financial aid. In order to receive federal financial aid for the 1996 summer session, federal regulations require students to be enrolled for at least six credit hours. Students planning to take less than six hours but at least three hours are eligible to borrow private loan money to help pay for tuition and living expenses.

Professional Responsibility

Professional Responsibility may not be offered in the spring semester in the evening division during the 1996-1997 academic year. Evening students who plan to graduate in June, 1997 or sooner should take Professional Responsibility in the summer session or in the fall semester to make sure the graduation requirement is fulfilled.

Description of "The Jury" Course

The description of this course in the Registration Bulletin incorrectly described it as a seminar. Following is the correct description of the course Prof. Cotter will teach this summer.

The course will explore selected topics relevant to the institution of the Jury in our legal system. Topics will include jury purpose, function, selection, composition, and instruction. The course will examine both traditional legal perspectives as well as what disciplines outside the law (e.g., psychology, sociology, communication theory) have to teach about the jury. A major research paper will be required. Attendance and participation will be required and course reading materials will be extensive. The course will require significant time and effort of all participants. Two credit hours.

Trial Advocacy

Judge Ken Gillis will be the instructor for the Trial Advocacy course.

Fall Schedule Information and Planning Meetings

Changes in the preliminary fall schedule, descriptions for new courses and other information is available outside the third floor cafeteria.

I will meet with students to discuss the preliminary fall schedule, course selections for the summer and fall semesters, and suggestions for planning your legal education at the following times:

1L Evening students: Monday, April 1 at 7:35 p.m., after Justice, in room 590.
Advanced Day students: Tuesday, April 2 at 11:45 a.m. in room 510.
Advanced Evening students: Tuesday, April 2 at 5:00 p.m. in 590.
1L Day students: Wednesday, April 3 at 3:00 p.m. in the auditorium.

Copyright Law and Digital Works

I'd like to call your attention to an innovative course that will be offered next year using videoconferencing technology over the Internet. The course will be taught by Prof. Peter Martin of the Cornell Law School and will include students from Chicago-Kent, Cornell, Colorado, and other law schools. Enrollment is limited to eight students at each school; a prior course on copyright law (or completion of a set of assigned readings before the course begins) is a prerequisite. A complete description of the course is in the Information Bulletin for Fall courses. Please note that, in order to accommodate different academic schedules at the participating schools, the course will begin in the Fall semester and conclude in the Spring semester.
Grade Distributions

Grade distributions by instructor for the last two semesters is posted on the second floor bulletin board.

Intensive Trial Advocacy

The regular and intellectual property intensive Trial Advocacy courses were both filled and there is a small waiting list for each course. If you were accepted in one the courses, you must register for it on your fall, 1996 registration form. In previous years, many students who were accepted in one of the courses in March changed their minds and dropped it before the course began in August or January. Therefore, if you have any interest in enrolling in either intensive Trial Advocacy course, ask the Registrar's office to put your name on the waiting list for one or both of the courses. If an opening occurs, you will be notified; you can then decide whether or not you want to enroll in the course.

FROM THE REGISTRAR

Patent Law Interview Program: Registration Deadline April 12

Information and registration procedure: Read the following information carefully! The registration deadline is Friday, April 12.
The Tenth Annual Patent Law Interview Program will be held August 2-4, 1996 at the Marriott Suites Chicago O'Hare Hotel. Over 54 employers attended last year's program. Many patent law employers recruit exclusively through specialized interview programs such as this and do not participate in regular fall on-campus recruiting.

Here are the requirements for participating:

1) Patent employers generally hire only those students whose educational backgrounds make them eligible to sit for the patent bar exam. Participation in the Patent Law Interview Program is therefore limited to students eligible to sit for the patent bar exam. Check your eligibility under the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office's requirements for taking the patent bar exam, available at the reception desk in Career Services.

2) The program is only open to students graduating in 1997 and 1998 who are enrolled at Chicago-Kent for the fall 1996 semester.

3) Students who wish to register for the program must sign up on the sign-up sheet in the Career Services Office to receive a Patent Law Interview Program registration packet. The registration material must be completed and returned to the Career Services Office no later than noon on Friday, April 12.

4) An $18.00 registration fee (payable by check to Loyola Law School) is due with the other registration materials no later than noon on Friday, April 12. The $18.00 nonrefundable fee covers the mailing, staffing, and photocopying costs for the extensive employer materials that will be sent by Loyola Law School to each registrant during the summer. Students who register for the program and pay the registration fee are not guaranteed interviews or job offers through the Patent Law Interview Program.

Please sign up for and pick up the Patent Law Interview Program packet at the Career Services Office reception desk.

SUPREME COURT AGREES TO REVIEW CITIZEN LAWSUIT CASES

Last week the United States Supreme Court agreed to review two cases in which citizen suits are at issue. In Arizonans for Official English v. Arizona, 95-974, the justices asked for briefs on the issue of whether a citizen's group had standing to appeal a Ninth Circuit decision that held an English only law unconstitutional. The Court expressed doubt on whether it would rule on the merits of the law which required government employees to use English. In this case, plaintiffs are the citizen group that sponsored a state referendum that led to the passage of the English only law, the state having decided not to file an appeal.

In another development last week, the Court agreed to review the provision of the Endangered Species Act which allows citizen lawsuits to be filed by "any person." A group of ranchers and Oregon irrigation districts had sued to set aside a decision by the Fish and Wildlife Service to keep extra water in reservoirs for two endangered fish species. Plaintiffs argued that the action would hurt the economy by decreasing water for irrigation. Last year the Ninth Circuit upheld a District Court decision dismissing the lawsuit on the ground that the citizen suit provision did not apply to suits seeking to lower the amount of environmental protection. In their Supreme Court appeal, Bennett v. Plenert, No. 95-813, plaintiffs argue that Congress's intent was to make citizen suits available to "any person," not to only "one apparently favored group."

'TIS THE TAX SEASON—The Information Center has IRS taxforms available on LOIS. Taxforms are in the LOIS database; use "student" as your ID and password or ask for assistance at the Reference Desk.

NEWS FROM THE CLC (CENTER FOR LAW AND COMPUTERS)

The end of the semester is coming up quickly. Therefore we would like to remind everyone of the following.

Kentnet Printing

Please remember that all LEXIS-NEXIS and Westlaw printing must be done through the Document Service Center.

Backups

Please save the work you are doing often, and on two different floppies. Power can go out, programs can freeze, and disks can even go bad. Protect yourself and make that extra copy of your paper. If you are not sure how to do this, please email HELPDESK or see Leah Moral in room 703 for assistance.

Virus Checks

If you are using a floppy disk in the lab, do not bypass the opportunity to check your disk for viruses. Some viruses will delete files, possibly every file on your hard drive at home! If you have a virus and can't remove it using the virus cleaning stations in each lab, see Leah Moral in room 703 or Jim Judge in 713 for additional assistance.

BOOKSTORE NEWS

18th ANNUAL PIPER LECTURE

Privacy in the Workplace

On Tuesday, April 9, Chicago-Kent will present the 18th Annual Kenneth M. Piper Lecture, "Privacy in the Workplace," in the Richard B. Ogilvie Auditorium at 11:30 a.m.

Privacy issues have always been present in the workplace, in such areas as locker and office searches. Modern technology, however, has greatly increased the concerns for employers, unions and employees. In Illinois, the recent enactment of a statute authorizing employer electronic monitoring of employees and its court challenge by organized labor has brought the issue to the forefront.

The Piper Lecture will address this important area of law. Speakers include:

Matthew W. Finkin, Albert J. Harno Professor of Law at the University of Illinois, where he holds a joint appointment in the Law School and the Institute of Labor and Industrial Relations. He is the author of Privacy in Employment Law (Bureau of National Affairs 1995), which was called the "standard desk reference" in the field by Privacy Times.

James N. Adler, partner in the Los Angeles firm of Irell & Manella. Mr. Adler represents employers in all aspects of labor relations and labor law. He is a past president of the Labor Law Section of the Los Angeles County Bar Association and the Southern California Chapter of the Industrial Relations Research Association.

Kevin J. Conlon, District Counsel for the Communications Workers of America, where he represents over 70,000 union members in a five-state district.

All students, faculty and staff are welcome. Please plan to attend.

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES

The exhibit will debut at the Harold Washington Library, then go on permanent display at the CBA. Each biography in the exhibit will include an author byline.

Candidates for research assistant should be good writers with keen interest in the extraordinary histories of our earliest women lawyers and the role Chicago-Kent played in shaping their careers. To schedule an interview, please e-mail Susan O'Brien.

STUDENT NEWS

Congratulations to the students in Professor Kentra's Mediation/Alternative Dispute Resolution Clinic, particularly Ben Skjold, for the wonderful job he did mediating a very challenging case pending before the Illinois Department of Human Rights. The case involved an employment discrimination claim by a former employee against a major international hotel chain. Ben was able to analyze and work with sophisticated legal issues and help the parties (including attorneys, the General Manager of the hotel chain, the hotel's Personnel Director, and the employee) come to an amicable agreement to settle the case. His hard work helped all the parties to feel satisfied with the outcome of the dispute, and helped to eliminate one of many backlogged cases pending before the Illinois Department of Human Rights and Equal Employment Opportunities Commission.

SPECIAL NOTICES

Criminal Trial Film Series

This week's movie, "Breaker Morant," depicts the court martial of three Australian soldiers for war crimes during the Boer War. Their appointed and inexperienced defense lawyer provides them a surprisingly valiant defense against politically motivated charges. The stakes are high -- the threatened punishment is death. (Professor McAdams notes that this is the only film in the series his video guide lists as an "action/adventure" movie.) The showing will begin in the auditorium 5 minutes after Dean Chapman finishes his presentation to first year students about registration (estimated to be 3:40 p.m.).

Internet

The Internet is in the news all over the place. You can use WESTLAW to find those illusive, interesting home pages or addresses. Access the daily newspaper database (NP) and run a query like: Internet+2 address or page. Of course, you might want to add other terms to narrow down what you are looking for.

Environmental Concerns - Are You Living Near Hazardous Waste?

The EDR-RCRIS database lists sites that generate hazardous waste. You might be surprised to find that you are living near some. To find out, access the EDR-RCRIS and run the terms and connectors query: add (XXXXX), where XXXXX is the zip code where you reside. This is just one of the many databases provided by EDR that deals with SUPERFUND sites, hazardous waste and the like.

Federalist Society

Remember those Summer Opportunities that we described to you in Records of old? Well you may have forgotten, so because we care, we will be posting them on the Federalist Society bulletin board. Check out the free civil rights seminars and receive FREE newsletters from people who really believe in free speech, not necessarily polite speech.

For a light-hearted view of the law school campus, check out 100 Yale L. J. 1679.

Thanks to all of you who attended the talk by Ron Rosenberger on Religious Freedom. Mr. Rosenberger discussed school choice and voucher programs after he told about his religious repression at UVA.

The Due Process debate between David Rudovsky, Michael Avery, and Michael Horowitz was rife with conflict. It started off with the gentle tugging of heart strings. Then Mr. Horowitz caught the two dignified civil rights attorneys off guard with his attack on the arrogant law profession and the expansion of Due Process it is responsible for.

If you cried yourself to sleep after hearing how great the Federalist Society speakers were, you still have a chance to view the verbal melee. Both events were captured on tape and we expect to have a VHS copy to loan out within the week.

On double-standards:

"I can see more persuasive reason for supposing that a legislature is a priori less qualified to choose between "personal" than between economic values; and there have been strong protests, to me unanswerable, that there is no constitutional basis for asserting a larger measure of judicial supervision over the first than over the second."
