Topics may include theories of crime and criminology; theories of punishment; the crimes of rape and theft; decriminalization of drug crimes and prostitution; the effect of race and poverty on criminal justice; criminal defenses including insanity, self-defense, and entrapment; the criminal jury; and capital punishment. For some topics, such as rape, theft, and criminal defenses, there will be considerable focus on doctrinal detail. For these and other topics, we will also explore various non-doctrinal perspectives on the law, including sociology, philosophy, feminism, economics, and critical race studies. The Tenth Annual Patent Law Interview Program will be held August 2-4, 1996 at the Marriott Suites Chicago O'Hare Hotel. Over 54 employers attended last year's program. Many patent law employers recruit exclusively through specialized interview programs such as this and do not participate in regular fall on-campus recruiting.

Here are the requirements for participating:

1) Patent employers generally hire only those students whose educational backgrounds make them eligible to sit for the patent bar exam. Participation in the Patent Law Interview Program is therefore limited to students eligible to sit for the patent bar exam. Check your eligibility under the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office's requirements for taking the patent bar exam, available at the reception desk in Career Services.

3) Students who wish to register for the program must sign up on the sign-up sheet in the Career Services Office to receive a Patent Law Interview Program registration packet. The registration material must be completed and returned to the Career Services Office no later than noon on Friday, April 12.

4) An $18.00 registration fee (payable by check to Loyola Law School) is due with the other registration materials no later than noon on Friday, April 12. The $18.00 nonrefundable fee covers the mailing, staffing, and photocopying costs for the extensive employer materials that will be sent by Loyola Law School to each registrant during the summer. Students who register for the program and pay the registration fee are not guaranteed interviews or job offers through the Patent Law Interview Program.

Please sign up for and pick up the Patent Law Interview Program packet at the Career Services Office reception desk.

TUTORIAL

If you have been doing all your Shepardizing on Lexis or Westlaw, this week's USING SHEPARD'S tutorial is a good opportunity to review how to Shepardize from printed volumes. We will show you where and how to look for cases in the Shepard Citators, so you can do it confidently as a Law Clerk.

The tutorials are being presented by the Information Center's Reference Staff. The schedule will be posted on the 9th floor bulletin board. It is not mandatory that you sign up for them; just stop by the Reference Desk at the scheduled times.

If you have any comments about the times or the topics being offered, we would like to have them. Send them to Lenore Glanz E-Mail: LGLANZ).

LAST WEEK IN THE SUPREME COURT:

Last week the United States Supreme Court ruled that a lawsuit for age discrimination can proceed even if a worker is replaced by someone else older than 40, the lower age limit of the federal age discrimination law. The key factor is that the replacement must still be substantially younger than the plaintiff. In this case, O'Connor v. Consolidated Coin Caterers Corp., No. 95-354, the 56-year-old plaintiff was replaced by a 40-year-old employee.
In other action, the Court held that a federal appeals court in Atlanta erred in lifting a stay of execution for a Georgia inmate who had filed a last minute habeas corpus petition, Lonchar v. Thomas, No. 95-5015. The Court turned down a First Amendment challenge to an SEC rule intended to prevent municipal bond underwriters from contributing to election campaigns, Blount v. SEC, No. 95-1063.

KINOY LECTURE TAPE AVAILABLE

Noted Civil Rights Attorney Arthur Kinoy spoke at the law school on Monday, April 1. A tape of Mr. Kinoy’s speech is available for viewing in the Information Center’s Media room. Ask for the tape at the Library Services Desk.

’TIS THE TAX SEASON

The Information Center has IRS tax forms available on LOIS. Tax forms are in the LOIS database; use “student” as your ID and password or ask for assistance at the Reference Desk.

MEDIA ROOM (680H)

This month we are featuring “The Interactive Courtroom” videodisc set, You Be The Judge, Trial Evidence and Direct Examination Skills, and Trial Evidence and Cross Examination.

These programs concern the most common evidentiary issues that arise during trials and hearings and focus on such topics that occur in trial (e.g. leading questions) as opposed to discovery (e.g. work product). These issues must be understood thoroughly and intuitively before the attorney can construct a successful case and argue it in the heat of battle.

The topics are divided between objections that arise during direct examination and those that arise during cross examination. Test your courtroom skills and, You Be The Judge.

The Media Room is open during regular Information Center hours and may be used upon request or by reservation at the Library Services Desk.

GOOD LUCK!

NEWS FROM THE CLC (CENTER FOR LAW AND COMPUTERS)

Since the end of the semester is coming up quickly, we would like to remind everyone of the following.

Kentnet Printing

Please remember that all LEXIS-NEXIS and Westlaw printing must be done through the Document Center on the Ninth floor of the library.
Backups

Please save the work you are doing often, and on two different floppies. Power can go out, programs can freeze, and disks can even go bad. Protect yourself and make that extra copy of your paper. If you are not sure how to do this, please email HELPDESK or see Leah Moral in room 703 for assistance.

Virus Checks

If you are using a floppy disk in the lab, do not bypass the opportunity to check your disk for viruses. Some viruses will delete files, possibly every file on your hard drive at home! If you have a virus and can't remove it using the virus cleaning stations in each lab, see Leah Moral in room 703 or Jim Judge in 713 for additional assistance.

18th ANNUAL PIPER LECTURE

Privacy in the Workplace

On Tuesday, April 9, Chicago-Kent will present the 18th Annual Kenneth M. Piper Lecture, "Privacy in the Workplace," in the Richard B. Ogilvie Auditorium at 11:30 a.m.

Privacy issues have always been present in the workplace, in such areas as locker and office searches. Modern technology, however, has greatly increased the concerns for employers, unions and employees. In Illinois, the recent enactment of a statute authorizing employer electronic monitoring of employees and its court challenge by organized labor has brought the issue to the forefront.

The Piper Lecture will address this important area of law. Speakers include:

Matthew W. Finkin, Albert J. Harno Professor of Law at the University of Illinois, where he holds a joint appointment in the Law School and the Institute of Labor and Industrial Relations. He is the author of Privacy in Employment Law (Bureau of National Affairs 1995), which was called the "standard desk reference" in the field by Privacy Times.

James N. Adler, partner in the Los Angeles firm of Irell & Manella. Mr. Adler represents employers in all aspects of labor relations and labor law. He is a past president of the Labor Law Section of the Los Angeles County Bar Association and the Southern California Chapter of the Industrial Relations Research Association.

Kevin J. Conlon, District Counsel for the Communications Workers of America, where he represents over 70,000 union members in a five-state district.

All students, faculty and staff are welcome. Please plan to attend.

This program is designed to bridge the gap between law school and practice. For only $25, graduating students will receive... a copy of the LEXIS LAW STUDENT OFFICE and FOUR MONTHS access to the CAREER library as well as the STATE library of your choice.

This incredible offer is worth over $1,000, but the Class of 1996 can purchase it for only $25!

Among the many advantages of this program are the capability to download caselaw and state statutes into your own STUDENT OFFICE "infobase" for use at any time. You can also research and download information on potential employers using the CAREER library.

You also get INTERNET ACCESS and a copy of NETSCAPE NAVIGATOR as well as a four month subscription to LEXIS COUNSEL CONNECT, the on-line attorney network! This allows you to browse the web, maintain e-mail contact and all of the other great things you have been doing on the Internet while you have been at school.

If you have any questions about this amazing offer, contact your LEXIS Student Reps or check out the poster in the Concourse. To order, or for more information, call 1-800-528-1891.

Don't let this amazing offer pass you by!

Join us again next week for another LEXIS QUICK TIP, and until then, best of luck on your research!

Please feel free to e-mail us at CBROWN, SEDMONSO, or WESTQ if you have any questions or would like to set up an appointment. Remember, 24 hours a day, 7 days a week you can reach a WESTLAW Reference Attorney at 1-800-850-WEST. The new E-mail address for West Customer Support for questions or comments is: studen@westpub.com.

Summer Associate Training - April 22 - 27

Keep your eyes posted for our Summer Associate Training! This is the perfect time for you to enhance your Westlaw skills and impress your employer. In addition to advanced training, Westlaw's fee structure will be discussed. (A must if you want your employer to offer you a full-time job.) Sign up sheets are at the library reference desk!
Summer Access

If you will be enrolled in summer school, law review, moot court or a research assistant, you may get your WESTLAW password extended for summer access via the Internet. Access http://www.westpub.com/pswdexten.htm. (You may also send in one of the Westlaw postcards available in the library.)

Academy Awards Anyone?

By the time you read this, the Oscars will be out. However, if you decide to complain about the Academy’s choice, you can look up the officers and board of governors in WESTLAW. The database you use is ASSOCYB (Associations Yellow Book). Use a search like: academy/s motion. You will get names, phone numbers and even e-mail addresses here. Of course, if you want to use it for a more practical purpose, the Associations Yellow Book can help you identify trade and professional associations, Washington Representatives, Political Action Committee contacts, board members and other interesting information. (Might even find some job contact ideas here too!)

Entertainment Law

If you have stars in your eyes from watching the Oscars and want to pursue a career in entertainment law, there is a new WESTLAW database that can help. It’s called Entertainment Law and Finance. For example, if you want to know how to license songs for use in a film, try a search in ENTLFIN like: license/s sone.

The Federalist Society

The Chicago-Kent Federalist Society would like to announce a General Meeting to be held in Room 155 on April 10 at 3:00 p.m. This is a Wednesday at a time when no one has class, so we don’t expect any wimpy excuses for your lack of attendance. We will be discussing many important things for Conservatives and Libertarians. Those of you who mistakenly have come to believe in other things are welcome to attend and monitor the activity. We hope to provide beverages and we will certainly have some door prizes for the first 20 or so who attend.

We will make available the videotape of the last two Fed. Soc. speaking events at the General Meeting. It failed to capture an Oscar, but, we hope it will do well at the next Sundance film festival.

Please take note of our bulletin board also. There we have displayed information on civil libertarian organizations and internships, paid and otherwise, for law students. Unfortunately, no door prizes will be given for those who read the bulletin board.

"The humanitarian, like the missionary, is often an irreducible enemy of the people he thinks to befriend, because he has not imagination enough to sympathize with their proper needs nor humility enough to respect them as if they were his own. Arrogance, fanaticism, meddlesomeness and imperialism may then masquerade as philanthropy." - George Santayana

GayLaw

There will be a meeting this Tuesday, April 9 at 5:30. Watch your e-mail and the bulletin board in the concourse for the room number.

Also on the bulletin Board are copies of a petition in opposition to the bill seeking to ban recognition of Same Gender Marriages in the State of Illinois. Although the bill has already passed the State Senate 42 - 6, you can still make your voices heard to members of the State House by signing a copy of the petition and faxing or mailing it to the ACLU at their enclosed address.

Later this month, GayLaw will be presenting a panel discussion of the effects of Same Gender Marriage recognition on legal practitioners. Watch this space for more details!

Illinois State Bar Association

To All Graduates:

The annual ISBA "Meet an Illinois Bar Examiner" program will be held on April 16 at 2:00 p.m. This program is co-sponsored with the ISBA of John Marshall. Bar examiner Stuart Duhl will be available to meet and answer questions from students about the bar exam. Room to be announced. Please contact Lisa Yee (LYEE), Susan Walter (SWALTER@), Brian Rosenblatt (BROSENBL) or Babak Kusha (BKUSHA) for more information.

Intellectual Property Law Society

If you are interested in taking an active role in Chicago-Kent's Intellectual Property Law Society, IPLS will be holding its elections for next year's board positions on the third and fourth Tuesdays of this month (April 16 and April 23). Watch the Record and your e-mails for more specific details. If you have any questions in advance, please contact Joel Bootzin (JBOOTZIN) or Scott Smilie (SSMILIE).

International Law Society

The International Law Society plans to conduct a book drive during Law Week, April 15 - 20. ILS is working in conjunction with the Central and East European Law Initiative (CEELI) to acquire books that will be forwarded to the Sarajevo Law School Library.

Please help with this project by donating one or more of the books on the Library Book List which is posted in the ILS Bulletin Board on the concourse level. If you are unable to donate a book on the list, we will accept checks made out to the International Law Society, pool the resources, and purchase and forward the books.

In addition, the Sarajevo Law School will benefit from donated subscriptions to law reviews, international law journals and other contemporary legal scholarship. We will also accept commercial outlines (nutshells), treatises, hornbooks, legal dictionaries and legal encyclopedias.

We hope that you share our interest in this project and welcome any and all book and monetary donations.

Please contact Christine Brown (CBROWN) with any further questions.

Jewish Law Students Association

The Executive Board hopes all of you enjoyed the Passover holiday! With final exams lurking just around the corner, we are announcing two fun and exciting events! Mark April 18 on your calendars now!

The first event, sponsored by the Decalogue Society of Lawyers, features Professor Nahum Rakover, Deputy Attorney General and Advisor on Jewish Law to the Israel Ministry of Justice. Prof. Rakover, a founding member of the Jewish Legal Heritage Society, also teaches at Bar Ilan University, where he is Distinguished Professor of Criminology. You will be able to feast during the (free) reception and see the presentation titled "Human Rights Versus Human Values: Jewish Law in Action in Israel". The reception and presentation start at 5:00 p.m. and last until 6:30 and will be held at Mayer, Brown & Platt, 190 S. LaSalle Street, 39th Floor. E-mail Helen Block (HBLOCH) or call Decalogue at (312) 263-6493 to make reservations.

After the reception, we will be going directly to ... the world famous Party For Peace! The Party is taking place at Lakeview Links, 3206 N. Wilton (1/2 block east of Sheffield & 1/2 block north of Belmont). A donation of $10 in advance or $15 at the door includes two hours of free beer, wine, pop and one raffle ticket. Raffle prizes will include airline tickets, hotel certificates, health club passes, tickets to sporting events and a whole lot more! Additional raffle tickets can be purchased for only $2 each. In addition, the Party For Peace will be featuring a live performance by The Professionals between 9 and 10:30 p.m. Enjoy free pool and ping-pong while watching the Bulls trounce the Pistons on big screen TV's (game time at 7:00 p.m.) Tickets are available from Helen Bloch (HBLOCH) and Debbie Gassman (DGASSMAN). All proceeds go to the JEWISH UNITED FUND -
ISRAEL EMERGENCY FUND! For more information, e-mail Helen Bloch (HBLOCH) or contact Amy Schiffman at the Jewish Federation at (312) 444-2832.

Since both events are being held on the same day, April 18, we will go directly to the Party For Peace after the reception. Meet us at Lakeview Links at 7:00 p.m. if you feel it absolutely necessary to miss the reception - Professor Rakover will certainly be fascinating! We look forward to seeing you all!

The Sidebar

The Editors of The Sidebar would like to extend their apologies for an error appearing in Volume 1, Number 3. North Shore Vending, the company which services our cafeteria, DOES NOT sell AriZona Ice Tea on campus. We incorrectly published a request to boycott the product here on campus out of respect for the family of Tasunke Witko, a/k/a Crazy Horse. The manufacturers of AriZona Ice Tea market a malt liquor bearing the name of the famous Lakota leader despite numerous pleas from his family to cease using his name.

Students United for the Public Interest

IMPORTANT NEWS:

DON'T FORGET the Public Interest Student/Alumni Reception that is being held on Wednesday, April 17 at 5:30 p.m. This event is open to all students. Attorney Fay Clayton will be speaking and this will be a great informational and networking opportunity. See you there!
