Office News

2Ls, 3Ls, 4Ls: Summer Experience Survey

Last week we attached our 1996 Summer Experience Survey forms to the back of the Record. If you didn’t get a chance to fill out the forms, stop by our office this week to fill them out. Whether you volunteered for a public interest organization, clerked at a law firm, had a summer associateship, or researched for a professor, we want to know about it!
The first form is for our own office records. The second form, which asks about the pros and cons of the job, will be filed in the 1996 Summer Experience notebook for students to use to research potential employers. We do not require your name, but if you’re willing to answer questions that students may have, feel free to write your name and e-mail address on the top.

And, as a special incentive, if you return both parts of the survey to the Career Services Office by Friday, September 13, you will receive, ABSOLUTELY FREE, a copy of the National Association for Law Placement’s (NALP’s) new book, An Insider’s Guide to Interviewing: Insights from the Employer’s Perspective. Inside the 32 pages you’ll find inside advice from hiring attorneys across the country on such things as interviewers’ favorite questions, responses that impress most and least, questions interviewees should ask, and much, much more!

Thank you for your cooperation!

Fall On-Campus Interview (FOCI) Program

3Ls/4Ls who were 1996 summer associates

Please let Lisa Abrams or Stephanie Rever Chu know if you receive an offer from your summer employer.

KPMG

KPMG has recently expanded their interview schedule. They are interested in interviewing 2Ls, 3Ls and LLM students in Tax and Financial Services in the top 50% of their class who have an Accounting background. You must be willing to sit for the CPA exam. If you are interested in interviewing with KPMG please submit your resume to the Career Services Office by Friday, September 20, at 5:00 pm. You will also need to complete an on-campus interview registration form and ethical practice form. Both are available in the Career Services Office. You will be notified during the week of September 23 if you receive an interview.

If you have already received an interview with KPMG, you do not need to resubmit a resume and this does not affect your interview schedule.

McAndrews, Held & Malloy, Ltd.

The firm of McAndrews, Held & Malloy is interested in receiving resumes of 2L students with technical backgrounds who wish to practice the law of patents, trademarks and copyrights. If you are interested, please submit your resume to the Career Services Office by Friday, September 13, at 5:00 pm. Please see our grey files for more information about this firm.

New Policy for Missing an Interview

Please remember to talk to Lisa Abrams or Stephanie Rever Chu if you have an emergency which will prevent you from attending an interview scheduled through the fall on-campus program. Also, if you are accepting a job offer, let Lisa or Stephanie know so they can cancel the remainder of your on-campus interview schedule.

Last year, several students missed interviews because they simply forgot about the date or time. Interviewers become very irate when a student doesn’t show up, and sometimes they refuse to participate in the program in future years. Please help us make sure this doesn’t happen again this year!

As a result of last year’s problems, Assistant Dean Lisa Abrams has instituted a new policy, effective immediately: any student who misses an interview for reasons other than an emergency will not be permitted to participate in the remainder of the program. Thanks for your cooperation with this policy.

CHECK IT OUT... NEWS FROM THE INFORMATION CENTER

TUTORIAL

The Reference Staff of the Information Center will be demonstrating how to use the PRO-QUEST database this week.

PRO-QUEST abstracts and indexes articles in over 1,000 management, marketing, and business journals. The database includes over 350 international journals, thereby providing users with a good coverage of the global marketplace.

Each tutorial will last approximately 20 minutes. The schedule is posted on the 9th floor Bulletin Board. You don’t have to sign up just show up at the Reference Desk at the scheduled times. See you there.

EMPLOYEE’S RESUMES ON eLOISe

1996 NALP resumes and law firm brochures are available on eLOISe, the Information Center’s database of imaged documents. You can look for firms by name, city or state, and size. Select eLOISe from the Kentnet menu and use "student" as both you ID and Password. Select the EMPRES file and search away!

Pick-up a bookmark on using eLOISe at the 9th floor Service Desk or ask a reference librarian for assistance on searching and retrieving documents from eLOISe.

I.J. BERKSON READING ROOM

You may have wondered about the person for whom the Berkson Reading Room is named. The room, on the 10th floor of the Information Center, is named after a noted Chicago attorney and 1918...
The reading room was a gift of Sadie Berkson, who is a member of the Chicago-Kent Board of Overseers. Mr. Berkson was known for his professionalism and ethics and was honored with a testimonial by the American Bar Association for 50 years of valued service to the legal profession. The Berkson Reading Room is modeled after traditional reading rooms of the 19th century and holds the reserve and rare books collections in its 14-foot tall cherry wood bookcases. The 36-foot high ceiling is embellished with a Lamella motif—the diamond pattern formed by the structural beams. Network connection ports are located on the floor and are available for every seat in the Reading Room—as they are for every seat in the Information Center.

PHOTOCOPYING IN THE INFORMATION CENTER

There are 5 self-service photocopying areas in the library. Coin operated machines are on the 9th and 10th floors. For school assignments it is most practical to purchase a vendarcard in the 9th floor copy room. Self-service copying is 10 cents a page. The Document Center, located within the library, will do copying for you at 12 cents a page, and offers a variety of other services, including faxing and microfiche copying.

FROM PROFESSOR VIVIEN GROSS, FACULTY ADVISOR OF SERVING OUR SOCIETY (SOS), AND SOS STUDENT COUNSELORS, MR. STEVE MCKENZIE (3L) AND MS. ANN CELINE O’HALLAREN (2L).

Here is this week’s highlight:

Police Custody Hotline Program needs 7-11 students.

Learn more about our criminal justice system by volunteering as little as one week-night a month. After receiving training from the Hotline’s staff attorneys, the volunteer will spend one evening a month being dispatched to various Chicago police stations in response to emergency calls from an arrestee or his or her family. While at the police station the volunteer will collect basic information about the client, inform the client of his/her constitutional rights, document any injuries suffered by the client; convey any messages to the client’s family, and place police on notice that the client is not to be questioned outside the presence of counsel. The Hotline’s representation ends when the client is transferred from the police station to bond court.

There is a database exclusively on WESTLAW that makes that task a snap. It is called Uniform Laws Annotated (ULA). For example, you can find information about the adoption of the Uniform Commercial Code by various states by performing a search such as: "table of jurisdiction" + s adopted & pr("uniform commercial code").

Professor Robert C. Post of the University of California at Berkeley School of Law will be here September 15 to 18 as the 1996 Chicago-Kent Centennial Visiting Professor. One of the nation's leading First Amendment scholars, Professor Post has written about a wide range of issues including hate speech, pornography, and the conflicting demands of privacy, reputation, and free expression.

In addition to visiting several classes while he is here, Professor Post will give a talk on "Affirmative Action" in the Auditorium on Wednesday, September 18, from 3:00 to 4:00 p.m. All members of the Chicago-Kent community are invited to attend. The topic could hardly be more timely. In addition to the ongoing national debate, affirmative action is the subject of a widely watched referendum this fall in California over the California Civil Rights Initiative (CCRI), which would forbid the use of racial preferences by any part of the state government.

Following the talk there will be a reception with Professor Post in the First Floor Lobby.

PRO BONO OPPORTUNITY

Pro Bono Advocates is an organization dedicated to providing legal services to economically disadvantaged victims of domestic violence, through the efforts of staff and volunteer attorneys, assisted by law students and others. PBA/LAW also undertakes advocacy to improve and increase free legal services to battered women and the poor.

HERE'S WHERE YOU COME IN: PBA is looking for law students to participate in its work. You can conduct detailed interviews of prospective clients, help to determine their eligibility for a protective order under the pertinent statute, prepare the initial pleadings for an emergency order of protection, fill out other necessary judicial forms, and otherwise assist in helping these domestic violence victims get legal redress and move on with their lives. If you have a 7-11 license, you can represent clients in court, under the supervision of a licensed attorney. In short, you can help persons in need of help from the legal system while honing your own professional skills.

If you are interested in undertaking this pro bono activity, contact Prof. Joan Steinman (a member of the governing Board of PBA) (e-mail: jsteinma) and give her a copy of your resume. She will forward your resume to Swati Avasthi at PBA, who will arrange an interview with you. PBA will provide training. Thanks!

STUDENT AFFAIRS AND DIVERSITY COMMITTEE MEMBERSHIP

One of the committees established to engage in self-study of the law school is a committee on Student Affairs and Diversity. The committee would like to include among its members two students who have completed a year or more at the law school. (We also plan to consult with additional students and to do some student surveys later in the year.) The focuses of our study will be student services, student organizations, public service opportunities, and affirmative action and diversity issues. If you would like to be considered for membership on the committee, please communicate your interest to Professor Joan Steinman, and leave a resume with her or in her mailbox. Thank you.

THIRD YEAR STUDENTS ONLY!

SPRING 1997 SEMESTER: EXTERNSHIPS FOR U.S. ATTORNEY, NORTHERN DISTRICT OF ILLINOIS

All third year students who are interested in externing for the Spring of 1997 Semester with the Office of the U.S. Attorney for the Northern District of Illinois, should pick up their applications from Professor Gross in Room 617. The primary goals of this externship are to provide the student with the greatest possible exposure to and participation in federal trial and appellate practice and to assist the office in handling its multitude of important cases. Completed applications must be received at the Office of the U.S. Attorney by Friday, September 27, 1996.

Should you be selected by the U.S. Attorney's office to receive law school credit for this externship, you must also apply to and be accepted into the law school's Advanced Externship Program. Professor Gross will explain those application procedures to you when you pick up your application. The law school externship applications will be available in late October.
VOLUNTEER TUTORS NEEDED

The Lawrence Hall Tutoring Project, sponsored by the Young Lawyers Division of the Chicago Bar Association, needs tutors to work with children and teenagers at Lawrence Hall Youth Services. Lawrence Hall is a child welfare agency that provides refuge for abused and neglected children. Tutors spend one evening a week helping their student develop basic math and reading skills. The program provides an opportunity from these youth to receive the extra individual attention not currently available for parents or teachers. For tutors, the program is a rewarding experience and an opportunity to network with other young lawyers. If you are interested in volunteering, please contact Kathy Tabor at (312) 321-4246 or Yvonne Hilst (Chicago-Kent '94) at (312) 786-2244.

ORGANIZATIONS

FROM MARK SCOTT, PRESIDENT OF THE STUDENT BAR ASSOCIATION

In an attempt to reduce the amount of "rambling" that I am accused of, please allow me to move right on to the business comments. Everyone should thank Pegg Zilligen (3L) and Beth Donahue (3L) for their insightful remarks that led to my cutting this column short.

Old Business:

1. Fall Election:

   Election Rules: The BOG will vote on the proposed election rules on Tuesday, September 10, during the BOG meeting. The proposed rules will be available today for candidates to review. The SBA promulgated rules for both individual and "ticket" campaigns.

   1L Representatives: The SBA is distributing petitions for 1L Representative positions to be decided during the Fall Election. The Petitions are available outside the SBA main office, C88. The petitions must be returned no later than 8:00 pm on Thursday, September 12. Campaigning for 1L's begins on Monday, September 16.

   Vice Presidents: The SBA will meet with the VP candidates at 5:00 pm on Monday, September 9. The meeting will take place in conference room C90. Campaigning begins this Wednesday, September 11.

2. Student Organization Master List: The SBA placed a master list that included active student organizations, officers, and faculty advisors in each organization's mailbox located on the second floor. Copies of the master list are available and can be picked up by any interested student at the SBA main office, C88.

3. September Social: The SBA will host the September Social on September 19 at Jak's Tap, located in the Greektown area on Jackson two blocks west of Halsted. The event will begin at 7:00 pm and last until 11:00 pm. This event is free to all students enrolled at Chicago-Kent.

4. Dean's Advisory Council: The DAC list is growing, but there is still room for YOU to get involved. Please e-mail Andy Stein and inform him that you would like to be a member of the DAC.
New Business:

1. Law Week: Law Week will take place during the Spring 1997 semester. Although I hate to be thinking so far ahead, I believe it is important to start lining up the major speaking event. Please e-mail to SBAQ the names of any person(s) that you would like the SBA to consider. The names provided by the student population will be included on the first SBA poll.

2. Event Coordination: The SBA is working on finding an Events Coordinator that will be responsible for logging all student organization activities. Any student will have access to the information compiled by the coordination team. To be most efficient, however, we need every student organization to e-mail to SBAQ all of their meetings, speaking, and event plans.

3. Voicemail Passwords: Any student organization that has access to an office on the Concourse level also has access to voicemail on the phone extension in the office. If you do not know the password to access voicemail, please check with the other organization leaders that you share an office with. If your efforts fail to secure a password, please let me know, and I will follow up accordingly.

4. Faculty Committees: The Chairs of the following faculty committees have informed me that student representative seats exist or will probably exist on their respective committees. If you are interested in any of the committees, please forward your interest to SBAQ, and I will contact you with the procedural requirements.

   Admissions and Financial Aid
   Computer Center
   Curriculum and Academic Standards
   Student Affairs and Diversity
   Advocacy, Ethics and ADR
   Clinic/LADR
   Legal Writing
   Dean Search Committee
   Visiting Assistant Professor (VAP) Appointments

5. Finance Committee: The Finance Committee met last week and will provide the BOG with a proposal at tomorrow night’s meeting. The SBA is expecting to have student organization budgets approved no later than this Friday, September 13.
