FROM DEAN DEUTSCH

Welcome back! I hope all of you had a terrific holiday break, and are rested and ready to plunge into the spring semester. We have many exciting, informative activities planned, including a special screening of Eyes On The Prize for Martin Luther King, Jr., Day on January 21, Professionalism Day ‘97 on February 5, the National Association of Environmental Law Societies Annual Conference on March 7 and 8, the Kenneth M. Piper Memorial Lecture in Labor Law on April 15, and others. As usual, there is a lot going on at the law school.

Many of our faculty have been busy since classes ended, grading, giving speeches, etc. For example:

Professor Lori Andrews and her book, Black Power, White Blood: The Life and Times of Johnny Spain, were the subject of a lengthy feature article in the Chicago Tribune’s “Tempo” section, and Professor Andrews made a brief appearance with Spain and his half-brother on “The Oprah Winfrey Show.”

Professors Pam Kentra and Gary Laser were quoted in a Chicago Sun-Times article about eviction court and our new Advice Desk pilot program that began in October at the Daley Center to assist those being evicted.

Professors Pat Cotter and Richard Kling were interviewed extensively on TV and radio and by newspapers about the indictments of prosecutors and police officers in the Rolando Cruz case.

Professor Marc Kadish was on TV to discuss the recent indictment of several Austin District police officers.

Professor Philip Hablutzel made a presentation at the mid-year meeting of the ISBA on the progress in adopting the Uniform Limited Liability Company Act and the Revised Uniform Partnership Act.

Professor Ralph Brill appeared on a panel or, Teaching With Technology at the 1997 Annual Meeting of the Association of American Law Schools (AALS) in Washington, D.C. last week, and he was honored by both the Clinical Legal Education Section of the AALS and by the Association of Legal Writing Directors/Legal Writing Institute for his work on improvement of the Standards on Legal Education.
The Record

January 13, 1997

Professor Molly Lien was elected to the Board of Directors of the Legal Writing Institute and was invited to present her paper, "Technocentrism and the Soul of the Common Law Lawyer" at the Annual Meeting of the American Association of Law Librarians.

Professor Richard Wright was elected chair of the AALS Section on Torts and Compensation Systems and made a presentation as part of a Workshop on Teaching with Technology at the AALS Annual Meeting, as did Professors Richard Warner and Stephen Sowle. Professors Anita Bernstein and Mickie Voges also participated in panel discussions, and I was co-chair of a planning committee for an Environmental Law panel.

And Professors Howard Eglit, Martin Malin, Sheldon Nahmod, Jeffrey Sherman, Stephen Sowle, Mickie Voges, and I all were interviewed and quoted in various media on a variety of law and legal education topics.

Many faculty members have been busy writing articles for publication during the past several months, as well. I have just about completed the manuscript for the second edition of my Illinois Environmental Law Statutes Annotated. Professor Andrews' article "Gen-Etiquette: Are There Moral and Legal Responsibilities to Share Genetic Information Within Families?" is being published in the forthcoming edition of Genetic Secrets: Protecting Privacy and Confidentiality in the Genetic Era (Mark Rothstein, ed., Yale University Press). "How to Make a New Tort: Three Paradoxes," a new article by Professor Bernstein, will be published in 75 Texas Law Review this year. Professor Hablutzel completed the first annual supplement for his two-volume treatise on International Banking Law, published by Clark Boardman Callaghan. Professor Rick Hasen has an article entitled "High Courts Wrongly Elected: A Public Choice Model of Judging and Its Implications for the Voting Rights Act," coming out in 75 N.C. L. Rev. this year, as well as an article on theft, co-authored with Professor Richard McAdams, in the International Review of Law and Economics. Professor Hal Krent has written the foreword to 71 Chi-Kent L. Rev., entitled "The Fee Shifting Remedy: Panacea or Placebo?" Professor Malin's article, "On the Scope of Legitimate Authority," co-authored with IIT Professor Robert Ladenson, will be published in a forthcoming edition of the Journal of Social Philosophy. Professor Jeffrey Malkan has a forthcoming article for the Texas Law Review entitled, "Stolen Photographs: Personality, Publicity, and Privacy." Professor Deb Quentel wrote "Bad Artists Copy. Good Artists Steal." The Ugly Conflict Between Copyright Law and Appropriation," for an upcoming volume of the UCLA Entertainment Law Review. And Professor Tarlock completed work on the 1996 release of his Law of Water Rights and Resources, and "The Futile Search for Environmental Laws Based on 'Good Science,'" 1 Int'l J. Biosci. & L. 9.

Finally, we're delighted to welcome Professor Steven Harris, who joined the faculty this year and will be teaching his first courses for Chicago-Kent, Bankruptcy and Commercial Law II, this semester, and Professor Jacob Corré, who returns to full-time teaching this semester.

* * * * *

During my first semester as Interim Dean, I discovered that it's very easy to be so busy with faculty, student problems, alumnae/i, etc., that I don't have time for simply interacting with you, the students who make the law school what it is. I'm always available to meet with people, and some of you have been in touch via e-mail or otherwise, but it's hard to have those casual chats I am used to having as a faculty member. So, in an effort to keep in better touch with students and what's going on, I'm scheduling some times at lunch and in the early evening at snack time to meet informally with groups of you in the Spaketeria. There will be no agenda or set topic for discussion--I'm just interested in hearing what you have to say about the law school, the legal profession, the world, or life in general. The only limitation I'm going to impose is on the number of students participating--nine per session--so that we can have a group discussion that's meaningful for everyone.
The Record

January 13, 1997

The dates and times, so far, are:

Thursday, January 23, at 12 noon and 5:00pm
Wednesday, February 26, at 12 noon and 5:00pm and Monday, March 17, at 12 noon and 5:00pm

Please call or stop by my office (room 330) and speak to Ms. Ada Jenkins, Assistant to the Dean, to sign up. Or, you can send an e-mail to Ms. Jenkins at ajenkins@kentlaw.edu. If you want to sign up individually, that’s fine, but feel free to form a group to sign up for one of the times.

You’re welcome to continue communicating with me via DearDean e-mails, or by making appointments to see me in my office—or by buttonholing me in the halls—but I hope that a number of you will take this opportunity to spend some time talking with me about your thoughts and feelings about being at Chicago-Kent and where you’re headed. I really look forward to the meetings.

Now, on with the real proceedings... Have a great start to the semester!

FROM ASSOCIATE DEAN HOWARD CHAPMAN

Welcome back! I hope you had a relaxing break and will have an enjoyable and successful semester. There are several important announcements in the Registrar’s section of this Record, including procedures and deadlines for adding courses, making the pass/fail election and waiving insurance coverage. Please review these announcements carefully.

Spring Semester Schedule Changes

Prof. Jeffrey Sherman will teach the Estates and Trusts course which meets on Thursday and Friday at 9:35am, not Prof. Helsinger. Students who enroll in this section after December 18, 1996 may not elect to take it pass/fail. A new Legal Drafting section specializing in Intellectual Property was added to the schedule on Wednesday from 4:00 to 5:50pm. The time of Legal Drafting section 424-053-02 specializing in General Practice has been changed to Monday from 5:35 to 7:25pm. The Illinois Civil Procedure course I mentioned in the last Record could not be arranged for the spring semester. It will be offered next fall.

Class Assignments

I mailed a letter to all students on December 26, 1996 containing assignments for the first week of class and other information about the spring semester. If you did not receive this letter, you may obtain one in the Registrar’s office and while you’re there, make sure your correct address is in our records. Assignments received from instructors after the letter was mailed are posted on the second floor bulletin board.

July 1997 Illinois Bar Exam Application

Applications for the July, 1997 bar exam must be postmarked by February 1, 1997. The law school sends a Certificate of Dean of Law School Proof of Legal Education to the Illinois Board of Admissions to the Bar for every student who graduates in May so you may toss the one included in the application materials.
If you did not file a Law Student Registration Application by March 1 of your first year of law study, you may ignore the Certificate of Dean of Law School - Proof of Commencement of Legal Study included in your materials if you began at Chicago-Kent. We sent a Certificate for every student who began at Chicago-Kent and the Illinois Board of Admissions to the Bar will have your Certificate in their files. If you have any questions about the application, you may call the Illinois Board of Admissions at 217-522-5917; their switchboard closes at 2:00pm.

Information you provide on the bar application should be consistent with answers on your Chicago-Kent Application for Admission. You may amend your Application by addressing a letter to me setting forth the details of the omission or misrepresentation with supporting documents.

New Grades

All "plus" and "minus" grades earned after the 1996 summer session will appear on Kentnet and on official grade reports followed by a period (A-"."). The period will distinguish the grade point value of plus and minus grades earned after the 1996 summer session from those earned prior to the fall 1996 semester. For example, a C- earned prior to the fall semester was worth 1.5 grade points, but a C-"." is worth 1.7 grade points in the fall semester.

Spring Final Exams

The final exam schedule for the spring 1997 semester is attached to this Record. You must take your finals at the times scheduled, even if you have two exams in a row or one at 6:00pm and another at 8:30am the next morning. The only exception is if you have three exams scheduled consecutively, which rarely happens. So look at your final exam schedule before you purchase your non-refundable tickets to Omaha.

Intellectual Property Intensive Trial Advocacy

For the last several years, a one-week Trial Advocacy 1 course specializing in Intellectual Property has been offered in mid-August. Unfortunately, the instructors are no longer available to teach this course and I don’t expect it to be offered in the future.

Law Student Registration Application for First-Year Students

First-year students who plan to take the Illinois bar exam when they graduate should file an application to register as a candidate for admission to practice law. Applications are available in the Registrar’s office and must be postmarked by March 1, 1997. If you are not sure if you are going to take the Illinois bar exam, you don’t have to register by March 1. If you later decide to take the Illinois bar exam, you can register at that time. However, if you register after March 1 of your first year of law school, you will have to pay an additional $300 in late fees ($250 to the Illinois Board of Admissions to the Bar and $50 to the National Conference of Bar Examiners).

Information you provide on the bar registration application should be consistent with answers on your Chicago-Kent Application for Admission. You may amend your Application by addressing a letter to me setting forth the details of the omission or misrepresentation with supporting documents.

One document in the package is a "Certificate of the Dean of Law School - Proof of Commencement of Legal Study." We send a Certificate to the Illinois Board of Admissions to the Bar for every student who began at Chicago-Kent last August, so you can toss your copy of the Certificate. If you have any questions about the registration application, you may call the Illinois Board of Admissions at 217-522-5917; their switchboard closes at 2:00pm.

Out-of-State Bar Exams

Students who plan to take an out-of-state bar examination should contact the bar examiners in the other state to determine if there is a law student registration requirement and if specific courses are required. You may obtain the addresses and phone numbers of out-of-state bar examiners in my office or the Registrar’s office.

Multistate Professional Responsibility Examination (MPRE)

The MPRE exam is required for admission to the bars of most jurisdictions, including Illinois. The exam, which may be taken any time after the first year of law school, is administered in March, August and November each year. Applications for the MPRE exam and information about the exam are available in the Registrar’s office. The deadline for applying for the March 14 exam is February 14, 1997.

Revised Preliminary 1997 Summer Schedule

Attached to this Record is a revised preliminary summer schedule. Two courses, Prof. Levi’s Poverty Law and Prof. Eglit’s Remedies, have been removed from the preliminary schedule. Three courses have been added to the schedule: Food and Drug Law, International Law and Land Use. I don’t anticipate too many additional changes in the summer schedule.

FROM THE REGISTRAR

Welcome back!

Schedule Changes

You may add an open course through Friday, January 24, 1997. If you drop a course and reduce your credit hours, you will be charged tuition according to the following schedule:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Date of Withdrawal</th>
<th>Charge</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>During the first week</td>
<td>no charge</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>During the second week</td>
<td>50% of tuition</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>During the third week</td>
<td>75% of tuition</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>After the third week</td>
<td>100% of tuition</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

To add or drop a course, you must submit a signed Registration Change Form to the Registrar.

Maximum and Minimum Hours

When adding a course, please make sure that your total hours do not exceed the maximum hours set forth in sections §2.1 and §2.2 of the Student Handbook. During the third week of the semester, the Registrar will prepare a report of all students’ credit hours. Students who registered for more than the maximum number of hours without permission will be required to drop a course; students taking fewer than the required number will have to add a course. To receive permission to take more or less than the required number of hours, submit a Petition to Dean Chapman, room 320. The Petition forms are available outside the Registrar’s office. Graduating seniors who need fewer than the minimum number of credit hours to graduate may take fewer hours without permission. However, seniors must make sure they comply with the residency requirement in §1.5 of the Handbook.

Pass/Fail Elections

Pass/Fail Election Forms are available in the Registrar’s office; please read the instructions and the limitations on the form and §2.4 of the Handbook. The absolute deadline to make a Pass/Fail election is 5:00pm, Friday, February 7, 1997. You make a pass/fail election for an elective course by submitting two copies of the Pass/Fail Election Form to the Registrar’s office. Make sure one copy is signed by the Registrar and returned to you; keep this copy as evidence of your election. You may revoke an election at any time up to the last day of classes for the spring semester.

Insurance Waiver

All students registered for at least 12 hours, regardless of their division, are automatically billed for student health insurance. Students who were registered for 12 hours during the Fall semester were billed a one-time charge of $442 for the Fall and Spring semesters. Students who waived coverage for the Fall semester do not have to submit another waiver. If you were registered for fewer than 12 credit hours during the Fall semester but register for at least 12 hours this Spring semester (regardless of your division), you will be assessed a $264 student health insurance fee.
You may waive this coverage by submitting a waiver form to the IIT Counseling Center (Room 103, FA Hall) by January 24, 1997. You may deposit the form in the campus mail slot in the College Service Center on the second floor. Brochures explaining the insurance coverage and waiver procedures are available in the Registrar’s office.

May 1997 Graduates

If you have not submitted a Graduation Requirement Analysis Form to the Registrar, please do so by Friday, January 24, 1997 and read §1.8 of the Student Handbook. If you change your schedule and reduce your hours after you submit the form, please notify the Registrar and amend the form.

PROFESSIONALISM DAY

Think there’s nothing to look forward to during the spring semester other than spring break? Just a stretch of gray, cold weather and long, interminable weeks of hitting the books and preparing for classes? But wait! Professionalism Day is fast approaching--Wednesday, February 5. What’s so great about Professionalism Day you ask? It’s a great opportunity to gain valuable insight into the realities of legal practice, the business world and the use of your law degree. Besides, Professionalism Day will break up the doldrums of winter in Chicago and the drudgery of endless legal doctrine. Second-years, and third and fourth-year students who did not attend last year, should attend the event this year. If you have yet to register, drop by the Career Services Office this week to sign up. First years, you’ll get your chance next year!
Don’t miss this opportunity to interact with over 60 Chicago-area practitioners. Breakout sessions covering the business of legal practice in small, medium, and large private firms, corporations, public interest entities, and government agencies will help you learn more about this legal career path you have chosen to pursue. You’ll meet in small groups with pairs of lawyers from the practice sectors you have selected. You can ask candid questions and find out from insiders the “real scoop” on what happens inside these different legal organizations. At the catered reception, you can mingle with lawyers from a wide range of practice types and try out your networking skills.

Here’s your chance to meet and impress legal employers who may have had little previous contact with or knowledge of Chicago-Kent. Last year several students took the opportunity to set-up informational interviews with contacts made at Professionalism Day. Professionalism Day is a powerful vehicle to drive home the message that Chicago-Kent students are bright, engaged, and excellent prospective employees. Help us spread that message by demonstrating your enthusiasm and interest in this profession by meeting, interacting with, and welcoming these representatives of the practicing bar.

The American Bar Association has criticized law schools for failing to educate students about the business of legal practice and has strongly recommended that schools incorporate into their curriculum an emphasis on the realities of legal practice. Chicago-Kent is a national leader in the creation of a professionalism program. All of the attorneys who have graciously agreed to contribute their time to this program fervently believe that students should receive this kind of information about the practice they are about to enter and are enthusiastic about spending time talking with you.

We are very excited about the caliber of speakers and the content of the program for this year’s Professionalism Day. Keep reading this section for further information about this important and innovative event.

FROM ASSISTANT DEAN OF STUDENTS JULIE FENTON

Welcome back! I’m back, too. It’s hard to come back, isn’t it? Somehow, the beginning of the spring semester just doesn’t feel the same as the beginning of the fall semester. Where is that energy, that enthusiasm, that feeling of love (O.K., so maybe I’m exaggerating a bit) for the law? Buried in the snow? Worn down by that series of flu bugs? Deflated by less than terrific grades? Don’t slog along unhappily on your own. Come see Ellen Berger or me. We have information on study strategies, time management, and relaxation that may help you through the tough, cold months of this semester. We can reduce your frustration level by helping you solve administrative problems. We’re also here to listen, if you simply need a sympathetic ear. We look forward to helping you put the spring back in your semester! Also, if you want a diversion from law school, come on up. I can bore you with baby pictures and regale you with tales of diapers, day care, and middle of the night wakings. Law school will seem like a breeze in comparison! (Actually, I may not be objective, but the baby pictures are very cute.) I look forward to seeing you and catching up on all that I’ve missed while I was gone.

Martin Luther King, Jr., Day Program - Tuesday, January 21 at 12:00pm

In recognition of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., Day, we will be hosting a showing of “Eyes on the Prize,” the award winning documentary on the civil rights movement. The first volume of the

Quote of the Week:
“Life is not easy for any of us. But what of that? We must have perseverance and above all confidence in ourselves. We must believe that we are gifted for something and that this thing must be attained.” -- Marie Curie (1867-1934)

CHECK IT OUT... NEWS FROM THE INFORMATION CENTER

COURT ALLOWS CIVIL RIGHTS APPEAL

Last week the U.S. Supreme Court ruled that an Alabama woman could file a new appeal in a civil rights case in which she had missed the original deadline for filing an appeal. The plaintiff had sued the Army in 1985 over being fired from a high-level civilian job, allegedly because of her challenges to the Army’s handling of discrimination complaints. After a bench trial in federal court in the District of Columbia, the judge still hadn’t issued a ruling more than five years later. Plaintiff’s attorneys asked the federal appeals court to order the judge to rule. Meanwhile, the time to appeal was long past. Plaintiff’s lawyers then asked the trial judge to issue a formal judgment from which they could appeal, but the judge refused, saying the existing ruling already contained such a judgment, a ruling upheld by the appeals court.
In the Supreme Court appeal, plaintiff’s lawyers argued that the judgment was not proper under the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure because the single sentence comprising the formal judgment was not on a separate page. In response, Justice Department lawyers conceded that the federal rules did indeed require judgments to be set forth in a separate document and asked the court to set aside the appeals court decision. The justices agreed, Goffer v. West, 95-461.

NEWS FROM THE CENTER FOR LAW AND COMPUTERS (CLC)

Time to Change Passwords
Starting this week, you may see this prompt when you log on: “Your password has expired. You have N grace logins left. Would you like to change your password? (Y/N)” You must change your password every six months (180 days). Answer Y, then enter your new password. You will be asked to enter it twice. See the guidelines below for ideas about passwords.
If you cannot think of a new password right when you log in, you can also change your password anytime. To change your password, select KENTNET Network Services from KENTNET’s DOS or Windows Menu, then select Change Your Password. You will be prompted for your current password; then you will be prompted twice for the new password. The first time you type your new password, the network establishes it, and the second time is for verification. Nothing will appear on the screen when you enter any of these passwords. If KENTNET asks you if you want to synchronize your passwords, press Yes.

KENTNET Password Guidelines

Your password
- must be at least six characters long and no longer than fifteen characters;
- must have at least one number or non-alphabetic character;
- should not be a word in the dictionary, a foreign word, or the name of a spouse, friend or pet. Do not use swear words as your password.
- can be any combination of letters or numbers; the network makes no distinction between uppercase and lowercase letters;
- may not contain spaces.
- should never be written down or shared with anyone.
- The CLC does not keep a record of your password; so make sure that you remember it.

If you are unable to access the network, call 906-5300 or stop by the CLC (room 703) for assistance.

FROM THE LAW OFFICES

LADR!
A PROGRAM FOR FIRST YEAR STUDENTS

INFORMATION MEETINGS WILL BE ON THURSDAY, JANUARY 16, 1997, at 3:00pm AND 5:30pm IN ROOM 580.

Becoming a lawyer takes more than sitting through three years of law school lectures. It involves more than learning how to cross-examine hostile witnesses, write persuasive briefs, and talk to clients. Reading about subjects such as legal ethics or law practice management is not the same as learning about them from experience.

Chicago-Kent College of Law's program, Litigation and Alternative Dispute Resolution (LADR), offers a unique educational experience. Throughout the program you will learn legal doctrine, lawyering skills, and professional values, and work in Chicago-Kent's teaching law firm, supervised by clinical professors who are expert practitioners and mentors. You will learn the art of lawyering through two years of intensive skills and clinical training. Your experience will teach you how to become a competent, ethical, and socially responsible lawyer.

No more than 30 first-year students will be admitted to the program based upon academic potential, law school performance, and reasons for entering the program. A faculty advisor will help the LADR students tailor their course selections to their particular career interests. Each program graduate will be awarded a Juris Doctor degree and a Program Certificate. Applications are due Thursday, January 23, 1997, at the start of the spring 1997 semester.

Only students who are currently first-year students may apply for admission to LADR.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION
Please attend the information meetings on Thursday, January 16, at either 3:00pm or 5:30pm in room 580. You may also contact Professor Laser, room 631, or pick up an application and brochure in room 600.

APPLICATIONS ARE DUE ON THURSDAY, JANUARY 23, 1997.

CHICAGO BAR ASSOCIATION

UPCOMING EVENTS...

LAW BOOK DRIVE: Don’t throw out those old and outdated law books quite yet! If the bookstore won’t buy them back or will only give you a few dollars for them, consider donating your old law books to the Young Lawyer’s Section (YLS) to send to students in Eastern Europe and Asia who are starved for American legal texts. A box will be set up outside the CBA bulletin board on the West side of the Concourse. Rather than throw out your old books or letting them gather dusts for years on your bookshelves (you really won’t ever open them again, trust me!), donate them to a worthy cause during this season of concern.

BLOOD DRIVE: The Law Student Committee of the YLS will be having another blood drive competition between Chicago area law schools. The tentative date is Wednesday, February 19. Students, faculty, staff, and alumnae/i are strongly encouraged to take part. The school that donates the most pints wins the honor of a display plaque and a FREE PIZZA PARTY for all those who participated. Let’s show the other schools that Chicago-Kent students get involved for a worthy cause! Mark your calendars today, and watch the Record for additional details.

MEMBERSHIP...
It’s not too late to send in your YLS/Law Student Membership form today to start reaping the many benefits of being a CBA member for only $8.00/year! If you need a membership form, you can stop by the CSO and get one from me, or e-mail me at “CRUNNELS” with your locker # and location, and I’ll leave a form for you within a week.

If you have any questions about the above events or membership information, just e-mail me @ “CRUNNELS”. Thanks! ---Charis Runnels, Chicago-Kent CBA Representative

GAYLAW

GayLaw is having its first official meeting of the semester on January 16 at 12 noon. We are still not certain of the room assignment, but will make it known by Monday or e-mail FBARNHAR or DKURTZ for more information at any time.

JOURNAL OF INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

The Journal of Intellectual Property will be handing out the packets for its Spring Writing Candidacy Program from 3:00pm until 7:00pm in the Intellectual Property office on the Concourse level. If you have any questions or need to set up an alternative pick-up time, please contact Scott Smilie (SSMILIE).

KENT ASSOCIATION OF TRIAL LAWYERS OF AMERICA (KATLA)

Each year KATLA sends a team to the annual ATLA National Trial Advocacy Competition, which will be held this year on February 21-23 in Detroit, Michigan. Tryout’s for the 2 teams that KATLA will be sending this year will be this Friday, January 17, at 3:00pm in the Courtroom. The try-out materials are on reserve on the 9th floor under KATLA. For the try-out, a direct or cross and an opening or closing should be prepared. Each person will only be given 15 minutes, so about 5 minutes should be accorded to the direct or cross and about 10 minutes to the opening or closing. If you have any questions, please contact Jen Hodel (jhodel). Good luck!!
PHI ALPHA DELTA LAW FRATERNITY

WOMEN IN LAW

Hello and welcome back to the old grind! Hope everyone had a relaxing holiday and is ready to get back to work (as if we’re ever ready for that).

We’ve got a couple of events to look forward to this semester. First is the Late-term Abortion forum that was originally scheduled for last semester. This forum is sponsored by WIL as well as The Federalist Society and The Health Law Society. It will be held on Wednesday, January 29 in the auditorium. Keep an eye on the Record for the time and for more details.

In the works is a forum on Children’s Rights. More details and date and time will be published later.

Also keep an eye on the Record for our first general meeting, time and date TBA.
2Ls, 3Ls, 4Ls
