FROM DEAN DEUTSCH

As most of you know, this Wednesday, February 5, will be our second annual Professionalism Day program. Day and evening classes have been cancelled for that day, so that second and third-year students may attend this full day of workshops and panel discussions designed to help our students know more about the expectations that employers have for entry level attorneys. Deans Abrams and Fenton, along with the rest of the staff in the Offices of Career Services and the Dean of Students, have worked diligently to plan a day that will be informative for everyone, whether you will be entering the work force for the first time, or have been working full-time for a number of years. This program, which originated in the Fall of 1995, was developed with input from faculty, other students, and from members of the practicing Bar, all of whom believe that Professionalism Day will encourage you to continue to develop an approach to the practice of law and to the workplace that reflects professional excellence.

More than sixty speakers have volunteered to participate in Professionalism Day. They represent nearly all aspects of the legal world—large, medium, and small law firms, the judiciary, government, corporations, not-for-profit organizations, and others. (If we had to pay for the number of billable hours represented by this group, the cost of this program would be astronomical.) Among the speakers, we have a number of distinguished alums who represent some of the best that the Chicago legal community has to offer. In fact, Fay Clayton '78, who will be leading one of the day’s breakout sessions, just last week received the Distinguished Leadership Award for 1997 from the American Jewish Congress, for her role as "champion for the rights of women and victims of housing, employment, and sexual discrimination." We were especially proud when, in 1993, Fay successfully argued before the United States Supreme Court that RICO legislation can be applied to conspiracies to blockade and disrupt health care clinics.

We also are quite proud that Chicago-Kent was the first law school in the country to incorporate professionalism into its curriculum in this way. Last year, Professionalism Day created a great deal of interest in the law school community and in the legal community at large. Law professors, administrators, and practitioners from across the country continue to write and call to get more information from us, and we know that Professionalism Days will be appearing on the calendars of many other law schools within the next couple of years.
The Record

February 3, 1997

I know that those of you who will be attending on Wednesday will appreciate the amount of thought, planning, and preparation that have gone into Professionalism Day '97. Constructive feedback from last year’s students has been incorporated into the program, so we anticipate that this year will be even better than last year. The faculty and I are committed to fostering professionalism. We believe that this is an extremely important element of your legal education, and we certainly hope you enjoy and learn from the day’s speakers. I look forward to seeing those of you who will be attending at the reception in the afternoon, when you’ll have an opportunity to meet some of our distinguished speakers and guests. And I hope the rest of you enjoy the one-day respite from classes.

FROM ASSOCIATE DEAN HOWARD CHAPMAN

Wednesday is Professionalism Day - All Classes are Cancelled

All day and evening classes are cancelled this Wednesday, February 5, 1997 so 2L day students and 3L evening students can attend Professionalism Day. Wednesday classes will be made up on Wednesday, April 30.

FROM ASSISTANT DEAN FOR ADMISSIONS MIKE BURNS

TO: All Continuing Students
FROM: Assistant Dean Michael S. Burns
DATE: Spring Semester 1997
RE: CRITICAL INFORMATION REGARDING:
MERIT/NEED-BASED AND MERIT-ONLY SCHOLARSHIPS

Continuing students may be eligible to receive both merit-only and merit/need-based scholarships.

Merit-only scholarships are based solely on your academic performance and do not require a financial aid application. If you are exclusively interested in merit-only scholarships, you do not need to apply for financial aid.

Merit/need-based scholarships are based on both your academic record and your financial need. If you want to be considered for scholarships based on financial need, you must submit the required financial aid application forms, even if you are not planning to take out student loans. In order to be considered for need-based scholarships, you must:

1) submit the Chicago-Kent Institutional Application on or before April 15, 1997, and

2) must have a Student Aid Report (SAR) on file in the Office of Financial Aid on or before June 1, 1997.

Students who do not meet these deadlines will not be eligible for need-based scholarships.

NEWS FROM THE CENTER FOR LAW AND COMPUTERS (CLC)

LEXIS-NEXIS and WESTLAW Printing Changes
Effective immediately, in computer labs 700, 760, 775 & 900, you will no longer be able to choose OPTION 1 (print to the attached printer) to print LEXIS-NEXIS and WESTLAW documents.

LEXIS-NEXIS
You MUST choose OPTION 2 -
Printed to the LEXIS-NEXIS printer assigned to your personal identification number.
WESTLAW
You MUST choose OPTION 2 -

If you wish to: Assign a destination, type: .he command and press ENTER:

You MUST choose either:

- STP Stand-alone Printer 9TH FLOOR DOCUMENT CENTER or
- NOW Print it Now on STP
- Then press Enter.

In both WESTLAW and LEXIS-NEXIS, if you choose OPTION 1, the following error message will appear:

The printer on this port is out of paper or is not connected to your computer.

Check the printer cable or network connection to make sure the printer is connected, or refresh the printer’s paper supply, and then resume the print queue.

RETRY CANCEL

Press CANCEL, and select OPTION 2 to print.

Looking for a Job? This HelpDoc makes it Easier:
Everyone who is interviewing right now should take a copy of our new HelpDoc, Creating Form Letters With WordPerfect 6.1 for Windows. This document covers the basics of creating and printing merge files and form letters, and has some pointers about printing in the labs and in Career Services. We also have a HelpDoc for users of WordPerfect 5.1 for DOS, and we're working on one for Microsoft Word users.

Back Up Your Work

At School:
Every semester, the CLC is asked to retrieve a corrupted or erased document file on a floppy disk. Usually it’s the only copy, and it’s due in five minutes. Sometimes the document cannot be retrieved. To avoid having this problem, we recommend that you keep two copies of all your work on two separate floppy disks. Floppy disks wear out with time and use. Please protect yourself and the time you invest in your work by making backup copies.

At Home:
From time to time, we see students’ entire law school work product vanish irretrievably when their hard drives crash. You should back up your computer’s hard drive regularly. Most importantly, you should put all your working files on floppy disks or some other media. If you don’t want to use floppies to do this, there are several parallel-port options from Hewlett-Packard and Iomega, including ZIP drives (each disk holds a hundred megabytes of data), JAZ drives (1 Gigabyte per disk), and tape drives like the Colorado T1000e (capacity runs from 800 Mb to 4 Gb per tape).

We hope you enjoyed the January Social at the Mercedez Cafe. February is here already and we have every reason to believe that the semester is going to fly by. Whether you are concerned about your personal scheduling or your student organization’s scheduling, now is the time to get organized. Let us know how we can assist you.

We would like to congratulate the Law Review staff and Beth Freemal, Editor-in-Chief, for recently receiving recognition in a national publication.
Old Business:
1. Spring 1997 Budgets and Amendments: Each Student Organization received a copy of the Spring 1997 Budget. Extra copies are available outside the SBA office, C88. We will e-mail you the WordPerfect file upon your request. In addition, the Amendment Schedule and explanation letter will be distributed no later than Wednesday, February 5. Amendment requests need to be filed timely to receive the appropriate consideration by the BOG. Should you have any questions or comments, please contact Kim Jessum, Treasurer, or Elayna Pham, Assistant Treasurer.

2. Financial Statement: The SBA Financial Statement covering the fall 1996 semester is available outside the SBA office, C88. The statement reflects the financial standing of the SBA as of the end of the fall semester. If you would like us to e-mail you the file, please request through SBAQ.

3. Law Week: Law Week is scheduled to occur during the week of April 6 - 12, 1997. The week will be filled with a variety of speaking events, student activities, and socials. Please forward any suggestions regarding themes and activities to George Petrovich and Carlos Poza, Co-Chairs.

4. Code of Conduct Committee: We would like to propose new language to the faculty and administration regarding the non-academic section of the Code of Conduct. If you would like to participate on the committee, or if you have suggestions, please e-mail Adam Weiss, Chair.

New Business:
1. Outstanding Student Organization Award: The Board of Governors recently approved a new SBA award. The SBA will present the Outstanding Student Organization Award annually. The Student Organization Committee is discussing the details for this year’s contest. Should you have any suggestions or questions, please contact Ivy Israel, Chair.

2. Barristers Ball: On April 12, 1997, the SBA will host the largest annual event. We are pleased to announce that the Barristers Ball will be at the Palmer House Hilton. The festivities will begin at 8:00pm. The event will end at 2:00am. We have not determined the ticket price. Please direct inquiries to Pegg Zilligen, Chair.

3. Surveys: As part of the self-study taking place Chicago-Kent, faculty committees distributed two surveys. The Advocacy, Ethics and ADR Committee distributed one survey to 268 randomly selected students. The Student Affairs and Diversity Committee distributed one survey to 454 randomly selected students. After reviewing both of the surveys and receiving assurances from the administration that the demographics information is for statistical analysis only, we support the worthwhile efforts. If you received a survey, please take a few minutes to complete the form. Your completed survey will provide a clearer snapshot of the students’ experience. The results of the surveys will be published to the student community during the fall 1997 semester.

4. Spring Polls: Because of the excellent response to the polls administered during the fall semester, we are developing the spring polls. We will ask you to rate the services provided by the Career Services Office and the Information Center. If you would like to participate on the committee, please e-mail Adam Weiss.

5. Graduation: May Graduates, the photographer is scheduled to return on February 25 & 26, 1997. If you were unable to get your picture taken last week, you have another chance. 6. February Social: The SBA February Social will be held on Thursday, February 27, 1997. The Social will begin at 7:00pm and will end at 11:00pm. We have not determined the location; however, please plan on attending this exciting event. Many of the SBA officers and representatives will be at the social. The social provides a great opportunity for you to meet the members of the student government. If you know of a downtown location that is large enough to handle one of our monthly socials, please e-mail Jonathan Gelperin, Chair.

7. Blood Drive: We support the Law Student Committee of the Young Lawyer’s Section of the CBA for sponsoring the upcoming blood drive. The blood drive is set for Wednesday, February 19. Please e-mail your questions to Charis Runnels, CBA Representative.

ANIMAL RIGHTS LAW SOCIETY

Things have been very active in the animal rights world during the break! With the renewed popularity in furs came renewed interest in protests resulting in the largest arrest of activists on this past Fur-Free Friday since the 1991-92 season! Almost 100 arrests in 14 cities took place as a result of the November 29 activities.

On October 29, a U.S. District Court ruled that USDA regulations issued under the Animal Welfare Act in fact violate the Act itself! If the decision stands, Congress will have to rework many of the provisions and include, for example, a section requiring provisions to be made for the psychological well-being of primates, dogs, and other laboratory animals.

Kudos go out to Judge Richard Saxton of Clinton County PA. He recently allowed the media to cover a case involving a juvenile who set a pregnant cow on fire. He stated, "too often the judicial system discounts crimes against animals when they instead should be heeded as serious warning signals of future violence against humans!"

Keep watching the Record for our upcoming meeting time and e-mail RVANDERV or YKATO to be apprised of upcoming events!
