FROM DEAN DEUTSCH

Thanks to everyone for making Professionalism Day '97 such a great success. Most of the feedback that I have heard from students is quite positive, and the constructive criticism from participants will be useful in planning for next year. There was an especially rich level of collective wisdom among our speakers and panelists last Wednesday, and we can be proud of the law school’s leadership in this educational program.

On behalf of the faculty and students, I would like to particularly thank the Career Services and Dean of Students staffs for all of their hard work and long hours of planning: Lisa Abrams (who hobbled in on crutches for the day), Julie Fenton, Stephanie Chu, Ellen Berger, Ann Rainhart, Victoria Bensley, Dana Beaird, Charis Runnels, Barbara Clemmer, Deborah Gutman, and LaJuanna Delaney all deserve kudos on a very successful program. Special thanks, too, for Professor Steve Sowle, who was a masterful moderator for the opening panel, and to all of the faculty members, staff, and student workers who helped to keep the day running smoothly. Thanks!

* * * * *

Just a reminder--I’ve reserved some time at noon and again at 5:00pm on February 26 to meet informally with small groups of students. There’s no agenda or set topic for these discussions--I’m just interested in hearing what you have to say about the law school, the legal profession, the world, or life in general. You’re welcome to sign up individually, or to get a group together. Please call or stop by my office (906-5010; room 330) and speak to Ms. Ada Jenkins, Assistant to the Dean, to sign up for a slot. I’d very much like to hear how you’re doing.

Have a great week!
PROFESSIONALISM DAY

Thank you!
The Professionalism Day Committee would like to extend a big thank you to everyone who participated in Professionalism Day this year. Our gratitude also goes out to the faculty and staff for their continued support and assistance. A final thank you to the following student volunteers who helped to make this day a success:

Program Evaluations
If you did not turn in your Professionalism Day program evaluation after the event, please bring it to the Career Services Office to receive your complimentary Chicago-Kent travel mug. Your feedback is very important to us in planning future events!

TUTORIAL

If you would like a brief review of the administrative law and research lecture presented to ALR classes recently by members of the Information Center’s reference staff—or just a short introduction to this topic—then you may want to come to this week’s tutorial on the CODE OF FEDERAL REGULATIONS (CFR), the official source of federal agency regulations.

The schedule for this week’s tutorials, which will also be given by the reference staff, is posted on the 9th floor bulletin board. You don’t have to sign up. Just show up by the reference desk at the scheduled times. If you have any suggestions regarding future topics or the times when they are offered, we’d like to hear from you. Send your comments to Lenore Glanz (e-mail LGLANZ).

U.S. ANTITRUST ENFORCEMENT MOVES OVERSEAS

Justice Department attorneys have recently been prosecuting price-fixing by foreign companies which sell products in the United States. On February 5, 1997, the Wall Street Journal reported that there are several pending court cases concerning Japanese fax-paper companies which had allegedly agreed to raise their American prices by 10%. According to the Journal, over 20 U.S. grand juries are investigating other international antitrust cases. Not all of the government’s attempts to protect U.S. consumers and businesses have been successful. In U.S. v. Nippon Paper Co., 944 F. Supp. 55 (D. Mass., 1996) a federal judge in Boston ruled that the Sherman Act does not apply to a conspiracy by foreign nationals on foreign soil. A ruling on the U.S. government’s appeal to the First Circuit Court of Appeals is expected soon. The Journal also points out competing viewpoints that the prosecutions violate other nations’ sovereignty and intrude into matters once handled in trade talks.

This is a newly created public policy and litigation center focusing on various welfare, economic development and housing laws that impact the poor. The Center is in need of volunteers who are interested in assisting the attorneys by researching issues for litigation and legislative or administrative regulation advocacy. The Center believes that the legislative advocacy will be a large focus of their attention over the next year, as Illinois creates and implements various new welfare plans due to the shift of welfare programs from federal entitlements to state block grants.
If you are interested in working in the fields of poverty law or governmental benefits, this is an excellent opportunity to learn about the numerous programs available.

THIS WEEK’S LEXIS QUICK TIP:

Try the following: Updating your research

Have you secretly wondered "what is the difference between Shepardizing and Auto-Cite and LEXCITE" but were afraid to ask? Here is the answer.

Shepard’s Citation is a service which will tell you:
1) is the case still valid? Has the case been overruled? Questioned? Criticized? Followed?
2) what other courts have cited this case in subsequent opinions and why?
3) if this case has been cited in law reviews, annotations or texts.

You can Shepardize a case from almost anywhere in LEXIS. Simply type:

to enter the Shepards Citation service.

Auto-Cite is a "citation verification" service. It will give you the caption and citation to you case in Bluebook format, it will give you parallel citations, and it will give the complete appellate history of your case. It will also mention if any other cases have weakened your case’s precedential value, and it will also mention any earlier cases upon which your case made a negative impact (eg, your case overuled an earlier one.)

To use Auto-Cite, you can type:

ac

from nearly any screen in LEXIS.

Lastly, there is LEXCITE. Use LEXCITE to find the most recent cases that have cited your case.
These are the cases that are too new to have been included in Shepards service.

To use LEXCITE, go to the library and file of your choice and type:

lexcite(500 us 1)

If you have any other questions about these services or LEXIS, please e-mail LEXISQ or call 1-800-45-LEXIS.

THE GODFATHER OF FOOTNOTES Footnotes are more popular than ever, and a Yale law librarian is to blame. Access The Wall Street Journal database (WSJ) and run the following search to read about the droll citation-counter who is credited with creating the new field of "legal citology."

DAYS NUMBERED FOR DEATH ROW LAWYERS? Growing along with public enthusiasm for the death penalty is public impatience with the appeals process. Access the Miami Herald database (MIA-HRLD) to read about efforts to phase out that state’s Office of Capital Collateral Representative (Fla. Stat. Ann. s 27.701).

ZEALOT FOR HIRE—REFLECTIONS OF A SUMMER ASSOCIATE A law student reflects on his summer working as a "zealot for hire" and on the popularity of meaner and meaner lawyer jokes. Access The National Law Journal database (NLJ) and restrict your search to the title field (ti) to read "Behind Lawyers’ Jokes."

LEGAL PIONEER PASSES AWAY A legal pioneer with a .293 lifetime batting average and seven Gold Gloves died on January 20, 1997. Curt Flood helped the St. Louis Cardinals win the National League pennant three times. But when he was traded to Philadelphia after the Cardinals lost the 1968 World Series, he refused to go. He challenged baseball’s reserve clause and took his case all the way the U.S. Supreme Court (Flood v. Kuhn, 92 S.Ct. 2099). Access The Washington Post database (WP) to learn what happened and read about Flood’s legacy to professional sports.

For Second and Third Year Students with a Minimum 3.3 Grade Point Average

Informational Meeting

On Tuesday, February 18, 1997, at 12:00pm in room 270, there will be a meeting for all students who are interested in externing for a federal appellate, district, bankruptcy or magistrate judge for the Summer or Fall 1997 Semesters. Professor Vivien Gross will describe the kinds of experiences a judicial extern will have in the course of a semester, as well as how to apply. If you are interested in a judicial externship but are unable to attend the meeting, please see Professor Gross in room 617.

A judicial externship enables a student to become involved in particular legal problems through research and writing, and to contribute to the resolution of those legal problems. Depending upon the judge, an extern may have the opportunity to observe the day-to-day routine of a judge and discuss with the judge and the judge’s law clerk those legal problems which attorneys face in their profession, and the specific problems which attorneys confront in their courtroom. Take advantage of this wonderful opportunity!

Application Process

The applications for the Summer and Fall Judicial Externships will be available in room 601, Law Offices, as of Friday, February 14.

Completed applications for Summer Externships should be submitted to Ms. Carole Ross, Secretary to Professor Gross, room 612 of Law Offices, by Wednesday, March 5, at 5:00pm.

Completed applications for Fall Externships should be submitted to Ms. Carole Ross, Secretary to Professor Gross, room 612 of Law Offices, by Friday, March 14, at 12:00pm.

ORGANIZATIONS

FROM MARK SCOTT, PRESIDENT OF THE STUDENT BAR ASSOCIATION

We are excited about all of the activities that are taking place at the law school. Many student organizations are working very hard to bring informative and interesting events to the community. Please take a few minutes each week and review all of the upcoming events. If you typically do not attend student-organized activities, please take the time this semester to show your support of the organizers by attending an event or two. You just might like what you see.
We would like to congratulate everyone in Dean Abrams' and Dean Fenton's offices for coordinating Professionalism Day. Judging by the comments, many people enjoyed the sessions and information shared by the practitioners.

1. Budget Amendments: Any student organization that needs additional financial assistance for the spring semester may submit an Amendment Request to the SBA. Amendment Requests are reviewed first by the Finance Committee. Then, the Finance Committee makes a proposal to the BOG for a vote of approval. The next deadline is this Wednesday, February 12 (for the February 19 BOG meeting). The March deadline is Thursday, March 6 (for the March 13 BOG meeting). Should you have any questions or comments, please contact Kim Jessum, Treasurer, or Elayna Pham, Assistant Treasurer.

2. Code of Conduct Committee: We would like to propose new language to the faculty and administration regarding the non-academic section of the Code of Conduct. If you would like to participate on the committee or if you have suggestions, please e-mail Adam Weiss, Chair.

3. Outstanding Student Organization Award: The Board of Governors recently approved a new SBA award. The SBA will present the Outstanding Student Organization Award annually. The Student Organization Committee is discussing the details for this year's contest. Should you have any suggestions or questions, please contact Ivy Israel, Chair.

4. Spring 1997 Election: The election will take place on April 9-10. Petitions will be distributed on Monday, March 3. Petitions must be returned no later than Wednesday, March 12. Candidate meetings will be on Wednesday, March 12. Campaigning begins on Wednesday, March 19. Please direct all inquiries to the Election Committee Chair, Gregory Casagrande.

5. Surveys (deadline February 12): As part of the self-study taking place Chicago-Kent, faculty committees distributed two surveys. The Advocacy, Ethics and ADR Committee distributed one survey to 268 randomly selected students. The Student Affairs and Diversity Committee distributed one survey to 454 randomly selected students. After reviewing both surveys and receiving assurances from the administration that the demographics information is for statistical analysis only, we support the worthwhile efforts. If you received a survey, please take a few minutes to complete the form. Your completed survey will provide a clearer snapshot of the students' experiences. The results of the surveys will be published to the student community during the fall 1997 semester.

6. Spring Polls: Because of the excellent response to the polls administered during the fall semester, we are developing the spring polls. We will ask you to rate the services provided by the Career Services Office and the Information Center. If you would like to participate on the committee, please e-mail Adam Weiss.

7. February Social: The SBA February Social will be held on Thursday, February 27, 1997. The social will begin at 7:00pm and end at 11:00pm. We have not determined the location; however, please plan on attending this exciting event. Many of the SBA officers and representatives will be at the social. The social provides a great opportunity for you to meet the members of the student government. If you know of a downtown location that is large enough to handle one of our monthly socials, please e-mail Jonathan Gelperin, Chair.
BAR & GAVEL SOCIETY

The Bar & Gavel Society Committee is pleased to announce that Kimberly Virginia Banks and Mark Scott have been elected into the Bar & Gavel Society as of January 1997. The Bar & Gavel Society’s membership consists of those who distinguished themselves by outstanding service to their fellow students, their school, and their community. We commend Ms. Banks and Mr. Scott on their commitment and dedication.

The Bar & Gavel Society Committee is now soliciting nominations for candidates for the June graduating class. We will go through the same process for the June class as we did for the December class. Accordingly, please submit nominations in writing (e-mail is sufficient) to:

Elayna Pham (EPHAM)
Chair, Bar & Gavel Society
Student Bar Association, room C-88

In your nomination letter, identify your candidate and write a brief statement about why you feel your candidate is deserving of the Bar & Gavel Society Award. You may nominate as many people as you would like. The Committee will select up to 9 recipients from the June class. We are soliciting nominations from the student body and faculty until the end of March.

ANIMAL RIGHTS LAW SOCIETY

Living in a cold climate as we do, antifreeze is a necessity for our cars. However, what many do not realize is that thousands of pets and other animals die each year from the toxic chemical, ethylene glycol, found in most antifreeze. Less than two ounces of this substance can kill a dog and only one teaspoon can kill a cat. I urge all of you to seek out non-toxic antifreeze, such as SIERRA brand this winter.

Please check our bulletin board on the concourse level for an article detailing a study between animal shelters and pediatricians which link child abuse and animal cruelty. In 88% of families where child abuse occurred, animal cruelty was also present. Plus, these abused children are far more likely to abuse animals and have this behavior escalate into violence against humans.

E-mail YKATO or RVANDERV with any questions you may have and watch this spot for news of upcoming events!
