Partner Down the Hall
In law practice, often the most efficient and effective place to start a project is with an experienced attorney who can proffer advice and background information.

At Chicago-Kent, the attorneys on the Information Center Reference Staff offer the “Partner Down the Hall” Program. The purpose of this program is to provide individual assistance to 2nd and 3rd year students in the context of actual written assignments. The staff will be available to assist in analyzing the problem and discussing research strategies.

To make an appointment, e-mail PARTNER. Briefly describe the problem you are working on and provide times most convenient for you to meet. Confirmation of your appointment will be made that day.

ExTEND Students
On Monday, February 10, eight students from the Information Center’s ExTend Program met with representatives of the library and the Black Law Students Association (“BLSA”). The students, most of whom are juniors or seniors from Chicago’s Crane High school, have been employed part-time by the Information Center since September 1996 to assist in scanning documents into the library’s image collection. Monday’s meeting provided them with an opportunity to gather in one place at one time (instead of two at a time for three-hour shifts), meet members of the library staff and the student body, and learn more about the image collection that they have been helping to build.

The students participated in a hands-on demonstration of eLOISe, and were able to retrieve documents themselves that might be useful to them in their high school classes. Simeon Davis of BLSA discussed the possibilities of law students’ assisting them with tutoring or mentoring. Further meetings are planned with the view of involving the students more closely with the law school and the Information Center.

For more information about the Information Center, visit our web page at http://www.infoctr.edu.

THIS WEEK’S LEXIS QUICK TIP: Better formatting with LEXIS

Try the following: LEXFORM

If you download a file from LEXIS and then import it into your word processor, you may think, "Yuck! The formatting is horrible!" The solution to this problem is to use a LEXFORM, a program that will strip out the extra pages and headers, change the word wrapping options, and help you produce a more useful product. LEXFORM is available free to everyone who has LEXIS version 4.06. Here is how LEXFORM works:

Open LEXIS. From the FILE menu at the top of the window, select LEXFORM.

This will open a box and ask you to fill in two lines: the name of the file you want transformed and a name for the new file you will create. Once that is filled in, click on the LEXFORM. Settings button to make sure you have the correct options selected. Selecting the "Auto line wrapping by word processor" option will let your word processor control the line length, font size, and page numbering.

After your options are selected, click on the OK button to return to the previous LEXFORM box, and then click OK to begin LEXFORMing your document.

Remember, if you have any LEXIS/NEXIS questions, e-mail LEXISQ or call 1-800-45-LEXIS, or visit us in the lab. LEXIS rep hours will be posted on the lan 700 bulletin board.

SPECIAL NOTICES

NATIONAL MOOT COURT COMPETITION

The Moot Court Honor Society is proud to announce yet another wonderful result in an interscholastic competition.

Jennifer Harpold and Caterina Tassone, third-year students and Moot Court Honor Society Board members, represented Chicago-Kent in the 47th Annual National Moot Court Competition Championships held in New York City from January 27 to January 30.

In New York, the team was up against 27 other teams from around the country, each of whom had finished first or second in their regional competitions.

Arguing with great skill on Monday night and great bravery on Tuesday (despite a panel of judges on Tuesday who seemed to have little familiarity with the law, the facts or the rudiments of appellate advocacy) the team made the "cut" and advanced to the "Sweet Sixteen," single-elimination round on Wednesday.

In that Wednesday evening round, Jen and Cathy, appearing before an extremely lively bench and competing against a very fine team from Texas Tech, argued brilliantly. So much so that when the panel of judges announced their decision they took the remarkable step of prefacing their decision with the statement, in open "court," that their true judgement was being "overruled" by the Competition's administrators. They went on to explain that the Chicago-Kent team had clearly won the oral argument from Texas Tech but, because the Competition's rules required that the scores of the teams' briefs had to be included in the final evaluation, Texas Tech would advance and Chicago-Kent would be eliminated. The judges went on to praise Cathy and Jen for their command of the law, the facts and their oral advocacy skills. As a footnote, Texas Tech went on to finish second over all.

Ms. Harpold and Ms. Tassone are to be congratulated for advancing so far in this extremely competitive and prestigious national competition. They are due even greater congratulations for upholding so well the goals and ideals of the Moot Court Honor Society and for demonstrating to the nation the quality and professionalism of the students of Chicago-Kent. They would also like to thank Professor Howard Eglit and all of the other Chicago-Kent Faculty who gave of their time to help the team prepare.

All prospective third year students (those who will be in their last two semesters of law school as of fall 1997) who are interested in externing with the Office of the U.S. Attorney for the Northern District of Illinois for the Fall 1997 Semester, should pick up their applications from Professor Gross in room 617. The primary goals of this externship are to provide the student with the greatest possible exposure to and participation in federal trial and appellate practice and to assist the office in handling its multitude of important cases. Completed applications must be received at the Office of the U.S. Attorney by Thursday, February 26, 1997.

Should you be selected by the U.S. Attorney’s office to receive law school credit for this externship, you must be enrolled in the law school’s Advanced Externship 4 credit hour program. Those applications will be available in late February. Professor Gross will answer any questions you might have, when you pick up your application.

JUDICIAL EXTERNSHIPS: SUMMER AND FALL 1997 SEMESTERS
For All Perspective Second and Third Year Students with a Minimum 3.3 Grade Point Average

Informational Meeting

On Tuesday, February 18, 1997, at 12:00pm in room 270, there will be a meeting for all students who are interested in externing for a federal appellate, district, bankruptcy or magistrate judge for the Summer or Fall 1997 Semesters. Professor Vivien Gross will describe the kinds of experiences a judicial extern will have in the course of a semester, as well as how to apply. If you are interested in a judicial externship but are unable to attend the meeting, please see Professor Gross in room 617.

A judicial externship enables a student to become involved in particular legal problems through research and writing, and to contribute to the resolution of those legal problems. Depending upon the judge, an extern may have the opportunity to observe the day-to-day routine of a judge and discuss with the judge and the judge’s law clerk those legal problems which attorneys face in their profession, and the specific problems which attorneys confront in their courtroom. Take advantage of this wonderful opportunity!

Application Process

The applications for the Summer and Fall Judicial Externships will be available in room 601, Law Offices, as of Friday, February 14.

Completed applications for Summer Externships should be submitted to Ms. Carole Ross, Secretary to Professor Gross, room 612 of Law Offices, by Wednesday, March 5, at 5:00pm.

Completed applications for Fall Externships should be submitted to Ms. Carole Ross, Secretary to Professor Gross, room 612 of Law Offices, by Friday, March 14, at 12:00pm.
FROM MARK SCOTT, PRESIDENT OF THE STUDENT BAR ASSOCIATION

My commitment to the Chicago-Kent student community has always centered around the idea of representing your concerns and harnessing the student voice. To fulfill these goals, it is necessary for us to periodically administer short, yet focused, polls that pertain to issues that affect us. We will unfold the next two polls during the first week of March. We are giving you the opportunity to play an important part in the decisionmaking process of this and future SBA administrations. Please take a few minutes and complete the requested information.

1. Budget Amendments: The next Board of Governors meeting is this Wednesday, February 19. During the meeting, we will discuss the Finance Committee's proposal on the Budget Amendments that were timely filed. We will contact each organization that filed an amendment with the results. The March Budget Amendment deadline is Thursday, March 6 (for the March 13 BOG meeting). Should you have any questions or comments, please contact Kim Jessum, Treasurer, or Elayna Pham, Assistant Treasurer.

2. Spring Poll #1 - Faculty Evaluations: At the end of each semester we are asked to complete faculty evaluations. We do not see the results of the evaluations. We are not aware of any follow-through that occurs. How important are these evaluations to you? On Tuesday, March 4, and Wednesday, March 5, we are going to give you the opportunity to comment on the evaluation process. If you would like to participate on the committee organizing the poll or if you have suggestions, please e-mail Adam Weiss, Chair.

3. Spring Poll #2 - Student Organization Formation and Funding: Currently there are forty (40) student organizations that request funding from the SBA. Funding requests over the last year ranged from $150 to $13,000 per organization per semester. Organizations requested funding for a variety of ideas including the following types of items: alumnae/i receptions, cultural events, international travel, religious events, and awards. On March 4 and 5, we are going to give you the opportunity to tell us what you think. We would also like to hear your thoughts as to whether there should be a higher level of scrutiny given to the formation of an organization. If you would like to participate on the committee organizing the poll, please e-mail Adam Weiss, Chair.

4. Outstanding Student Organization Award: The Student Organization Committee is finalizing the applicable rules governing the "Outstanding Student Organization Award." Please take the time to forward your suggestions or questions to Ivy Israel, Chair.

5. Bar and Gavel Society Nominations: The Bar and Gavel Society Committee is currently accepting nominations for the award. Please nominate graduating students who distinguished themselves by outstanding service to their fellow students, their school, and their community. Nominations must consist of a letter to the committee chair stating the reasons for the nomination, specifically referring to the candidate's law school activities, outside legal activities, and other services. Please address inquiries to Elayna Pham, Chair.

6. Spring 1997 Election: The Election will take place on April 9-10. Petitions will be distributed on Monday, March 3. Petitions must be returned no later than Wednesday, March 12. Candidate meetings will be on Wednesday, March 12. Campaigning begins on Wednesday, March 19. Please direct all inquiries to the Election Committee Chair, Gregory Casagrande.
7. February Social: The SBA February Social will be held on Thursday, February 27, 1997. The Social will begin at 7:00pm and will end at 11:00pm. We have not determined the location; however, please plan on attending this exciting event. Many of the SBA officers and representatives will be at the social. The social provides a great opportunity for you to meet the members of the student government. If you know of a downtown location that is large enough to handle one of our monthly socials, please e-mail Jonathan Gelperin, Chair.

AMNESTY INTERNATIONAL

AI will host a speaking engagement with Jeff Ballinger, founder and director of Press for Change. Press for Change is a non-profit organization which exposes the exploitation of workers by transnational corporations. The organization has campaigned against Nike’s labor practices in Indonesia, as well as other corporate giants around the world. Before founding PC, Jeff was an advisor to the AFL-CIO’s Free Trade Union Institute. The event will be held on Thursday, February 20, in room 520 at 5:00pm. Refreshments will be served.

ANIMAL RIGHTS LAW SOCIETY

Many people choose to give pets as Valentine’s Day gifts, and while given with the best intentions, these gifts often prove too difficult to handle. Within weeks, shelters are flooded with cats and dogs (many pure-breeds) that need loving homes. This is a great way to get a pet at a low cost and save a life at the same time. Please consider this if you are thinking of getting a pet in the next few months, and check-out your local shelter!

Upcoming events:
- (1) March 19 - Bake Sale (We need people to bake and sit!)
- (2) March 26 - Speaker- Steve Hindi (He flies his plane in the way of hunters to save birds’ lives)
- (3) April 16 - Movie Night (Any suggestions?)
- (4) April 23 - Speaker (Undetermined topic)

Please e-mail YKATO to help with any of these events or to offer any suggestions.

Also, we are planning to go to one of the many Animal Rights conferences this semester. Our choices include:
- (1) Land-Air-Water Conference at Univ. of Oregon on March 14-16;
- (2) "Speaking for the Earth" at Cornell on April 4-10;
- (3) International Wildlife Conference at Georgetown Univ. on April 8; and
- (4) Pace Law School Animal Rights Law Conference in New York on April 12.

Please e-mail RVANDERV if you want to attend one of these great conferences or need more information.

WOMEN IN LAW

Thanks to everyone who was able to come to the meeting on Tuesday last week. We covered a lot of ground and we’ve got lots of event in the works.

The most important news is that we are planning a midwest or Chicago-wide women’s conference for next year. What we need to do right away is form a core committee to get things started and head up the workings of the conference. It will be quite a commitment for those involved at that level, but it should also be rewarding. If you have any ideas about what you think such a conference should focus on, or if you think you might want to be on the core committee, please e-mail EPARKS.
We are further planning a children's rights forum for later in the semester. More information on that will be in future Record issues.

If you have any ideas for fundraising, please e-mail CRUNNELS, who is chair of that committee.

We have a video tape of our recent Partial Birth Abortion Ban forum. We are planning to view it together some time soon. Keep an eye out for time, date and place.

Watch this space for upcoming committee meetings and other events.
