For 1Ls considering applying for post-graduate judicial clerkships, an externship can be an important prerequisite to obtaining a clerkship.

This is an extraordinary opportunity which is worth the time you’ll spend applying. Students we talk to enjoy their judicial externships tremendously and find the experience invaluable!

CANADIAN FOREIGN MINISTER PRESENTS TREATIES TO LIR

The Honorable Lloyd Axworthy, Minister of Foreign Affairs for Canada, presented a collection of Canadian treaties to the Library of International Relations at a luncheon sponsored by the Chicago Council of Foreign Relations and the Canadian Club of Chicago. Before more than 350 guests, Minister Axworthy praised the mission of the Library of International Relations and commented that he “very much admired the work that you’ve done. NEWS FROM THE CENTER FOR LAW AND COMPUTERS (CLC)

Experiencing a problem with a computer or software?

There are several ways to get help.

- Students: Send e-mail to HELPDESK, see Melissa Mooney in Lab 700, come to the CLC offices on the 7th floor, or call 6-5300 from any house phone
- Faculty and Staff: Send e-mail to PCHELP, call 6-5300, or stop by the CLC offices on the 7th floor

If you know a particular CLC staff member who can help you, don’t hesitate to contact them directly, but by using the PCHELP (for faculty and staff) and HELPDESK (for students) e-mail accounts we can better track your problem and its resolution.
New on InnerKent: CLC Question and Answer Bulletin Board

• Why do students only get 400 pages of printing a semester?
• Why do students have to print all Lexis and Westlaw documents to the Document Center?
• Why do students have to change passwords every six months?

Get the answers to these questions, and ask your own, on InnerKent’s NEW CLC Question and Answer Bulletin Board.

All you need to do is pull up Netscape (in KENTENT’s Windows Communication Tools menu) and go to InnerKent (type CK in the URL field at the top of the screen), choose The Computer Support Forum under Computing Resources, and choose CLC Question and Answer Bulletin Board. (Or simply type http://ck/wwwboard/wwwboard.html in the URL field at the top of the screen).

• You can scroll through other students’ questions and the CLC’s answers to them as well as pose your own questions to the CLC.
• Post a question and check the bulletin board later at that same site for the CLC’s answer.

1L’s: The Brief!
One of the most tedious tasks you will face when creating your appellate brief is making sure the page numbers in the Table of Contents and the Table of Authorities match the rest of the brief. Most word processors have built-in utilities that help you create these tables automatically. Using these features, you can redo major parts of your brief without having to reformat your tables manually. The CLC has created HelpDocst that explain how to automatically create a Table of Contents and Table of Authorities in the word processors available on KENTNET. Pick up a copy in Lab 700, or in the CLC offices on the seventh floor. NOTE: Tables of Contents and Authorities should be created while you write the document, whether or not you use the automatic features.

Backups: Have you lost any data recently?
Several students every week ask the CLC to retrieve a corrupted or erased document file on a floppy disk. Usually it’s the only copy, and it’s due in five minutes. Sometimes the document cannot be retrieved. To avoid having this problem, we recommend that you keep two copies of all your work on two separate floppy disks. Floppy disks wear out with time and use. Please protect yourself and the time you invest in your work by making backup copies.

Don’t Send E-mail Chain Letters!
Several “chain letters” have recently been sighted on KENTNET. Besides being a hoax, these messages put a tremendous load on our e-mail system. Please delete these messages when you receive them, and do not forward them to anyone.

A "REASONABLE PERFORMANCE" IN LAW SCHOOL?

Lawyers probably spend more time debating the meaning of "reasonable" than any other single word. And, in contrast to many judges who require clerkship applicants to rank in the top 10 percent of their class, Judge Martin F. Boyce of the United States Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit asks only for a "reasonable performance in law school." So, if you can persuade Judge Boyce in a lawyerly way that your performance has been "reasonable," you may have a chance at a clerkship, whatever your grades. For more information, access the West's Legal Directory--Judicial Clerkships database (WLD-CLERK).

LAWYER BRINGS WASHINGTON TO ITS SENSES
The general public doesn't often think of lawyers as paragons of common sense. But, thanks to Philip K. Howard and his best-selling book, "The Death of Common Sense: How Law Is Suffocating America," that may change. Access The National Law Journal database (NLJ) and run the following search to read how this New York corporate attorney answers calls for common sense from lawmakers and lobbyists in Washington.

LITIGATION IN THE "VIRTUAL WORLD"
As commerce expands into cyberspace, so do legal disputes. To learn how the Internet has gotten "more litigious--and weird," access The National Law Journal database (NLJ). Use the author field (au) to retrieve an article by Wendy Leibowitz describing recent developments in the "modest jurisprudence of cyberjurisdiction."

MEDICINAL MARIJUANA & "FEDERAL FOOLISHNESS"
The controversy over the medical use of marijuana seems to have a lot to do with politics, and little to do with the welfare of patients. For one doctor's opinion on the subject, access The New England Journal of Medicine Online database (NE-JNLMED). Restrict your search to the title field (ti) to read an editorial titled "Federal Foolishness and Marijuana."

THE CASE OF THE PAJAMA-CLAD NEIGHBORS
Does loud music audible from a block away at 1:39am constitute an "exigent circumstance" justifying a warrantless entry by police? Fortunately for an "irate group of pajama-clad neighbors" it does. Use JUMP to retrieve a Sixth Circuit opinion that let the neighbors get their rest, but kept the dissenting judge up late worrying about the prospect of a "nuisance abatement" exception to the Fourth Amendment.

SUMMER REGISTRATION FOR IN-HOUSE PROGRAMS

Summer 1997 Applications Are Now Available in Room 600
Due No Later than Friday, March 14

Students who would like to learn how to practice law while they are in law school should apply for the in-house clinical education program, LAW OFFICES. Applications are now available for the summer. The summer applications are due no later than March 14.

Students may apply for Law Offices after they have completed their first year of law school (current first years may apply for the summer 1997 semester). To be considered for a place, ALL students must complete and return a completed Law Offices application. Applications must be turned in to the Law Offices receptionist in Suite 600 by the March 14 deadline.

Students who have previously taken or who are now taking Law Offices (called Continuing Law Offices Students) and who submit their applications by the due date will be given preference in their same practice group if availability permits. New students who have submitted their applications by the due date will be selected in the Law Offices lottery. The total number of available places during the summer semester is dependent upon the number of supervising attorneys in each practice group. The number of available new places is dependent upon the number of continuing students and has not yet been determined.

The in-house program is comprised of two components. One is a three credit fieldwork class graded on a pass/fail basis in which students work in practice groups on client cases or similar projects assigned to them by a supervising attorney. The fieldwork component also includes practice group lectures, supervising attorney conferences, section meetings, and various client interview experiences. The other is a graded classroom component for one credit.

There will be five in-house practice groups from which to choose - employment discrimination/civil rights with some general practice, criminal defense, tax (prerequisite is Personal Income Tax), health law, and mediation & other ADR procedures.

For more information, you may talk to the clinical professors who supervise the various practice groups - Professors Gonzalez (room 629) and Norton (room 623) for employment discrimination/civil rights with some general practice; Professors Kadish (room 613), Kling (room 625), and Thomas (room 609) for criminal defense; Professor Livingston (room 688) for tax; Professor Kentra (room 690) for mediation & other ADR procedures; and Professors Altman (room 611), Toolan (room 621) and Elster (room 692) for health law. JUDICIAL EXTERNSHIPS

Summer and Fall 1997 Semesters for Prospective Second and Third Year Students with a Minimum 3.3 Grade Point Average

A judicial externship enables students to become involved in particular legal problems through research and writing, and to contribute in the resolution of those legal problems. Depending upon the judge, an extern may have the opportunity to observe the day-to-day routine of a judge and discuss with the judge and the judge’s law clerk those legal problems which attorneys face in their profession, and the specific problems which attorneys confront in their courtroom. Take advantage of this wonderful opportunity!

Applications for the Summer and Fall Judicial Externships are available in room 600, Law Offices.

Completed applications for Summer Externships should be submitted to Ms. Carole Ross, secretary to Professor Gross, room 612 of Law Offices by Wednesday, March 5, 1997, at 5:00pm.

ORGANIZATIONS

FROM MARK SCOTT, PRESIDENT OF THE STUDENT BAR ASSOCIATION

If your student organization would like suggestions in planning an event, please remember that the Student Organization Committee is available for assistance. If you have budget constraints that prohibit your organization from putting together a speaker event, please contact me for suggestions.
The Board of Governors was not able to consider Budget Amendments during the meeting last Wednesday. We will hold a special meeting this week to address the submitted amendment requests. We will follow up with each organization on their respective request.

We would like to congratulate the International Law Society for the success on its annual Career Day. We would like to recognize Linda Babich and Janina Malone for their collective efforts in putting together the Career Day activities.

1. Board of Governors’ Vote Compendium: During BOG meetings, your elected SBA officers and representatives vote on a variety of issues. We are collating the voting records of each BOG member and will provide the Chicago-Kent community with the information. The compendium will include a synopsis of each issue considered, each BOG member’s name, the member’s vote, and the vote tally. Please direct inquiries to SBAQ.

2. February Social: The SBA February Social will be held on Thursday, February 27, 1997. The social will be at Lakeview Links, located at 3206 North Wilton (within a block from the Belmont station on the red and brown line Els). The social will begin at 7:00pm and will end at 11:00pm. Please direct inquiries to Jonathan Gelperin, Chair.

3. Fundraising Seed Money: Recently, a couple of student organizations have requested information concerning the seed money that we offer for fundraising events. We provided KATLA with a short term loan for their caps that they are currently selling. We would like to thank KATLA for fulfilling their contract by returning the funds in a timely manner. Remember that your student organization can also receive seed money. Please contact Kim Jessum or Elayna Pham for the details.

4. Spring Poll #1 - Faculty Evaluations: At the end of each semester we are asked to complete faculty evaluations. We do not see the results of the evaluations. We are not aware of any follow-through that occurs. How important are these evaluations to you? On Tuesday, March 4 and Wednesday, March 5, we are going to give you the opportunity to comment on the evaluation process. If you would like to participate on the committee organizing the poll or if you have suggestions, please e-mail Adam Weiss, Chair.

5. Spring Poll #2 - Student Organization Formation and Funding: Currently there are forty (40) student organizations that request funding from the SBA. Funding requests over the last year ranged from $150 to $13,000 per organization per semester. Organizations requested funding for a variety of ideas including the following types of items: alumni receptions, cultural events, international travel, religious events, and awards. On March 4 and 5, we are going to give you the opportunity to tell us what you think. We would also like to hear your thoughts as to whether there should be a higher level of scrutiny given to the formation of an organization. If you would like to participate on the committee organizing the poll, please e-mail Adam Weiss, Chair.

6. Outstanding Student Organization Award: The Student Organization Committee provided the BOG a preliminary review of the rules that will govern the "Outstanding Student Organization Award." The BOG will vote on the final set of rules during the March BOG meeting. Now is the time to forward your suggestions or questions to Ivy Israel, Chair.

7. Barristers’ Ball: The annual Barristers’ Ball will be on Saturday, April 12, at the Palmer House Hilton, located at Monroe and State. The Ball will begin at 8:00pm and end at 2:00am. The Barristers’ Ball Committee is making every effort to provide a full night of food, beverages, and entertainment. A food buffet will be available from 8:00pm until 11:00pm. Alcoholic beverages will be available from 8:00pm until 1:30am. Nonalcoholic beverages will be available from 8:00pm until 2:00am. We are providing three different types of music simultaneously. In one ballroom, a DJ will spin retro music from the unforgettable 70-80's. In a different ballroom, a DJ will spin dance tracks and high energy music made available during the 90's. In a foyer area outside the two ballrooms a pianist will play a variety of refined music spanning more than 70 years. The student's share of the event ticket will be $40. The SBA will subsidize the remaining full ticket amount. We promise to make this a memorable event that you will not want to miss. We will begin selling tickets around the middle of March. Please direct inquiries to Pegg Zilligen, Chair.

ANIMAL RIGHTS LAW SOCIETY

This week in the news:

A local animal rights group in Alabama is taking the state to court over a state law allowing the use of spears to hunt animals! Alabama is the only state to allow this cruel practice, and the group hopes to take the statute off the books for good.

In an effort to promote communication, we have set-up a "suggestion or comment" box on the door of room C76. Please feel free to drop off any ideas (or criticisms) you have for us.

We desperately need volunteers for our upcoming events, especially the bake sale on March 19. Please e-mail YKATO to volunteer - even if it's only for an hour!

Any members who wish to attend the Animal Rights Law conference in White Plains, New York, in April should contact RVANDERV ASAP!

BLACK LAW STUDENTS ASSOCIATION

In celebration of Black History Month, BLSA presents: "Can Your Zealous Advocacy Overcome the Great Racial Divide?"

Think about it...
Do you feel like your law school experiences have prepared you to go into a courtroom and zealously represent someone of the opposite race? Is race an issue that affects Zealous Advocacy? Does the justice system treat parties differently based on race?

Join BLSA and Prof. Marc Kadish on Tuesday, February 25, 1997, at 12 noon in the Auditorium to express your opinion and to hear the opinion of prominent local attorneys, including:

Eugene Pincham, former Illinois Appellate Court Judge;
Andrea Zopp, former State's Attorney, currently at Sonnenschien, Nath, and Rosenthal; Andrea Lubelfield, Public Defender in the Multiple Defendants Conflict Division; and Grand Sheik Clifford Jackson-Bey, Freelance Paralegal with the Law Offices of Chicago-Kent.

Prof. Marc Kadish will moderate the discussion.

WOMEN IN LAW

We are in the beginnings of planning a midwest or Chicago-wide women’s law conference for next year. What we need to do right now is form a core committee to get things started and head up the workings of the conference. It will be quite a commitment for those involved at that level, but it should also be very rewarding. If you have any ideas about what you think such a conference should focus on, or if you think you might want to be on the core committee (or involved on any level), please e-mail EPARKS.

We are further planning a children’s rights forum for later in the semester. More information on that will be in future Record issues. If you have any ideas for fundraising, please e-mail CRUNNELS, who is chair of that committee.

We have a video tape of our recent Partial Birth Abortion Ban forum. We are planning to view it together some time soon. Keep an eye out for time, date and place.

Watch this space for upcoming committee meetings and other events.
