Teaching Evaluations

Teaching evaluations will be distributed in classes this week to elicit students’ opinions regarding the quality of teaching at the law school. Instructors will review the responses to improve the quality of their instruction and courses. The evaluations are considered as one important factor in tenure, promotion and compensation decisions for full-time faculty and are used as a factor in determining the effectiveness of part-time instructors. They are anonymous and will not be available to the professor until after the grades for the course are recorded.

The Fall 1997 Registration Bulletin is available outside the third floor cafeteria and registration forms are available in the Registrar’s office. Obtain the Bursar’s stamp and submit your completed form to the Registrar according to the following schedule:

Additions and Corrections to the Fall, 1997 Registration Schedule and Bulletin

1. Additional seminars added:

   Fair Housing seminar, taught by Prof. Jim Huttenhower, will be offered on Wednesday from 4:00 - 5:50pm. The course number is 636-001-02 for day students and 636-051-02 for evening students.

   China Law, taught by Prof. Tarlock on Mondays at 4:00pm can be taken as a course or a seminar. The seminar course number is 682-001-02 for day students and 682-051-02 for evening students. If you take it as a seminar instead of a course, the paper will be more comprehensive and you will have to make an oral presentation.

2. Additional Legal Drafting sections scheduled:

   424-005-02 Legal Drafting: Commercial, Prof. Holmen, Monday, 4:00 - 5:50pm
   424-006-02 Legal Drafting: General Practice, Prof. Daley, Wed., 4:00 - 5:50pm

3. Final exam change: the final exam for Prof. Steinman’s Complex Litigation will be on Thursday, December 18, 1997 at 6:00pm, instead of Tuesday, December 16.

4. Bulletin page 3, item 4: priority codes #D1-E4 should submit their forms by Wednesday, April 16 at 11:00am and priority codes #F1-F4 should submit them by Thursday, April 17 at noon.

5. Bulletin page 5, first paragraph: the charge for participating in the ATP tuition plan is $45, not $40.

6. Bulletin page 8, last sentence. Prof. Pace’s name is Pace, not Face; I hope this will help me save Face with Prof. Pace.

7. Bulletin page 9, right column: Patent Law will meet from 3:00 - 4:50pm on Tuesday and 3:00 - 3:55pm on Thursday. The times are listed correctly on the class schedule.

8. Following is the course description for the Poverty Law seminar:

Poverty Law seminar, Prof. Levi, Tuesday, 4:00 - 5:50pm.

This seminar examines theoretical and practical issues relating to the ways in which law affects poor people. The seminar will initially review policy perspectives from the political left, middle, and right about the proper role of the government in addressing poverty and governing poor people. After a review of the theory, the seminar will address the practical issues that attorneys who represent poor people face in ensuring their clients access to justice and the justice system. Specific issues to be addressed include federal funding of legal services, court fees, private rights of action under federal statutes, welfare reform and workfare. Each student will be responsible for writing and presenting a paper that critically analyzes a practical issue that poverty lawyers face. Two credit hours.

9. Prerequisite Changes

Personal Income Tax may be taken concurrently with both the day and the evening sections of Employee Benefit Plans.

Civil Procedure is not a prerequisite for Evidence; this affects the 1997 Summer schedule.

Gift & Estate Tax may be taken concurrently with Estate Planning; this will affect the Spring 1998 schedule.

Closed Sections

If a section is closed when your registration form is processed, you will be registered for the alternate section you indicated, if any. A "W" may appear on your Program Notice next to the name of a closed course. This does not mean you are on a waiting list to enroll; the Registrar’s Office does not maintain waiting lists.

After Add/Drop Day, if a seat becomes available in a course that was previously closed, a notice will be posted on the second floor bulletin board and the seat will be filled on a first-come, first-served basis.

Registration tip: seats become available periodically in most closed courses between registration in April and the start of classes in August. Check with the Registrar occasionally to see if a seat is available in a section currently closed that you want to take. This also applies to the summer session courses.

Intensive Trial Advocacy

If you were selected to enroll in Intensive Trial Advocacy, you must list the course on your Fall 1997 registration form.

Courses Likely to be Offered in the Spring 1998 Semester

Attached to this Record is the list of courses likely to be offered in the Spring 1998 semester which was distributed with the preliminary fall schedule.

Notice to Students Taking Exams on Computers

If you are taking a final exam on a computer, you must obtain a copy of the Rules Governing the Use of Computers for Final Exams from the Registrar’s office and read it before final exams begin. It is essential that you thoroughly understand the computer exam procedures and the potential problems and risks associated with taking an exam on a computer.

The Harry A. Blackmun Scholarship Foundation, Inc. is pleased to announce that it will award a scholarship for the 1997-98 academic year.

The Harry A. Blackmun Scholarship Foundation, Inc., was established in 1994 by the law clerks to the Honorable Harry A. Blackmun, Associate Justice (Ret.) of the Supreme Court of the United States. The Justice's clerks intend it as a perpetual testament to his contribution to American jurisprudence, to his compassion and generosity of spirit, and to the inspiration he has provided to us through example and personal encouragement.

At the discretion of the Foundation, the Harry A. Blackmun Scholarship may be awarded to a student engaged in or about to engage in the pursuit of a Juris Doctor at an accredited law school in the United States. The recipient must also meet the following criteria:

1. must demonstrate academic achievement;
2. must demonstrate financial need;
3. must demonstrate the potential for making a contribution to society and the legal profession.

In addition, because the scholarship will be granted in honor of Justice Blackmun, all other considerations being equal, preference will be given to applicants with a significant tie to the Justice's home state of Minnesota.

Students wishing to be considered for this scholarship should pick up the very lengthy application form in the Office of Admissions and Financial Aid, Suite 230. The scholarship application process includes the scholarship application form, two personal essays, two letters of recommendation (preferably one should be a resident of Minnesota; and one should be a law school professor or dean), undergraduate and law school transcripts.

All materials should be mailed to the Harry A. Blackmun Scholarship Foundation, Inc., 118 West Mulberry Street, Baltimore, Maryland, 21201-3600, and must be received no later than June 15, 1997.

SPECIAL NOTICES

ENVIRONMENTAL AND ENERGY LAW CERTIFICATE PROGRAM
All students interested in finding out more about the Certificate in Environment and Energy Law should come to one of two introductory meetings on Wednesday, April 16. The first meeting will be at 3:00pm in room C20. The second meeting will be at 5:15pm in room C50. The Environmental Faculty will be there to explain and answer questions about the benefits and requirements of the Program.

INTERNATIONAL AND COMPARATIVE LAW CERTIFICATE PROGRAM
Each year an orientation meeting is held to go over the requirements for the International and Comparative Law Certificate Program. This meeting is now being arranged to take place during the week of April 14 (please check Broadcast Messages for an exact date). However, since registration will begin before the meeting, the following reviews the basic requirements. In order to qualify for the certificate, a student must take 14 credit hours of qualifying courses. Three of the following 4 core courses (3 units each) must be taken: International Law, Comparative Law, International Trade Law and International Business Transactions. In addition, a qualifying 2 unit seminar must be taken. In the Fall 1997 semester, the International Criminal Law and European Union Law seminars will qualify for certificate seminar credit. Qualifying seminars are offered each semester, and the subject matter varies. Advanced Research in International Law qualifies as a certificate course, but does not satisfy the seminar requirement. A substantial number of additional courses can be used to satisfy the general certificate requirements. In the fall, for example, this will include International Aspects of Intellectual Property Law, International Human Rights Law, Law of China, and Russian Legal Systems, in addition to the various core courses that are being offered.

ORGANIZATIONS

FROM MARK SCOTT, PRESIDENT OF THE STUDENT BAR ASSOCIATION

WOW..! What a week. We would like to thank everyone who worked so hard on making the Law Week events such a wonderful success. The following individuals certainly performed beyond the call of duty: George Petrovich and Carlos Poza (Law Week Co-Chairs), Helen Fabisiewicz, Mathias Knorr, and Nick Scarpelli. Special recognition needs to be given to Professors Lori Andrews and Richard Kling for their roles in the speaking events. We would like to thank Professor Richard Conviser for his continual efforts in helping students fulfill our social needs by sponsoring the Bash.

We hope you enjoyed the Barristers’ Ball. The Palmer House proved why they have been able to stay in existence for over 125 years. Needless to say, none of us could have enjoyed ourselves without the commitment and dedication of Peggy Zilligen, “Queen of the Ball.” In addition, we are very appreciative of the Barristers’ Ball Committee’s hard work in promoting and working the event.
Finally, the Spring 1997 Election results are in. We would like to thank all of the students who voted and completed the survey. We would like to CONGRATULATE everyone who participated in the Election. Although not everyone can win, it is great to see that there are many people who want to make an impact at Chicago-Kent. We would like to especially thank the Election Committee for their investment of time to insure that the process was seamless: Gregory Casagrande (Chair), Christopher Hage, Patricia Henley, Kim Jessum, Kristi Lupo, and Sarah Rewerts. We posted the 1997-98 Student Bar Association Board of Governors on the SBA bulletin board located on the concourse level. The results will be published in the next edition of the Record. We will also collate the information obtained in the survey. We will disseminate all of the appropriate information to the entire Chicago-Kent community.

ANIMAL RIGHTS LAW SOCIETY

Join us this Tuesday, April 15, at 12:30pm in room 370 as we host Steve Hindi of the Chicago Animal Rights Coalition. Steve has been instrumental in preventing planned bird hunts in Kendall County, Illinois, by taking to the air and flying in the paths of the hunters. He faces charges this month in state court, and is gracious enough to take time out of his busy schedule to come and speak with us. We invite all to come and ask questions. Food and drink will be provided.

Thanks to all who came to our movie break showing of "Fargo" and to all of you who helped in the planning!

Anyone interested in serving on the Board of Governors for ARLS for the next schoolyear should contact Rachel ASAP (RVANDERV).

Also, copies of the new April Newsletter are available on the bulletin board and in the Spak - 2nd floor.
