LEXIS/NEXIS

OFFICE HOURS

Monday 4-9  Karin Kiyabu
Tuesday 1-4  Karin Kiyabu
Wednesday 3-7  Pauline Afuso
Thursday 2-6  Pauline Afuso

* During office hours, the LEXIS Reps. will be in room 700 (the large 7th floor computer lab inside the Information Center) or at the tables directly outside the lab. If you have any LEXIS/NEXIS questions, e-mail LEXISQ or call 1-800-45-LEXIS. Also, you can visit our web page at http://www.lexis-nexis.com/lawschool/

Attention Graduates! If you missed LEXIS Day, please stop by Lab 700 or the Career Services Office to pick up your free gift from LEXIS.

For those of you who are not graduating but will be taking summer school classes, renew your password now to have access to LEXIS over the summer! Log into LEXIS and go to the CAREER library and the SUMMER file and answer the next 7 seven questions. Students who are working for a professor or who are on law review or moot court can also continue to use LEXIS during the summer. Please send your questions about summer access to LEXISQ.

THIS WEEK's LEXIS QUICK TIP:

Try the following: Shortcuts! Searching LEXIS the efficient way!

Power users can save time and money in LEXIS by "stacking commands"; that is, instead of typing one command or pressing a button and waiting for the next screen, savvy users can type out all their commands and send them at once to save time and money and to be more efficient.
For example, if you are searching in the GENFED Library and the COURTS file with this search:

judicial estoppel /15 (ada or americans with disabilities act)

and you want to find out if there are law review articles on the same topic, you can use this shortcut to save time. To run the same search in a different library and file, type:

.cl;lawrev;allrev;;.kw

Here you have sent through to LEXIS five commands in the same time it takes to send one. In that one line you told LEXIS to
1. Change Library (.cl)
2. Go to the LAWREV Library (lawrev)
3. Select the ALLREV (allrev)
4. Use the same search as before (;)
5. Display the results in "Key word in context" format (.kw)

Notice that all of the commands are separated by a semi-colon. This is a little tricky at first because you need to know what library and file you are going to. Try it a few times, it isn't that hard!

For more hints and answers to your LEXIS questions, visit the LEXIS Web Page for Law School Students at http://www.lexis-nexis.com/lawschool or e-mail LEXISQ. Have a nice week!

ORGANIZATIONS

FROM MARK SCOTT, PRESIDENT OF THE STUDENT BAR ASSOCIATION

We are very excited about the new SBA administration. Although there were fewer people running for a position on the BOG, there was a dramatic increase in the number of positions decided during the Spring Election. We were able to seat all available positions except for the two 4L Evening Representatives. If you will be a 4L Evening student in the Fall 1997 Semester, please consider petitioning into one of the two positions. The new BOG will decide the positions within a few weeks after the beginning of the semester. If you are interested, please pick up a copy of the SBA Constitution for the details.

We have established transitional meetings with the new administration. During these meetings, your incoming administration will have an opportunity to learn about experiences of the outgoing administration. Should you wish to attend one of the transitional meetings, please send an e-mail to SBAQ so that we can arrange your attendance.

We would like to congratulate Jim O'Brien and Fred Knape for their successful year in publishing our student newspaper, the COMMENTATOR. We find the COMMENTATOR to be informative and entertaining. We know that there is a high level of dedication and commitment necessary to consistently publish the Chicago-Kent news. Good luck next year.

THE FEDERALIST SOCIETY

Concealed-Carry of Firearms Panel - 4/23 in C50 at 4PM

For our final event of the year we are tackling an issue that everyone else carefully steps around - Firearms Legislation. What else would you expect from the Fed. Society? Specifically, legislation is pending in the Illinois General Assembly to allow citizens without felony convictions or serious psychological illnesses to carry a concealed weapon after they pass prescribed training. Moreover, there is proposed legislation in Congress to force reciprocity for other states’ concealed-carry permits. Currently there are nearly 30 states that have such permits. A knee-jerk reaction might be that the only thing worse than letting Illinoisans “pack heat,” would be to allow Floridians to carry a concealed firearm here. Our law school neighbor to the South, the University of Chicago, has published a report on the effect of these very state laws. John Lott and David Mustard determined that crime actually went down in every county and every state that passed concealed-carry laws. Can you believe it? Well please join us on APRIL 23 at 4:00pm in room C50 for a panel discussion of these issues. Attending will be Mr. David Mustard of the University of Chicago, Mr. James Valentino of the Illinois Rifle Association and two formidable Cook County State’s Attorneys (S.A. Dick Devine has stated he is opposed to any concealed-carry legislation).

Your unselfish dedication and hard work made Chicago-Kent’s 96-97 school year a memorable, educational, and successful one. We set a high goal for any and all upcoming student organizations. Thank you.

Re: Summer 1997 Employment Status Survey

Date: April 1997

* What percentage of 1Ls have legal vs. non-legal summer jobs?
* How many Chicago-Kent students participate in study abroad programs?
* How do most 2Ls find their summer clerking jobs?
* When (what month) do most students find their summer positions?
* What's the average hourly salary for summer clerking jobs?

If you are like most law students, you are anxious to know the answers to these questions! And you are especially interested in how Chicago-Kent students are faring in the summer employment market-place.

We want to be able to provide the very best answers we can . . . and to do that, we need your help. That's why we're asking all first and second year Chicago-Kent students to complete the enclosed survey telling us how they are spending the summer of 1997.

If you've found a summer position (a paid OR volunteer position, legal OR non-legal), the survey asks you to share information about the type of job you've found and how you found the job. We've also asked you to share salary information, so that we have a better idea of today's clerking salaries.

If you're enrolled in summer school, a clinical program or a study abroad program, please let us know.

If you are still looking for a job, we need to know that you're still looking. Tell us about the type of position you are seeking. Consider making an appointment with one of our staff members to discuss job search strategies. Be sure to regularly check the listings in the Career Services Office--summer listings come in both before and after finals!

Please be assured that the information you provide will remain confidential. It is used solely to compile general statistical information.

Help us help you! Complete the enclosed survey and let us know how you are spending the summer. Please return the survey to the Career Services Office by Monday, May 5th.

We look forward to hearing about your summer plans! Thanks for your help!
