CHARLES A. BASTAR
Died August 1, 1917
It is with regret that we announce the death of Charles A. Bastar, ’19, 4010 W. 12th Street, on August 1, 1917. He is remembered for his splendid work in the Freshman year.

ALUMNI NOTES.
Morton L. Roberts, ’00, has been elected commander of the Veteran Corps, Illinois National Guard, for the ensuing year. Paul R. Wick, ’16, was married an June 23rd, to Miss Alma H. Korn. They will reside at 2331 Walton Street.

The office is beginning to be a busy place. New faces are appearing and the enrollment for the ensuing year has started and the number bids fair to out-number the record of last year.

The Transcript, 1917, is the first year-book published by the student body of Chicago-Kent College of Law since 1896. It was published under the direction of this year’s Senior class. The book is dedicated to the Hon. Edmund W. Burke, who has been Dean of the College for the past twelve years. The dedication reads as follows:

“Our beloved Edmund W. Burke, a lawyer learned in the law, a jurisprudential in his judgments, a man marked with many merits, a gentleman of generous justice, a scholar of the Alma-Kentanbros: of frank and friendly force, and an educator of esteemed eminence, this first edition of The Transcript of the Chicago-Kent College of Law is affectionately and respectfully dedicated.

“Ind jade Burke we find inspiration to study, to diligence, to achievement, and to fame. In our life of sympathy and understanding, affection and confidence. As Dean of the College for twelve years he has shown his sympathy in preparation for the law and for ability in its practice. He represents to the students of the College, the highest traditions of the law, the noblest aims of education, and the generous soul of honor.

“May he live long and usefully to gladden the hearts and train the minds of future generation of students in our College, and may he in that distant day to come find his richly earned reward not in the eternal realms above but also in the affectation and venerating memories of thousands of Kent men.”

A brief history of the college by the dean is followed by individual pictures of the faculty with a short sketch of their educational lives.

The book dwells chiefly with the Senior class, which includes the class officers, the history of the class, the class prophecy, individual pictures of each member, snapshots, and jokes in the class room for the past three years. The Junior and Freshman classes are represented by group pictures, their class officers and the lists of members.

The organizations of the college comprise six fraternities, one sorority and a debating society. The department of public speaking and the Chicago-Kent Bulletin, the college newspaper, is given mention.

The latter part of the book includes alumni notes, wherein about one hundred seventy-five graduates are mentioned. Personal cards of about fifty attorneys are followed by the graduating classes of 1915 and 1916. A list of the post-graduate class for 1917 and individual pictures of the Senior class. The humor section comprises jokes, verses, snapshots and cartoons. Jokes and verses are scattered throughout the entire book.

The purchase price for The Transcript is $2.00 and can be obtained from J. Samuel Council, the editor-in-chief, 116 South Michigan Avenue.

The present war is beginning to affect both the American people and American institutions in varying degrees. How will this vast conflict affect our universities and colleges is a vital question of the day. The returning veterans are the ones who are going to make up the major portion of our army. But these men, as any other men, are the ones who are going to be the leaders in the future. How are they going to be influenced by their years of war? Will the percentage of attendance gradually decrease? And what about the coming Freshman class of Chicago-Kent College of Law—the class of 1920?

Probably a larger percentage of young men studying to be lawyers will go to war than any other class of men. This has been true in the history of the former wars of our country. The lawyer has been one of the first to respond to the call of his country. A lawyer may be a man with an LLB who goes to his country’s defense and returns with an unblemished record.

The young men, between 18 and 25 years, are the ones who have to stay at home; as is always true in the history of the former wars of our country. The lawyer has been one of the first to respond to the call of his country.

It is with regret that we announce the death of Charles A. Bastar, ’19, 4010 W. 12th Street, on August 1, 1917. He is remembered for his splendid work in the Freshman year.

IN RE MATRIMONY

Harry E. Taylor, '18, was married to Miss Suzanne Stark, of Indianapolis, at the Spanish Hall, Monday, July 4th. Of course "Dick" always did believe in celebrating the Fourth.

Mr. Taylor edited the blank column of the Bulletin, which was a feature of the past year. At present two papers in their infancy are prodigies of his, one for the officers in training at Fort Benjamin Har­rison, Indianapolis, and the "Spectator," published in the interest of the families of northern Indiana. With the real newspaper ability "Dick" possesses these ventures should grow into something big.

Knowing that you are interested in a live proposition to reach the trade of the six hundred students attending Chicago-Kent College of Law, we invite you to become an advertiser in The Chicago-Kent Bul­letin, which is published in the interest of these students.

THEY HAVE CALLED "TAPS."

There is something missing now as one enters the Lake View Building, a familiar face is gone and no more do we hear the "Good Night, gentlemen," as one of our "gentlemen" steps into the darkness. "Cap" Keating, after having been in the employ of the owners of the Lake View building for four years and having attained the position of chief of staff died Wednesday, August 1, 1917. His face was a well known challenge to the students and he has interested many with his stories of when he was with the "regulars" in the west in the days when there was real "Injun" fighting. "Cap's" passion was the U. S. A. and his pride was that his four sons are serving the U. S., two being in France at the present time. He was a character distinctly a type which appealed to and interested the students; and he en­joyed the students even if they did cause him lots of worry, for as he said "you can never tell what they are up to!"

"Cap" died a real soldier sticking to his post of duty until within three days of the end. Our tribute to him.

A NIGHT AT SUMMER SCHOOL

(WITH APLOGIES TO THE LINE.)

6:35—Coming late. Wondering if any one has answered "Present" for you.

6:40—Lecture for close to lesson. Finding you studied wrong text.

6:45—Prof. calls the name of the student just ahead of you on the Roll. Grab­bing nearest text-book.

7:00—Unheedful of Judge Welch's joke in efforts to devour lesson.

7:05—Called on. Counter question to stall for time. Wondering whether the student in front or one in rear is giving you correct answer. Give foolish reply.

7:10:30—Dreaming of "date" you have that evening.

7:35—Fearful that class will be late in getting out.

7:40—Heaping maladies upon the head of Saff for his foolish questions.

7:45—"That will be all this evening, GENTLEMEN."

The Twenty-ninth Annual Commencement Exercises of the Chicago-Kent Col­lege of Law were held at the Auditorium Theatre, Monday, June 11, 1917, when one hundred and fifty members of the Class of 1917 were awarded the degrees of Bachelor of Laws and ten other graduate students received the degrees of Master of Laws.

The commencement exercises were: The address, "The Lawyer Among Lawyers," by Hon. Evan A. Evans, was an address especially commendable for its clearness, forcefulness and high moral tone. It was a masterfully address and gave evidence of advanced ideas of the men who are our "real lawyers" and who become "Lawyers Following Lawyers."

The Hon. Edmund W. Burke, Dean of the College, gave a few words of well chosen address to the graduating members and then conferred the degrees. After the conferring of degrees the winners of prizes were announced.

Henry Pendleton Bronson won the Thomas A. Moran Prize, which is awarded to the member of the Senior class, who, during the school year, ranks highest, both in proficiency and attendance.

Tim Mesiah Doggett won the complete set of "Cyc" presented by the American Law Book Co., to the student taking the highest scholarship honor for the period of his Senior year.

Hargrave A. Long won the prize of $50.00 in books given by Callaghan & Co., Law Booksellers, for the member of the third year class, who, during the third year, prepares the best legal brief, on any subject accepted by the faculty.

Arthur I. Ennis won the $50.00 prize in law books given by the Messrs. T. H. Flood & Co., Law Booksellers, for the best thesis prepared by any member of the third year class on some legal question ac­cepted by the faculty.

The prize winners in the other classes will be announced through the pages of the Bulletin as soon as the winners are decided upon.

CITY HALL, SQUARE BLDG.
Yablunko sights for the opening of the Fall session. He says he is lonely without having 40 pages of law to study each evening.

Sam Council is now identified with the Fidelity and Casualty Co. of New York. Sam sure did some splendid work on that year book.

Jos. A. Sullivan and J. Sucherman, both '18, successfully passed the recent Bar Exam.

Si Young has returned from the classic confines of Wenona, Ill., and is again ready to receive subscriptions for the "World's Greatest Law Bulletin." Come through, ye students, one and all.

Dan Ryan, '17, is connected with the National Surety Co.

Miller is a close student of economics and philosophy. His dissertation on the Fidelity and Casualty Co. of New York. Sam sure did some splendid work on that year book.

Quite a few of the students can be found any day at the 51st Street Beach. Dowd, Dambursky, Wassburg, Griffith, Young, Riodan and Piercucini are among the life savers at the beach at the Chicago Beach Hotel.

Theo. Levine, '18, has been promoted corporal in the U. S. Marines at Port Royal, S. C.

Phillips and Junckerman staged a lively debate a short while ago on the benefits of Socialism.

Keplinger has left the South Side and now watches the fair ones as they travel down Wilson Avenue toward the beach.

"Dixie" Thornton has been rusticking amid the pines of northern Michigan. Ill health prevented him from taking the July Bar Ex.

Among those whose address for the next few months will be Rockford, Ill., are Henry J. Heart and John Michaels.

Where were you in the draft?

Many are called, but few are chosen.

Dust off the Khaki, boys. It is going to be a popular color this Fall.

Fowler has joined the regulars. He wanted to get over there while there was something to do.

Bert Croson is now Assistant Corporation Counsel, under Saml. Etleson, a former Kent graduate.

Several of the boys are receiving invitations to a house party at the outskirts of Rockford, Illinois, which will include all of the indoor and outdoor sports that will help us "sock the Kaiser." Conditions are that the boys be physically fit.

Several of the students have applied for places in the second Officers' Reserve Training Camps, to start August 27th.

Ye Editor is hiking back to the land of the Buckeyes to take on some home province and then get under the banner of your busy Uncle Sam.

John Philip, whose genial smile greets the boys as they purchase their books, is back from a trip through the Dells of Wisconsin.

The summer school has been very well attended. The public Speaking Class has been running along nicely and doing splendid work.

Peters can be found any Thursday evening at Washington Park, listening to the band and also looking over the fair ones.
