Societies

Grace Cooper

Follow this and additional works at: https://scholarship.kentlaw.iit.edu/cklawreview

Part of the Law Commons

Recommended Citation
Grace Cooper, Societies, 5 Chi.-Kent L. Rev. 4 (1926).
Available at: https://scholarship.kentlaw.iit.edu/cklawreview/vol5/iss3/4

This Notes is brought to you for free and open access by Scholarly Commons @ IIT Chicago-Kent College of Law. It has been accepted for inclusion in Chicago-Kent Law Review by an authorized editor of Scholarly Commons @ IIT Chicago-Kent College of Law. For more information, please contact jwenger@kentlaw.iit.edu, ebarney@kentlaw.iit.edu.
DELTA CHI NOTES.

Members of Delta Chi are now burning the midnight oil, poring over copious volumes concerning Evidence, Pleadings, Contracts and all the rest. Mid-semester finds everyone endeavoring to maintain a good average and to keep up the standards of the Fraternity.

On November 6th a dance was held in collaboration with the Chicago University Chapter, at the Wedgewood Hotel. A number of Delts from Illinois who attended the Chicago-Illinois football game were guests for the evening. It was easily the most successful social event of the season, and everyone who attended had a most enjoyable time.

Delta Chi announces with pleasure the pledging of the following men: Stanley Marcem Hicks, Harry Chambers Hodges, James Moyer, Carl A. Tolin, Archer A. St. John, Louis A. Traks, and David Skalitzky. The chapter is proud of its pledges and is looking forward to initiations.

ATTENTION KAPPAS!

Watch for the announcement of the date of the 18th Annual Celebration of FOUNDER'S DAY, which will be posted on the School Bulletin Board, shortly after the publication of this issue. This celebration will be in the form of a joint luncheon participated in by all seven chapters of Chicago: Northwestern, Chicago, DePaul, Loyola, Chicago Law, John Marshall and Chicago-Kent College of Law. Mrs. Alice Eggerston, a Kent graduate, and one of the founders, will deliver a short talk on the history and founding of the Sorority.

PHI DELTA PHI.

On October twenty-ninth the active and the alumni members of Fuller's Inn met at the Bismarck Hotel for the greatest and peppiest smoker of the year. The cause of the hilarious assembling of the clan was the initiation of Harold Lewis.

Watch for the announcement of our big dance. The renowned annual party which has always been a triumph for Phi Delta Phi will be held sometime in December as the culmination of our best and most successful year. That is—the best so far; nineteen-twenty-seven will speak for itself.

ALPHA SIGMA IOTA FRATERNITY

The same predestined reason that has been given in the past for the cause of the many social affairs that peculiarly attach themselves to the members of the Alpha Sigma Iota Fraternity at this time of the year will have to be relied upon once again—"the lure of the fiddler"; for it has overtaken and conquered and beat into submission beyond any reasonable doubt every member of the Fraternity.

The results are:—the Annual Fraternity Dance to be held at the Hotel Belmont on December 11th, 1926 and the New Year's Eve Dinner Dance, sponsored by the Alumni Chapter, at the Belden Stratford Hotel, on New Year's Eve, of course. Both of these promise to be the outstanding social events of the year, as usual, and are being afforded keen interest and highly warranted support and co-operation by all concerned.
To those who have attended the affairs given by the Fraternity in the past, it is needless to say that the music will be of the best, the ball-rooms the coziest, and the girls the prettiest, and — but what's the use since we're all going to be there, anyway?

The November Bar Examination is over but at the time of this writing the results have not been definitely ascertained as to the success, and we hope that such it was, of our eligible candidates. The record made by our boys in the July Exam, when all of them were successful, is an enviable one and should remain such, if possible. Here's hoping.

A CO-ED'S CHRISTMAS CAROL.

I'm angry, of course, I've a right to be so
For you kissed me Beneath the mistletoe!

I'm furious, raging, As mad as can be—
A little at you, But mostly at me.

And the horrible reason Is I find, That, really and truly, —I didn't mind!

Signed: Grace Cooper.

HEARD IN JUDGE CURRAN'S COURTROOM.

First lawyer, explaining preponderance of evidence: "You take two loads of hay which weigh exactly the same, remove a wisp of hay from one pile and put it on the other. The largest pile of hay wins. That, gentlemen, is preponderance of evidence."

Second lawyer: "This, however, is a case dealing with cheese. You take two cheeses, remove a small piece from one and put it on the other, and the big cheese wins."

ATTENTION CO-EDS!

We are still getting together for dinner on Tuesday evenings—five-thirty, at Brennan's Restaurant, 118 North Wells Street. Accept no other invitations for Tuesdays. See you there!

BRIGHT SAYINGS FROM THE SECOND FLOOR FRONT.

Mr. Block: "Did you hit the dog with a feather?"

Mr. Slattery: "You have heard the witness testify that she was hit in the alley."

Miss Cooper: "I went up to his office. . . Shall I go on?"

Mr. Carmichael: "What was your capacity on that day?"

Mr. Haskell, in answer to the question "Do you work?" "I am an attorney."

Mr. Libman, in reply to a student's question which had already been answered by the instructor: "I think I can set him straight on that."

Miss Cooper: "What kind of samples were you delivering, Mr. Bailey, which made it necessary for you to go down dark alleys?"

Mr. Libman: "Your Honor! I object!!"

Judge Higgins: "On what grounds?"

Mr. Libman (after conferring with the plaintiff): "That is not true! My client says he never signed that lease!"

Mr. Roos: "Oh yes, and then they passed the Statutes of Mortmain, the Magna Carta, etc."

Mr. Jacoby: "Can you issue stock on a man's past experience?"

Mr. Thompson: In answer to an instructor's question: "Oh my, yes! Sure!"