February 1927

Societies

Grace Cooper

Follow this and additional works at: https://scholarship.kentlaw.iit.edu/cklawreview

Part of the Law Commons

Recommended Citation
Grace Cooper, Societies, 5 Chi.-Kent L. Rev. 10 (1927).
Available at: https://scholarship.kentlaw.iit.edu/cklawreview/vol5/iss5/6

This Notes is brought to you for free and open access by Scholarly Commons @ IIT Chicago-Kent College of Law. It has been accepted for inclusion in Chicago-Kent Law Review by an authorized editor of Scholarly Commons @ IIT Chicago-Kent College of Law. For more information, please contact jwenger@kentlaw.iit.edu, ebarney@kentlaw.iit.edu.
Alas! We came, we saw, we gloried in our observations, and now to our sorrow, we must depart. Yet it is not without a certain amount of gratification that the graduating members of the Alpha Sigma Iota Fraternity bid adieu to their brethren and their friends. Gratification — not only because they have satisfactorily completed the course prescribed, but also because they have faithfully and diligently contributed to the numerous activities of the Fraternity in the semester last past, thus giving the boys a flying start to what promises to be the outstanding year in the history of the Fraternity.

Let us reminisce: the social affairs given in the last few months were, as predicted, unprecedented; the newly installed officers have already proven their worth; our fond pledges remain delightfully healthy and are unquestionably innocent of what the immediate future holds in store for them; and lastly, the existing bonds of brotherhood have become more binding than ever before — like unseverable bands of steel.

With all that behind us and the cruel world, with a horde of cracker and cheese sandwiches before us, we, the graduating members of the Alpha Sigma Iota Fraternity, bid ye, our brethren, our fond farewell and depart with the hope that the time is not far distant when we shall all join hands once more as members of the same chapter — the Alumni Chapter.—George M. Schatz.

PHI DELTA PHI

Fuller’s Inn of Phi Delta Phi has lost several members by reason of the recent graduation. “Larry” Emmons, “Tom” Gilmore, “Reggie” Osgoodby and “Mickey” Wells, have departed from the ranks of the undergraduates after three years of activity with the fraternity, and are now preparing themselves for the March Bar examination. The sincere wishes of the fraternity go with these men.

Now that we have acclimated ourselves to the conditions of this new semester, we are in a position to get firmer grip on the coveted scholarship cup which is now in our possession by reason of our relatively high standing on the last semester of last year. And this is a notice to the other fraternities as Kent, that they will have to go some to make us relinquish our grasp of the goblet.

On Friday, January 14th, the Inn held a smoker and bridge party at the Hotel Bismarck, which was attended in large numbers by brothers, pledges, and rushees; and on Wednesday evening February ninth, several guests were entertained at another smoker given by the Inn at the same hotel.
KAPPAS TO GRADUATE

Alpha Chapter of Kappa Beta Pi International Legal Sorority will be represented in the February graduating class by many of its most brilliant and active members: Gwendolyn Ostrom, Dean of the Kent Chapter; Helen Goltra, Chancellor; Barbara J. Matousek, one of the directors; Kate C. Zoot, Associate Women’s Editor of the Review; and Frieda Weinman, who has done much to give countrywide notice to our members through securing publication of notices of important meetings in the Chicago newspapers, will all wear caps and gowns in this month’s ceremony. “Congratulations” is a trite word with which to express our admiration for their achievement.

We are not, however, losing these members. They have promised that relief from daily classes will only give them more time to devote to the interests of Kappa Beta Pi.

Those of the Kappas who have lived the twenty-one annus domini which render them of legal capacity to take the March bar examination, will, we are sure, carry on the high standard of Alpha Chapter.—Don’t cram so hard during the next month that you have no time to keep your promises to continue the work you have so effectively begun in our group at Kent.

Grace Cooper, Vice-dean.

PHI ALPHA DELTA NOTES

The December, 1926 initiates recently presented the Chapter with a clock, which is both ornamental and useful, particularly the latter. When the brothers become deeply absorbed in a case cited for outside reading time slips away so rapidly that it is not, or at least in the past has not been unusual for six-thirty to arrive and depart unannounced and unseen. Now, with our recorder of the hour on the job, P.A.D.’s will doubtless always be on hand for roll-call.

With the semester examinations an unpleasant memory the Chapter is settling back to normalcy. A series of smokers are being had, at which Phi Alpha Delta is becoming acquainted with many of the new men enrolled for the first time. To those whom we have not yet met, we wish to extend greetings, and hope that soon all of the new students shall have become acquainted with P.A.D.

ANSWERS TO THE CHART ON CONSIDERATION

1—Plaintiff.
2—Defendant.
3—Defendant.
4—Defendant.
5—Plaintiff.
6—Defendant.
7—Defendant.
8—Defendant.
9—Defendant.
10—Defendant.
11—Defendant.
12—Defendant.
13—Defendant.
14—Defendant.
15—Defendant.
16—Defendant.
17—Plaintiff.
18—Defendant.
19—Defendant.
20—Plaintiff.
21—Plaintiff.
22—Plaintiff—at least pro tanto.
23—Plaintiff—at least pro tanto.
24—Defendant.
25—Plaintiff.
26—Plaintiff—at least pro tanto.
27—Plaintiff—at least pro tanto.
28—Defendant.
29—Plaintiff as to both.
30—Plaintiff as to No. 1; defendant as to No. 2.
31—Plaintiff as to No. 1; defendant as to No. 2.
32—Plaintiff as to No. 1; defendant as to No. 2.
33—Plaintiff as to both.
34—Plaintiff as to No. 1; defendant as to No. 2.
35—Plaintiff as to No. 1; defendant as to No. 2.
“Far away there in the sunshine are my highest aspirations. I may not reach them, but I can look up and see their beauty, believe in them, and try to follow where they lead.”

E. M. Alcott