Chicago-Kent Law Review

Volume 6 | Issue 8

June 1928

News of the Alumni

Chicago-Kent Law Review

Follow this and additional works at: https://scholarship.kentlaw.iit.edu/cklawreview

Part of the Law Commons

Recommended Citation
Available at: https://scholarship.kentlaw.iit.edu/cklawreview/vol6/iss8/4

This Notes is brought to you for free and open access by Scholarly Commons @ IIT Chicago-Kent College of Law. It has been accepted for inclusion in Chicago-Kent Law Review by an authorized editor of Scholarly Commons @ IIT Chicago-Kent College of Law. For more information, please contact dginsberg@kentlaw.iit.edu.
NEWS OF THE ALUMNI

The Review is in receipt of information of the death of James H. Stansfield, C'94. Mr. Stansfield was connected with the office of the Judge Advocate General at Washington at the time of his death.

Frederick W. Elliott, CK'09, was among the list of successful candidates for judicial honors at the primary on April 10th, being among the leaders in the race for the nomination for associate judge of the Municipal Court. Mr. Elliott has had a varied experience, as assistant corporation counsel, assistant attorney general of Illinois, and assistant to the judge of the Probate Court. He is now an assistant state's attorney assigned to trial work.

S. J. Lehrer, CK'14, is located at 923 Monadnock Block. Mr. Lehrer is associated with Milo Stevens & Company, patent solicitors, with which firm he has been continuously connected since before his enrollment as a student at the college.

Judge Matthew D. Hartigan, CK'15, was a successful candidate for nomination for another term as associate judge of the Municipal Court in the Democratic party primary on April 10th. Judge Hartigan received the indorsement of the Chicago Bar Association on candidates.

William Bachrach, CK'17, is vice president of the Dearborn Furniture Company located at the American Furniture Mart, 666 Lake Shore Drive. Mr. Bachrach was connected with the public schools of Chicago for 26 years prior to embarking in the furniture manufacturing business. He served as director of continuation schools, and from 1924 to 1927 as supervisor of commercial work in high schools.

Allan T. Gilbert, CK'18, former judge advocate of the American Legion, announces the removal on May 1st of his law offices from the First National Bank Building to 120 S. LaSalle Street. Mr. Gilbert is a member of the recently formed firm of Watkins, Ten Hoor and Gilbert.

Miss Grace Cooper and Donald Russell Murray, both of CK'27, were married on April 7, 1928. Mr. and Mrs. Murray will reside at 1506 Arthur Avenue, Chicago.

Alice Craig Edgerton was a visitor during the week of May 5th.

Dr. Anna Sorna is completing a circle tour of Miami, Panama Canal and California.

Florence Dicker Simons spent Easter week in Biloxi and New Orleans.

Martin J. O'Connell, CK'20, died on March 8, 1928. This brief announcement contains all of the information so far available concerning the death of Mr. O'Connell.

Stephan A. Thieda, CK'20, was a candidate for the nomination as associate judge of the Municipal Court of Chicago in the Republican party primaries in April and received the indorsement of the Chicago Bar Association committee on candidates. Mr. Thieda is engaged in the general practice of law at 19 S. LaSalle St.

Perry J. Ten Hoor, PG'21, former assistant judge advocate of the American Legion, has moved his law office from 105 W. Monroe Street to 120 S. LaSalle Street where he joins the newly formed firm of Watkins, Ten Hoor and Gilbert.

Ferre C. Watkins, PG'21, former state commander of the American Legion, with offices at 231 S. LaSalle Street, is a member of the recently formed firm of Watkins, Ten Hoor and Gilbert. The new firm is located at 120 S. LaSalle Street. Telephone: Randolph 0175.

William B. Gemmill, CK'22, was the youngest of the candidates for judicial honors in the recent primary for the selection of nominees for associate justice of the Municipal Court of Chicago. Mr. Gemmill is the son of William N. Gemmill, judge of the Superior Court, and received the indorsement of the Chicago Bar Association committee on candidates.

Louis Gelfand, CK'26, is now located at 824 First National Bank Building, 33 S. Clark Street, where he will continue his law practice.