REPRINT OF LEADING ARTICLES.

Many requests have been received by the College from all parts of the country for back issues of the CHICAGO-KENT REVIEW. Since most of the numbers are out of print, it has been impossible to comply with these requests heretofore. The graduating class of 1930, however, seeing the possibility of filling the need, requested that the fund which ordinarily would have been used to publish a year book be used to reprint the leading articles published in past issues of the REVIEW.

The REVIEW was first published in the fall of 1921 as an undergraduate news pamphlet. Gradually it grew in proportion and dignity of purpose, adding in turn articles on legal subjects by professors of the College and other members of the Bar, book reviews, and discussion of important late decisions.

The book of reprints will provide a convenient compilation of many of these articles in one bound volume. A comprehensive index has been prepared by members of the donating class, and in addition to William W. Hamilton, under whose supervision a great deal of time and effort was expended on the indexing, the College extends to Robert J. Burdett and Eric Collins its sincere appreciation.
