THE KENNETH M. PIPER LECTURESHIP SERIES

This volume is the third annual publication by the Chicago-Kent Law Review under the auspices of the Kenneth M. Piper Lectureship Series. Through the generosity of Mrs. Kenneth M. Piper, the Review publishes an annual volume featuring lectures and panel discussions held at IIT/Chicago-Kent College of Law to explore issues of importance to the legal community. This Lectureship Series is dedicated to the memory of Mr. Kenneth M. Piper, who contributed much to the fields of personnel management and labor relations during more than two decades of service with Motorola, Inc. and Bausch & Lomb, Inc.

This year's Piper Series included two lectures. Roger Blanpain, Director of the Institute for Labor Relations and Professor of Law at the Université Catholique de Louvain in Belgium spoke on TRANSNATIONAL REGULATION OF THE LABOR RELATIONS OF MULTINATIONAL ENTERPRISES. And Douglas A. Fraser, President of United Auto Workers and Board Member of Chrysler Corporation, addressed WORKER PARTICIPATION IN CORPORATE GOVERNMENT: THE U.A.W.-CHRYSLER EXPERIENCE. Participating in discussions following the lectures were two distinguished panels. The issue also includes articles discussing other issues of interest in the field of labor law.

The editors and staff of the Chicago-Kent Law Review wish to express our continuing appreciation to Mrs. Kenneth M. Piper for supporting scholarship and discussion in this important area.
